Chinese Press Forward With Tanks Into India

Nehru Fears Reds Peril Independence

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru declared today that the Independence of India is threatened by Chinese Communist attack.

If necessary, everything else must be sacrificed to meet the threat to the freedom of the Indian people, Nehru said in a broadcast.

He said India is facing a "powerful and unscrupulous opponent."

He spoke at the end of the third day of a Chinese offensive into northeastern and northwestern India.

Reporting on the fighting along the disputed Himalayan frontier, an Indian spokesman indicated the Chinese were still advancing. They captured four more posts at the southern end of the Ladakh battlefront in northwest India, one post falling to tanks after they had turned back two previous Chinese assaults, he said.

Peiping radio, which says the Chinese are fighting in self-defenshe against Indian aggression reported an outbreak of fighting in a new area on the north side of the border claimed by India. It said Indian troops at Hsialinkung launched "a violent attack" and that Communist troops "were compelled to hit back."

Hsialinkung is in the Chayul area of Tibet, and is about 50 miles northeast of Thagla Ridge, which India claims as her northeastern border near the little Himalayan state of Bhutan.

SURPRISE ATTACK

Indian defense officials said the Red Chinese launched a surprise attack at dawn Saturday from positions inside Indian territory. The Chinese accused the Indians of launching hostilities.

Indian defense officials admitted loss of at least seven border posts in the northeastern sector and in the Ladakh theater 900 miles to the northwest—both remote snow-covered mountainous areas.

Both Prime Minister Jigme Dorji of Bhutan and the crown prince of Sikkim, Maharaja Kumar Palden Thondup Namgyal, arrived in New Delhi for emergency talks.

BHUTAN REQUEST

India is reported to have asked Bhutan for permission to send in a military defense force. Red China has claimed a part of southeastern Bhutan.

Bhutan is an independent country, but India by treaty handles its foreign relations and has a mission in the country to train its small military force. Sikkim is an Indian protectorate.

Years ago, Red China's Mao Tze-tung said both Bhutan and Sikkim should be a part of China by right of treaties with old Chinese empires.

On new Chinese objective appeared to be Chushul airfield, only air supply base for Indian troops facing the Chinese in the Ladakh theater of operations, 900 miles west of the Northeast Frontier area, which is near the airfield.

LEADERS CALLED IN

JFK Reporting On 'Emergency'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy was to address the nation on "a subject of the highest national urgency" over television this afternoon.

(Radio station KNBC in San Francisco will broadcast a transcription of Kennedy's speech at 7:30 p.m. today.)

The White House announced that Kennedy also had scheduled meetings of the National Security Council, the Cabinet and congressional leaders of both parties this afternoon.

Democrats and Republican leaders in Congress were asked to report to the White House.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson already was in Washington. Fifteen senators and representatives, including chairmen and top minority members of the Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committees of Congress, were asked to attend the conference.

Salinger said Air Force planes were sent to bring the senators and representatives to Washington where no other rapid transportation was available.

Kennedy conferred in private this morning with key administration officials, including Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

The high level sessions were held while evidence mounted that some major international development was imminent.

There was fresh speculation that the heart of the mystery-laden meetings in the capital over the weekend lay in Europe — quite possibly at the storm center of Berlin.

Among those at the White House this morning were Llewellyn Thompson, former ambassador to Russia and now a State Department adviser on the Soviet Union.

Trapped Man Saved By Deputy

A San Francisco man, trapped half way up a sheer 200-foot cliff south of Stinson Beach, was saved last night in a daring rescue by Deputy Sheriff Raymond L. von Savoye.

The deputy lowered himself over the cliff by rope and plucked Allen L. Saperstein, 22, of 69-A Gilbert Street from a narrow ledge just as darkness and the freezing cold closed in.

ROCK FALLS

Saperstein and his companion, Tary A. Rebenar, 22, also of 69-A Gilbert Street, had been climbing the cliff about a mile and a half south of Stinson Beach when a rock fell on Saperstein, hitting him on the shoulder.

The impact knocked Saperstein onto a narrow ledge. Rebenar tried to reach him, slipped, but caught himself in time. He suffered scrapes and bruises of his left hand. Rebenar decided to go for help.

It was about 6:30 p.m. when Rebenar got to a telephone to seek aid.

ROPE PROVIDED

Deputy von Savoye said Stinson Beach State Park rangers provided rope, and the Stinson Beach Volunteer Fire Department also arrived with manpower and an ambulance.

"There was nothing we could tie the rope to, not even a rock," said von Savoye. As rangers and firemen hung on to the ropes, von Savoye lowered himself to Saperstein, tied a second rope to the victim, and the two were hauled to safety.

"It was pitch dark by the time we saved him," said Deputy von Savoye. "A little bit later and it would have been hard to locate him."

Caribbean Maneuvers Called Off

WASHINGTON (AP) — A practice landing by 6,000 Marines on the Caribbean island of Vieques was canceled abruptly today.

The Defense Department said the practice landing through the surf and by helicopter had been called off because the ships of the Navy's amphibious force had been scattered by a hurricane.

The practice landing had been scheduled for Tuesday as the climax of an antisubmarine warfare-amphibious exercise which began Oct. 15 and is due to wind up Oct. 30. The exercise involves about 40 Navy ships and 20,000 Navy and Marine men.

There was no immediate indication whether the landings might still be held before the end of the exercise period.

It is a regular training area for the Marine Corps and the Atlantic Fleet.

The big exercise which began Oct. 15 was planned late last year. Similiar drills have been helld about once a year for some time.

Searchers Stranded By Weather

Michael Gordon, owner of Jim's Sport Shop in Novato, was lost in thick fog at Black Point with two teen-age fishing companions last night but groped back to shore about midnight.

However, a search craft with a Novato police officer aboard got hung up in the mudflats off Hamilton Air Force Base and was stranded all night in the freezing cold.

WALKIE-TALKIE

Officer Floyd Hollowell and Charles E. Myers of 626 Trumbull Avenue, Novato, had a walkie-talkie with them in the search. However, the walkie-talkie went dead. They said they could hear searchers calling for them over loudspeakers but could not answer them.

The two wrapped themselves in tarpaulin, waited for the tide to refloat their boat, and managed to come ashore at 8 a.m. today. They were "frozen stiff" but otherwise unharmed.

The missing trio that set off the search in the first place were Gordon, and two boys from San Francisco, Joel Spear, 18, and Martin Ferrari, 14.

FAILED TO RETURN

Mrs. Michael Gordon called the sheriff for help at 9:40 last night when her husband and the boys failed to return. They had parked their car at the Black Point boat launching ramp and expected to be back before dark.

The Coast Guard and Hamilton Air Force Base were alerted to help in the search. Myers, who works for Gordon at Jim's Sport Shop, and Officer Hollowell took a 16-foot boat to look for the missing fishing boat. That was about 11:30 p.m.

The missing fishermen got back within an hour, but the search boat was then trapped for eight hours on the mudflats.

Pole Houses Cost Investigation Asked

Marin County grand jury investigation of actual costs of Marin City's 59 "houses on poles" was asked yesterday by a group of Marin City residents.

Citizens, at a meeting called by the Marin City citizens committee and Marin City Ministerial Alliance voted 29-16 to ask for investigation.

Discussion was held on the subject before about 50 people, according to Frank Phillips, citizens committee chairman.

Benjamin Myles, citizens committee secretary, reported an architect—whom he did not identify—has valued the homes at $9,038, including the agent's commission. They are to be sold for prices between $15,950 and $18,500. They are the first permanent single family homes to be made available to the residents who are being relocated from World War II temporary housing.

Rev. Samuel Banks, pastor of the Village Baptist Church and chairman of the ministerial alliance, asked how many wanted to buy a home in Marin City but refused to buy a "pole house." Thirty persons raised their hands.

Two persons out of 30 who have placed $300 deposits on the homes have asked for their money back, Phillips told the audience. They are L. V. Bradley and Henry Gaddison. Gaddison, Phillips added, asked for return of his money last month but as yet has not received it.

"No one has asked formally by letter for return of their deposits," said John H. Tolan Jr. of Barrett Homes Inc., today.

He said Phillips had asked that his deposit apply to the next unit to be built, not to the pole houses. "I said," Tolan commented, "in so far as possible, I will do it." He indicated this was the general policy.

Tolan, said Gaddison, asked about his deposit but agreed to wait and reserve judgment when the pole houses are completed.

Tolan said Barrett Homes Inc. expects to get federal housing authority approval Wednesday for immediate start of construction of 48 cooperative apartments, the second phase of redevelopment. The two and three-bedroom apartments, to be built on Drake Avenue behind the present administrative building, will be similar to cooperative apartments built in Terra Linda, he said.

One resident recommended grand jury investigation of the question of what is to be done for 19 single persons living in the low-rent housing who, he said, are to be evicted next February when 10 buildings are demolished to make way for a new road.

The firm of Dreyfus, Conradi and Dreyfus, San Francisco attorneys, has been hired by the citizens committee, Phillips said.

Fog Drops A Blanket Over Marin, Slows Down Bay Area Road Traffic

Fog muffled Marin County this morning for the third straight day, but lifted in many areas before noon.

The gray blanket was worse, however, on the San Francisco side of the bay, where it halted air travel and slowed highway traffic.

The Weather Bureau attributed the fog, which covered most of Northern California, to recent heavy rains and a static mass of air soaking up moisture from the soggy earth.

The California Highway Patrol reported no increase in traffic accidents due to the fog, and traffic this morning was "moving normally."

Civilian light planes were grounded but officials at Hamilton Air Force Base said the fog did not interfere with most air operations. It was a "little handicap" for training flights, but all-weather interceptors ignored the one-mile visibility limitation and flew on instruments.

A Hamilton spokesman said the fog was at its worst Saturday, but even then it broke by noon.

Commodore Flying Service at Richardson Bay reported its planes had been grounded since yesterday morning because much of its activity is training, requiring good visibility.

Commercial airline flights to San Francisco had to be diverted to Los Angeles. Some flights were delayed elsewhere in the country as much as four hours.

Morning fog is expected again tomorrow, lingering until the air warms enough to absorb the excess moisture.

Novato Urban Money Approved

The Urban Renewal Administration today approved $46,980 for a federally assisted planning grant for the city of Novato, Sen. Clair M. Engle reported from Washington.

Billy D. Dobbs, Marin County planning director who prepared the plans for the study, said cost of the master plan was set at $70,463. The federal government has approved its two-thirds share of this.

The City of Novato, the Novato Sanitary District and the County of Marin will share the other one-third.

High Court Refuses To Rule In New York Wire Tap Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to rule on an appeal contending state-authorized wiretapping in pursuit of law violators is a violation of the U. S. Constitution.

The ruling was asked by counsel for three Yonkers, N. Y., men convicted of bookmaking at a trial in which recorded telephone conversations obtained by wiretapping comprised the state's basic evidence.

New York law permits wiretapping under court order. A section of the federal communications act says "no person not being authorized by the sender shall intercept any communication" or divulge its contents.

In 1952 the Supreme Court in a Texas case said wiretap evidence might be received in state courts; although the admission in evidence violated federal law the court "refused to overturn a state rule of evidence." On March 29, 1861, the Supreme Court in an Ohio case said evidence obtained by searches and seizure in violation of the U. S. Constitution was not admissible in a criminal trial in a state court.

Counsel for the three Yonkers men, in appealing to the high tribunal, contended the decision in the Ohio case now requires a holding that court-ordered wiretaps may not be constitutionally be received in evidence in state trials. Such evidence is barred in federal court trials.

The appeal said conviction of the three bookmakers violated the U. S. Constitution's supremacy of federal law clause; also their rights under guarantees of due process and equal protection of laws.

Ike Is Against Sniping During A Kennedy Crisis

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says political snipers should hold their fire while President John F. Kennedy is trying to deal with an international crisis.

To subject him to campaign attacks while he is attempting to cope with a current foreign policy problem is to weaken and divide the nation, Eisenhower said in a taped television interview yesterday.

At the same time the former president stoutly defended the Repuolican party's right to discuss policy matters that are history and the general long-range attitude of the nation toward its whole position in the world.

"Any pronouncements he may make respecting an impending crisis is almost sacrosanct as far as I am concerned," Eisenhower said.

"If anyone argues with him, and the bigger the following this opponent gets, the more it has divided our country."

Eisenhower's comments came in the wake of congressional campaign cross-fire over the Communist regime in Cuba and the Berlin crisis. Last Monday, in a Boston speech, Eisenhower joined in the fray, criticizing Kennedy for conducting "a dreary foreign policy . . . to sad to talk about."

In that stinging attack, Eisenhower termed "a strange departure from fact" a quote he attributed to Kennedy that "during eight years of Republican administration our foreign policy drifted aimlessly about."

Eisenhower said yesterday, "I think that probably we have heard the last of it. At least I hope so."

Eisenhower said it was the Democrats who first brought up foreign policy, accusing his Republican administration of drifting for eight years, and that he had responded to this in his Boston remarks.

"I do not believe we should fail to discuss things that are history," Eisenhower said. "A loyal opposition has got a perfect right to discuss it without rancor."

At the same time Eisenhower brushed aside as "none of my business" a request for comment on calls by some Democrats and Republicans for an immediate invasion of Cuba.

Of the last Cuban invasion—the April 1961 Bay of Pigs fiasco—Eisenhower said he has never expressed an opinion about it at all.

Noting it occurred three months after the Kennedy administration had taken over, Eisenhower said:

"I do not know enough about its complete details to comment upon it, and so while others have, others of my party and I suppose some of the other party have, I have personally kept still about it."

Commenting on Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro, Eisenhower said: "While it is true the activities and the actions of the man began to prove his real situation and his real intentions before I left office, the fact was that it was just something a situation we were still trying to save rather by diplomatic means than anything else."

Last Tuesday, the Republican campaign high command declared that foreign policy—Cuba in particular — is "the dominant issue of the 1962 campaign."

A formal statement, issued at GOP headquarters, declared: "If we were asked to state the issue in one word that word would be Cuba—symbol of the tragic irresolution of the administration."

Rep. William E. Miller, national party chairman, was joined in the statement by Sen. Barry Goldwater and Rep. Bob Wilson, chairman of the Senate and House GOP campaign committees.

Reached last night at Niagara Falls, N.Y., Miller said in a telephone interview there is no Republican disagreement over Cuba's place in the campaign.

MILITARY GUARD AT YEMEN CAPITAL

A Yemeni soldier, armed with a Russian automatic weapon, stands guard on the roof of an old royal palace overlooking the Yemen capital city, San'a, with its minarets and high mud-brick houses clustered together. For years foreigners were forbidden to enter the mountain-rimmed city deep in the country's interior. Premier Abdullah Sallal was quoted yesterday as announcing that his Republican army had taken over "every inch" of Yemen's eastern Marib area from royalist supporters of the dethroned Imam Mohammed Al-Badr.

19 DIE AS BARGE, SHIP HIT IN RIVER

Twelve bodies—most of them badly burned—were recovered from the Mississippi River and the charred bulk of the 13,500-ton motor tanker Boheme. Searchers sought seven others still unaccounted for.

Firefighters put out the last blaze aboard the beached ship last night—about 36 hours after the tanker, bound for the continent, collided near here with a string of oil barges towed by the tug Bonnie D.

As salvage work began, the Coast Guard prepared an investigation but no hearing date was announced. A spokesman for A. O. Andersen Steamship Co., of Oslo, Norway, owner of the Boheme, said her cargo, which included a highly flammable nitrate solvent, was intact.

The spokesman said it was too early to give an estimate of damage, but fore and aft sections were badly charred. The engine room and nearby crew's quarters, where many were trapped, were heavily burned.

Panic - stricken crewmen leaped into the flaming waters as fire roared across the Boheme's deck and explosions—apparently from the engine room—rocked the tanker. Seamen's cries could be heard from shore.

The lone identified body was that of Second Mate Hans Wollsen, 65, of Copenhagen. It was found in the river soon after the crash.

Two crewmen are in critical condition

Norway Sea Claims 20

Five lifeboats with 47 survivors had been found, and 20 or more persons were missing.

Of the survivors, 23 were passengers and 24 were members of the 45-man crew.

The modern 2,172-ton liner went aground last night in gale force winds four miles south of Nordoeya Lighthouse Island.

The ship messaged that it pulled itself clear, but it had been holed by the grounding. Thirty minutes later it radioed that it was taking a considerable amount of water and abandon ship was ordered.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Prelate Says World Soul Lost

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The world has, by and large, lost its soul, the Archbishop of Canterbury says.

Dr. Arthur Michael Ramsey, spiritual leader of the Church of England and the Anglican Communion, spoke to more than 1,000 persons at the University of California at Los Angeles last night.

He said "races and nations are not using the world's resources in fellowship, are exploiting their neighbors and aggrandizing themselves, trying to dethrone god."

He said pride is "the supreme rebellion against God."

Car Hood Flips, Cuts Power

CUMBERLAND, Ind. (AP)—At 6:10 p.m. the burglar alarm at the bank began jangling. Lights and traffic signals blacked out. A fire sprang up in a vacant lot. Telephone lines went dead.

Authorities later blamed it all on a loose hood on Ford Sorrell's 1949 model car.

Town Marshal Vernon Buckshot said the hood flew off the 18-year-old Indianapolis youth's auto as he drove along U.S. 40 Sunday night. The wayward metal sheet soared over the car and sliced through telephone lines and a 13,000-volt electrical cable.

Power was restored to this small suburb east of Indianapolis two hours later.

Gems, Furs Taken

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Police were looking today for a burglar with a taste for furs, jewelry and black lace nightgowns.

Some $30,000 in jewelry and furs were discovered missing early yesterday from the Nob Hill penthouse of socialite Peter Bercut, San Francisco police reported.

Included in the missing items was a lace nightgown which the Bercuts gave their daughter, Suzanne, on her 21st birthday.

Ranger 5 Tracked

PASADENA (AP) — Tracking stations will determine by tomorrow whether Ranger 5 will go into orbit around the sun, its builders say.

The spacecraft, thwarted by a power failure from its intended lunar landing, passed within 450 miles of the moon yesterday, the Jet Propulsion Laboratory reported.

The spacecraft, 13 feet tall, was launched last Thursday at Cape Canaveral. It was supposed to televise the moon at close range and measure quakes of the lunar surface.

However, solar panels intended to power the camera and devices to correct its path failed soon after launching.

106 Autos Stolen

GLENDALE (UPI)—Local police report that 106 automobiles were reported stolen in Glendale in the first six months of 1962.

Drowns In Rainwater

The body of Patrick Leslie Haislip, 6, was found in the muddy waters yesterday after Fragments of a makeshift raft were floating in the pool, filled by recent rains.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haislip.

Spy Sentenced

LONDON (UPI) — British Admiralty clerk William John Christopher Vasall, a clergyman's son, pleaded guilty today to spying for Russia and was sentenced to 18 years in prison.

Slim, soft-spoken Vassal, 38, replied "guilty, sir," to all four charges under the official secrets act of collecting and communicating information which might be useful to an enemy. Vassal once worked in the naval attache's office of the British Embassy in Moscow.

Bomb In Basement

The blast wrecked a basement play room and broke windows in the two-story seven-room brick house and in an adjoining home. No one was injured.

McCarron, whose father, Walter Edward McCarron was former Cook County coroner, estimated damage at $5,000. Young McCarron, 34, his wife, Mary, 32, and their three children, Timothy, 10, Michael, 7, and Marianne, 4, were in the house when the bomb, apparently placed at a basement window, exploded.

S. Viet Nam Progress

SAIGON (UPI) — The commander-in-chief of America's Pacific command, Adm. Harry D. Felt, wound up a four-day visit to South Viet Nam today and said he found the anti-Guerrilla war against Communist Viet Cong forces making significant progress.

He said the communists are losing from five to six times as many men as government forces.

Davis Now Offering English Ph.D. Degree

DAVIS (UPI)—The Davis campus of the University of California this year is offering a Ph.D. Degree in English for the first time in its history.

About 35 graduate students from across the country have enrolled in the new program.

Mother Turns Vamp To Slow Truckers

LONDON (AP) — Anne MacDonald, a shapely mother of four, became a roadside vamp to slow down fast drivers.

Then she wiggled her hips and gave the hitch-hiking thumb sign to every passing motorist.

When truck drivers pulled up to offer her a lift, Mrs. MacDonald, 31, smiled sweetly and said: "Thank you for stopping. I do hope you will observe the speed limit through our village."

Mrs. MacDonald, said she had written six times to the Transport Ministry asking that it do something about the many drivers who ignored the village's 30-mile-an-hour speed limit.

"I saw drivers whistling at pretty girls in the village and that gave me a new idea," she said.

Mrs. MacDonald now has abandoned her vamp technique.

"The drivers were all as nasty as possible," she said. "I'm shocked.

Slight Auto Bump: Sickness Later

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Whiplash probably is the most common type of injury arising from auto accidents —and most Americans have been involved in a motor mishap at one time or another.

Even a lightweight rear end bump could produce a whiplash injury to the neck. The effects of such a bump can be drastic even though the symptoms don't appear until weeks or months after the accident.

The unexpected bump may snap your head back and cause the vertebrae in your neck to lose their normal alignment. Such a displacement can damage nerves, blood vessels and muscles in the neck region. Eventually organs elsewhere in your body may be effected—the heart, liver, kidneys or stomach.

These symptoms, distant from the site of injury can be explained by the fact that nerves supplying all the organs and tissues of the body originate in the brain and are channeled through the bony framework of the spinal column. Consequently, when the spine is jolted by the sudden whiplash in the neck, a vertebrae may be forced out of place and pinch nerves leading to any one of several organs.

Let's take the stomach as an example. Because of damaged nerve supply, the stomach in time will lose its digestive efficiency and ulcers may occur. The cause of the ulcers, however, remains in the neck . . . the vertebrae that was jerked out of line.

The science of finding and restoring misaligned vertebrae is the science of Chiropractic. When the nerve interference is removed efficiently and painlessly by a Chiropractic adjustment, nerves will return to normal function and the stomach ulcers eventually will disappear—with the help of time and nature.

Mother Testifies At Trial

Murder suspect Claude Hilton Bradley, 22, buried his head in his arms on the courtroom table and wept quietly this morning as his mother took the stand in his defense before Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. in Marin Superior Court.

Mrs. Nora Woosley, Bradley's mother, told the jury of nine women and three men that her son was always kind and gentle and very loving toward her and toward women in general.

"He made friends easily, and everybody liked him," said Mrs. Woosley. "He wanted love, but his mother couldn't give him the time."

She testified that she had been married four times, and worked as cocktail waitress at night. She said her son has been resentful of his stepfather ever since her last marriage about 10 years ago.

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety contends that Bradley visited Mrs. Carole Leona Frederick, 29, at her apartment at 45 Woodland Avenue and strangled her to death on the morning of June 3.

Defense attorney Berwyn A. Rice said he intends to call several psychiatrists to testify on Bradley's mental condition. "I don't think he has the ability to form an intent or malice aforethought," the lawyer declared. "He seems to remember up to a point and then his mind regresses."

Engraver's Legs Broken By Auto

Donald M. Parker, 55, of 842 Hayden Drive, Novato, an engraver for the Independent-Journal, suffered compound fractures of both legs about 10 p.m. yesterday when his car pinned him against the garage at his Novato home.

The brake on the car slipped and the car rolled down the inclined driveway to the garage, pinning Parker against the wall, he reported.

A. E. Heise of 839 Hayden Drive, heard the crash. He backed the car away from Parker and called United Ambulance, which took him to Novato General Hospital. He was reported in satisfactory condition today by the hospital.

Mrs. Parker had left Saturday on a trip to the Midwest.

charges linking the United States with the border strife.

The U.S. State Department said in a statement yesterday "our sympathy is with India as it seeks to meet this unprincipled challenge to its national integrity."

The Indian government has admitted its troops have been forced to fall back in the face of what were described as attacks with overwhelming strength. Various reports said four to seven strongpoints were lost.

Stolen Auto Found, Stripped Of Parts

Sausalito policeman Stanley Kelly's 1954 two-door sedan, stolen in Marin City Thursday night while Mrs. Kelly, a school teacher, attended a meeting, was found Friday afternoon near 49 Cole Drive.

The car had been stripped, Kelly said. Generator and battery were taken and manifold was disconnected. The water heater had been damaged and the fan belt cut.

Two Treated For Wounds After Fight

Two Marin City men were treated for knife wounds and bruises early yesterday after a brawl involving about 20 persons at a Richardson Bay bar, sheriff's deputies reported.

Isaac Felder, 30, of 49 Cole Drive, suffered a knife slash in the abdomen which required 15 stitches. Amos Hollis, 43, of Building A-54, was treated for bruises on his head. They, and a third man, Willie Perkiss, 30, of San Francisco, were booked on drunk charges in Marin County Jail after treatment at Marin General Hospital.

Deputies said about 20 men appeared to be taking part in a scuffle at the Pig Haven Bar when they arrived at the scene shortly before 3 a.m.

The men were not sure who their assailants were. A witness, Joseph W. Duncan of San Francisco, told deputies "it all started when someone walked up and threatened to shoot Perkiss."

Patrolman Breaks Nose In Accident

Just ahead was a car driven by A/1c Kerlin R. Farwell, living on the base. Farwell later said a third vehicle swung in ahead of him so close that he hastily backed his own car without noting the patrol car behind.

Drainage Report On Schools Due

A report on the drainage project at the Meadow Park School will be given to the San Jose Elementary School District board at 8 o'clock tonight in the administration building.

Supt. Ralpn Giovanniello will report to the board on this project. The board will also consider a grant of easement to Pacific Gas and Electric Co. for a high line over the upper portion of the San Jose Intermediate School grounds.

Other items to come before the board include a report on copyrighting mathematics materials and a report on mathematics and social studies.

OBITUARIES

Berrien P. Anderson III Rites Set

Funeral services of Berrien P. Anderson III, 18, who was killed Friday night in an auto accident near Ventura, will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael. Inurnment will be private.

Friends may call at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Young Anderson was killed when the car in which he was riding with Theodore Fouts, 17, of Newport Beach, a classmate at Menlo College, spun out of control and overturned on Highway 101. Fouts, the driver, suffered minor injuries.

Anderson was born in Pensacola, Fla., April 18, 1944, when his father, Berrien P. Anderson Jr., was a Navy flier there.

He attended Coleman School in San Rafael, Sleepy Hollow School, and Desert Sun School in Idyllwild, Riverside County, where he was graduated last June as president of the senior class. He entered Menlo College last month.

He is survived by his father, former San Rafael resident now of Climbing Arrow Ranch, Bozeman, Mont.; his mother, Mrs. Robert E. Linscott of Kentfield, with whom he lived; five half-brothers and two half-sisters, Mark, Bruce and Tracey Linscott of Kentfield, and Page, Frank, Anita and Katherine Anderson of Bozeman, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Berrien P. Anderson Sr. of San Rafael and Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield Baker of San Rafael and San Francisco.

Founder Of Sewing Circle Dies

The funeral of Mrs. Cristina Farlatti of Kentfield, a resident of Marin County since 1910, will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Mrs. Farlatti, 79, died Saturday at a local hospital after a long illness.

Mrs. Farlatti, who leaves a son, Ben A. Farlatti, and a daughter-in-law, Juliat, both of Pasadena, founded the Florence Crittenden Sewing Circle in 1925, now the Marin Sewing Circle, which aids the Florence Crittenden Home for unwed mothers in San Francisco. She served several terms as president. She was also an active member of Tamalpais Center Woman's Club. She held a number of important chairmanships and was active in county politics.

Mrs. Farlatti was a member of the pioneer Cavagnaro family of San Francisco and was born and reared in the historic Octagon House on Gough Street in San Francisco, now owned by the National Society of Colonial Dames.

She was the widow of Massimo Farlatti and lived most recently at 118 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield.

Interment will be private.

NELL MOLSEED

Requiem Mass for Mrs. Nell E. Molseed, 54, a former Marin resident, will be celebrated tomorrow at 11 a.m. in the Church of Assumption in Tomales.

She died Saturday in a Petaluma hospital after a long illness. She was a native of Tomales and attended schools there.

Mrs. Molseed was graduated from San Francisco State College and later taught school in Santa Rosa and San Rafael. For the past eight years she had taught in Fort Bragg schools and was a resident of Fort Bragg.

She was a member of the California State Teachers Assn., St. Francis Altar Society and California Christian Doctoran.

Mrs. Molseed leaves two sons and a daughter, Elwood Molseed of Berkeley, Larry Molseed of San Jose, and Mary Molseed of Fort Bragg; four sisters and a brother, Mrs. John Kinloch of Suisun, Mrs. John Montgomery of San Mateo, Mrs. Louis Sheehan of Oakland, Mrs Robert Maloney and A. L. Cunningham of Fallon.

Burial will be in Tomales Catholic Cemetery, directed by Sorensen Funeral Home, Petaluma.

CATHERINE MOSHER

Mrs. Catherine C. Mosher, 46, a former clerk in the Kentfield Post Office, died early today in a Sonoma hospital after an illness of about four weeks.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

Mrs. Mosher joined the staff of the Kentfield Post Office in 1949 and continued in the postal service until 1956. The Moshers lived in Kentfield until their departure from Marin County in 1959, since when they lived in Rio Del Mar, Santa Cruz County, though her husband, Harold Mosher, retained an interest in the San Rafael contracting firm of Mosher Brothers.

She became ill recently while visiting her sister, Mrs. Barbara Schnell, in Sonoma.

Survivors include three sons, Dr. Loren Mosher of Boston, Roger Mosher of Palo Alto and Harold Jr. of Denver, and two brothers, John Conley of Napa and Michael Conley of Illinois.

MATILDA EDWARDS

Funeral services for Matilda Edwards of Greenbrae, who died in her sleep Saturday, will be held at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo.

Mrs. Edwards, who suffered a heart condition, had lived with her daughter, Mrs. Gordon S. Carman, at 12 Corte Los Sombras, Greenbrae, for 14 years. Her husband, Harvey C. Edwards, died three years ago.

She leaves, besides her daughter, a son, Clarence Edwards of Atwater, Merced County; a sister, Ella Rahn of Greenbrae; a brother, Clarence Rahn of Lava Hot Springs, Ida., and two grandchildren.

Entombment will be at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

JESSIE GAINEY

Funeral services for Mrs. Jessie Roark Gainey, 70, of San Anselmo, will be held tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael.

Mrs. Gainey died Thursday in a local hospital after a long illness. She was a retired apartment house owner and had lived for the past four years at 14 Sunnyside Avenue, San Anselmo. She was a native of Missouri.

She leaves two sons, Frank S. Gainey Jr. of San Anselmo and Raymond S. Gainey of San Francisco; a daughter, Mary C. Gainey of San Anselmo; a brother, Martin Roark of San Rafael; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Elliott and Mrs. Helena B. Stites of Salt Lake City, and two grandchildren.

Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

FRANKA HAMBERG

Private funeral services for Franka M. Hamberg, 89, a Marin resident for 20 years, were held today at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

Mrs. Hamberg died Thursday in a lon gillness. She retired four years ago after working as a cook and housekeeper for the faculty at Marin Catholic High School. Her home was at 219 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo. She was a native of Germany but had lived in California 75 years.

She leaves a sister, Catherine of Santa Cruz.

Burial was in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

FRANK GREEN

Funeral services for Frank Green, 64, of 11 Marion Court, Novato, who died Friday in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness, will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Redwood Chapel Funeral Home, Novato.

He was born in Sydney, Australia, on Dec. 24, 1897. He came to this county 42 years ago and has lived in the Bay Area since. He moved to Novato nine years ago.

For 25 years he had worked for the Pacific Maritime Assn. He was a member of the International Longshoremen and Warehousemen's Union.

He is survived by his wife, Evangeline Green of the home; a brother, Eric Green of New York, and several other brothers in Australia.

Private inurnment will be in Marin Memorial Gardens, Novato.

MRS. CAILLEAUD

Funeral services for Honorine Cailleaud, 66, member of an early day Marin family, will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Halsted and Co. in San Francisco.

Mrs. Cailleaud died Saturday in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness. She was the widow of August A. Cailleaud, whose father, Henry Cailleaud, built Deer Park Villa in Fairfax 60 years ago and was owner of extensive properties in Marin County and San Francisco. She was a native of France. She resided in San Francisco but visited Marin frequently.

Mrs. Cailleaud leaves three daughters, Mrs. Georgette Vilas of Woodacre, Mrs. Honorine Joyce and Mrs. Louise Kilkenny of San Francisco; two sons, Jack Cailleaud and Robert Noque of San Francisco and 13 grandchildren.

Burial will be in Woodlawn Memorial Park, Colma. The family asks that tribute be memorial gifts to the American Cancer Society.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials of normal regularity

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs frequently cramp and gripe. Of all leading laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAID prevents the formation of dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAID'S unique rebulking action helps retone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

QUENTIN INMATE STABBED

A San Quentin inmate who was treated Saturday for superficial cuts on his back told prison officials he did not know who attacked him.

James Ratliff, 25, said he was attacked when he stopped in a lavatory on his way from the prison textile mill to his cell block late Friday. He did not ask for treatment of the wounds until noon Saturday.

Capt. Carl Hocker, prison officer of the day, said the cuts may have been inflicted by a razor. Ratliff's coat and shirt were slashed and there were three or four slight cuts on his back.

Ratliff, convicted of burlary in Tulare County and escape from Chino State Prison, has been in San Quentin since September, 1961. He has not been in previous trouble at the prison, Hocker said.

Tests At Redwood

The Iowa Tests of Educational Development will be given to the junior and senior classes at Redwood High School on Nov. 13, 14, 15, and 16 during periods one, two, and three.

Board To Consider Terra Linda Requests

Requests for an additional $37,814 in equipment and improvements at Terra Linda High School will be considered by the San Rafael Board of Education at its meeting at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at 215 Mission Avenue.

The board will also receive a report on storm damage at the various schools. During the Oct. 11-13 storm, 12 skylight windows were broken at Davidson School. Shingles blew off the Short School roof. A large tree fell at West End School and its being held up by another tree. Two small trees were blown down and one window broken at Sun Valley School. Three doors were damaged at Hartzell.

A large birch tree and one small tree fell at Coleman. A flood light was blown down and a window broken at San Rafael High. Four small trees and the television antenna collapsed at MacPhail. A section of earth bank slid four feet at Gallinas. Three little trees collapsed at Santa Venetia. Two windows were broken at the maintenance shop.

Appointments of Lenora C. Kurle as teacher in charge (vice principal) at San Pedro School and Florence Grover to the same status at Laurel Dell Primary School will be up for approval, together with several non-teaching appointments.

Fairfax Volunteer Fire Department's annual whist party will be held at St. Rita's social hall on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Fairfax, Nov. 9 at 8:30 p.m.

Hub Meeting On Horse 'Nuisance'

A horse which neighbors call a "health nuisance" will be considered by the San Anselmo City Council when it meets at 8 p.m. tomorrow in city hall.

Several neighbors have complained to the council and asked it to rid the neighborhood of the horse, which lives at 33 Salinas Avenue.

The council will also consider an ordinance creating a city park and recreation commission and approval of a final map for the Creekside Subdivision.

Supreme Court Denies Hoffa Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—James R. Hoffa, Teamsters Union president, was denied today a Supreme Court hearing on his complaint that President John F. Kennedy and other government officials had prejudiced a grand jury against him.

Counsel for Hoffa and McCarthy asked dismissal of the indictment on the ground they were deprived of a fair grand jury "through the conscious and deliberate instigation of propaganda hostile" to Hoffa by officials of the federal government.

A statement made by Kennedy during a presidential campaign debate Sept. 26, 1960, was offered in support of the dismissal request. Kennedy's statement, tne complaint said, in substance was "I am not satisfied to see men like Hoffa be free."

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, the complaint added, "has been deliberately fomenting inflammatory publicity. Mr. Kennedy has made public statements that he wants to see Mr. Hoffa rot in jail, that he has enough evidence to convict him."

U.S. Dist. Judge Joseph P. Lieb in Tampa, Fla., refused to dismiss the indictment. He quashed subpoenas that had been issued for government officials, and ordered trial of Hoffa and McCarthy. Lieb found Hoffa had failed to prove the contention that government officials had prejudiced the grand jury.

JUST WHAT IS REPUBLICAN VICTORY WORTH TO YOU?

Just how much does a Republican Victory mean to you next month? Only you can answer this question. Is it worth an hour or more of your time? Is it worth a dollar or more of your hard earned money? Only you can give the answer.

If you are dissatisfied with the way our government is being run in Washington and in Sacramento, then here is your opportunity to register your objection. Here is your opportunity to do something about it.

Thousands of thinking men and women of both major parties are expressing their dissatisfaction and doing something about it by giving unsparingly of their time and their money. How about You?

Two very important ways are open for You to express your objections to higher taxes and to more government control. We who are working for better government and for lower taxes urge You to join us.

If You cannot give of your time then your contribution of even a dollar or more will help to bring the message of good government to the thinking voters of Marin County through the Press, Radio, TV and through our candidates.

Just voting on election day is not enough to assure a change. We need your help in time or in money if we are to win this most important election. Every contribution in time and money will help. Do something about it today. November 7 will be too late.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Here Is How We Look At Propositions 10, 12, 5

Proposition 10 is another attempt to create a whole new category of property tax exemptions.

This one, as do most, deals with good causes, in this case religious, hospital and charitable tax exempt agencies. It would grant tax exemption to property leased by these agencies for 99 years. They already are tax exempt when owned outright by the agency.

We can see now a proposition coming a few years from now asking us to lower that 99 years to 50 years. A few years later it would come down to 25 or 20 years and eventually to any property rented by such an agency.

We think it unjustified to extend the exemption. Property not owned by those agencies should be taxed.

Vote NO on Proposition 10.

PROPOSITION 12 would permit use of state money to help finance a home or farm for the unremarried widow of a veteran.

There is nothing in this measure which says the veteran must have lived in California or enlisted from California. Indeed, so far as we can see, there is nothing to stop a widow from the East, who may have already spent her husband's veteran's bonus, from coming here and benefitting from this law, whether she needs help or not.

This is a poorly drawn measure extending veterans benefits far beyond the original intention of the Cal Vet program to aid returning servicemen.

Vote NO on Proposition 12.

PROPOSITION 5 deals with workmen's compensation, but it has nothing to do with increased or expanded benefits.

The measure would shift to the employers the burden now carried by the general taxpayers of providing additional aid to injured men when a previous injury makes the subsequent one even more damaging.

We believe that this measure would seriously harm the fine hire-the-handicapped program for which the subsequent injury benefit were first designed, because employers would be taking additional risks in hiring them.

Vote NO on Proposition 5.

Marin's Nutty Squirrels

As is the habit of squirrels everywhere, Marin's bushy-tailed acrobats are putting away nuts, acorns and other food for the forthcoming "rainy day" of winter.

One grey squirrel of our acquaintance has caches buried all over our garden. We seriously doubt that a genius with an electric computer could keep track of all this accumulated loot, much less our furry, little friend.

Like a miser with a fortune which he will seldom touch stored in dozens of different banks, Mr. Squirrel seemingly delights in putting it away.

MARIN LOOKS AT POLITICS

Crowds Applaud For Emotional Issues, When Candidates Want

By CHAPIN A. DAY

'CHIP' DAY

ONE OF THE most fascinating sports when accompanying a political candidate on a whistlestop campaign by train is watching the crowd, listening to when they cheer and clap—and trying to figure out why.

It's not difficult to predict what's going to touch off the applause. The appearance of the local politicians—the appearance of the candidate and his wife—local references, like "the King City Mustangs' 17 straight wins." Crowd: "18, 18, 18." Candidate Nixon: "18? That's great, you've won another since someone wrote this for me."

"We need a change" is usually good for a few cheers; Dwight D. Eisenhower does it; jokes about the other party are sure fire; "get the chiselers off of the welfare rolls" appeals to everyone because everyone favors it, even those on welfare who never are chiselers themselves.

But don't expect much mileage from taxes (even if you want to reduce them), from better highways, better schools or a farm program.

THERE ARE JUST two that appear to be surefire. The second best is "an effective program against communism" in a thundering voice and with fist clenched.

But the best, and this was surprising to me, is "the death penalty for top dope peddlers."

We asked Nixon about this as four of us sat around the dining table in his private car at the end of the train.

"They cheer emotional issues," he explained, "but the statements they cheer are not necessarily those which have the greatest impact. The speech that has the most cheers isn't necessarily the best speech. Getting cheers is a trick, the trick of the demagogue, and every politician has a little demagogue in him.

"But the points that really score are those which go here (indicating his head) rather than here" (patting the general area of the heart and lungs).

WHY ARE communism and the death penalty for dope peddlers so effective?

Because the people are worried, concerned and frustrated. They don't know what to do about them. They feel better and are willing to assist someone who has an idea what to do.

The enthusiasm for capital punishment for top dope addicts is a combination of concerns — about the mounting crime rate, about dope, about involvement of children with dope and crime.

This same concern is the reason many people are supporting the Francis anti-communist amendment, Nixon declared. But it's a bad law, he insisted.

IN ANY anti-communist, or anti-anything else, legislation the real heart of the problem is in deciding who is a communist, Nixon said. In the Francis amendment this power is placed in the hands of grand juries, federal officials, possibly even individuals like U.S. marshals. There is a "saving clause" which says "under due process of law," but this is not enough, in Nixon's opinion, to keep the battle against communism from complete confusion if the amendment is passed.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

IT'S YOUR MONEY

The average wage-earner devotes over a quarter of his pay check to the government. Yet few taxpayers are aware of how much they pay to maintain all levels of government through income, real estate, corporate, sales and dozens of other taxes.

It now costs 162 billion dollars a year (nearly 14 billion a month) to run all government in the USA—local, State and Federal. Divided equally, that would mean a bill of over $868 each year for every man, woman and child in the country—or $4,340 for a family of five.

Are government costs too high? Increasing too rapidly? Handled inefficiently? Too little in certain vital areas?

It's your responsibility before God to find out. Every dollar spent comes out of your pocket—or the pockets of others like you.

So it's up to citizens like you to see that your representatives in government get a dollar's worth of value out of every dollar spent.

"Render, therefore, to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

(Matthew 22:21)

May I show a conscientious care in the use of Your blessings, O Lord.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Grieved By Loss Of Clem Miller

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

. . . When one is limp with grief over the loss of a close and beloved friend of the calibre of Clem Miller, it seems an effort of questionable worth to bother to comment on the negative, "hole in the doughnut" type of reporting from Novato. I don't remember the reporter's name nor do I have the energy or the interest to look it up.

During the past week, I have been engaged and shocked by the merciless intrusion on the part of reporters and photographers into the lives of my family and friends during this sorrowful time.

I am puzzled often as to how the word "journalism" is interpreted by the staff of the San Rafael Independent-Journal.

'Know Them By Their Silence'

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I read with sorrow of the desecration in Mississippi of those truths set forth in our constitution which we were to hold as being self-evident.

And I kept waiting for those great defenders of the constitution—the John Birchers, the supporters of the Louis Francis Amendment, the followers of Fred Schwarz—to arise and thunder out in righteous wrath the words of Amendments XIV and XV to the constitution, ring their liberty bells, rally their sunshine patriots, and support with the last drop of their true-blue blood the cause of one, lonely American citizen attempting to claim his rights under those provisions of the constitution.

But, alas, no word has come from the anointed ones. No Birchers, no Francis Amendment supporters, no Schwarz followers have raised their voices in behalf of Mr. Meredith.

It is their favorite and constant claim that they are protecting us from evil, and yet now we have seen them standing silently by while this great travesty of justice was perpetrated, this greatest of insults to the constitution was committed by the chief executive of a state of the United States.

Let us all remember this in the future—that these men who prate the loudest their love and respect for the constitution stood silently by while Governor Ross Barnett and his mobs attempted to nullify that constitution. "By their words, ye shall know them." Many a time, by their silence, ye shall know them.

Comrade Kazotsky dropped in at the polls on election day in Pinsk and was handed a sealed envelope to drop into the ballot box. An official jumped six feet when Kazotsky started to open it. "What's the big idea?" screamed the official. "I want to see who I'm voting for," explained Kazotsky. "You must be out of your mind," decided the official. "Don't you realize that this is a secret ballot?"

An appliance dealer sent out a "To the occupant" throwaway which read, "Lady of the House, you can save enough on your food bills to pay for our brand new food freezer." One unexpected reply went as follows: "Gentlemen: We are paying for our car on the carfare we save; we're paying for the washing machine on the laundry bills we save, and we're paying for the insulated picture windows on the fuel bills we save. Frankly, we just can't afford to save another penny at the present time."

West Coast Should Have Storm Warning Service Like One In East

WELL, I SUPPOSE by now everybody is getting dried off after the experience of having two typhoons hit us one right after the other. It's a funny thing, we heard about those storms as they were in Asia, but our own weather bureau didn't warn us that they would hit us.

I wonder why the West Coast cannot get the same weather coverage as the East Coast.

Maybe I blinked my eye at the wrong time, but I didn't see anything about our big storms on the national television networks news programs. Here was a national disaster of gigantic proportions. Portland, Ore., a major city, was really hard hit by the storms. Every other city and town from the Bay Area to British Columbia suffered.

The West Coast did not have any warning. The fishing and small boats were not warned to get into safe cover. Nothing was done for our protection in the way of a warning. So, not being warned, we suffered more damage than necessary.

Maybe the weather bureau could put a branch of the hurricane warning service into a typhoon warning service for the West.

THE BIG WIND blew leaves off the trees as though it was later in the season when they should be falling. In the bright, clear weather that followed, these leaves have dried out. Of course they are being raked and burned.

That smell of burning leaves gave us a bit of nostalgia. My wife and I grew a little homesick for the scents and sights of autumn. So, as this is being written, our plans are to head into the high country over the weekend for a sight of the autumn leaves in the mountains. Our plans are completely nebulous—we will just go where the inclination takes us and do what looks interesting. There are plans on for camping and cooking out in the forests, but that is all.

There are advantages to living in a small town. People still care, not only about civic affairs, but also about other people.

A good example of this occurred last week after Harley McAskill's men's shop was burglarized. His loss was only partially covered by insurance.

So the merchants of the town put their heads together. Before two days had elapsed, they had raised enough money to replace a big share of the loss for Harley.

Irv Links, who is Harley's competition for men's clothing, took a big armful of slacks and walked down Grant Avenue to McAskills. These were the sizes taken from Harley. Irv gave the slacks to Harley so he could stay in business.

Irv took a lot of kidding as he walked down Grant Avenue. The other merchants were accusing him of returning some of the merchandise he had stolen from his competitor the night before.

So that is life in a small town. Everybody knows everybody else's business, and sometimes this pays off in good deeds.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Nixon, Brown Both Battling For Political Center To Win Votes

LOS ANGELES — It is impossible—at least ridiculously imprudent—to attempt to forecast the outcome of the hot, neck-and-neck Nixon-Brown contest for governor of California. It is so close and so uncertain that, as in the 1960 presidential race, it may be the absentee ballot which will decide it.

But it is possible to see why this election is so unpredictable. It is unpredictable because this fabulous and burgeoning state of California and its 17 million people are unpredictable—and love it.

With far more registered Democrats than Republicans, Gov. Edmund Brown really doesn't know who his supporters are or how they will vote, because in electing its governor California has almost invariably chosen the man over the party.

With this technically Democratic state tending to elect one Republican governor after another (Brown is an exception), Richard Nixon really doesn't know where his supporters are, but he does know that at least 20 per cent of them will have to be Democrats if he is to win.

EACH IS DOGGEDLY trying to preempt the political center—where victory alone rests—and to persuade the voters that the other is something of an unreliable extremist despite the fact that their stated objectives are almost identical.

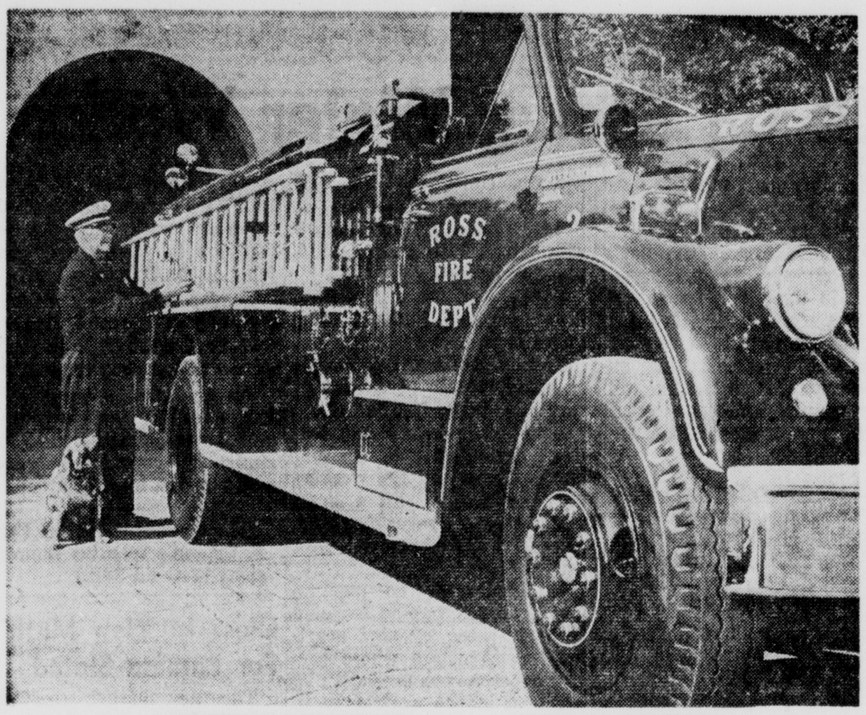
Nixon is plagued by his own right wing extremists—the John Birchers, whose support he has repudiated. Brown is plagued by his own left wing extremists—the California Democratic Council, which often talks about recognizing Red China but whose essential support Mr. Brown dares not repudiate.

All of this makes for a swirling political uncertainty. The principal factors which contribute to this uncertainty are these:

POPULATION — Because Brown won by a million votes in 1958, why shouldn't he win again? At least 2 million new residents have come here in the four years since his first election. The state's population rises by 1,600 every day, about 40,000 Negroes are added every year. This is the most unjelled, shifting, politically unmoored electorate in all the 50 states.

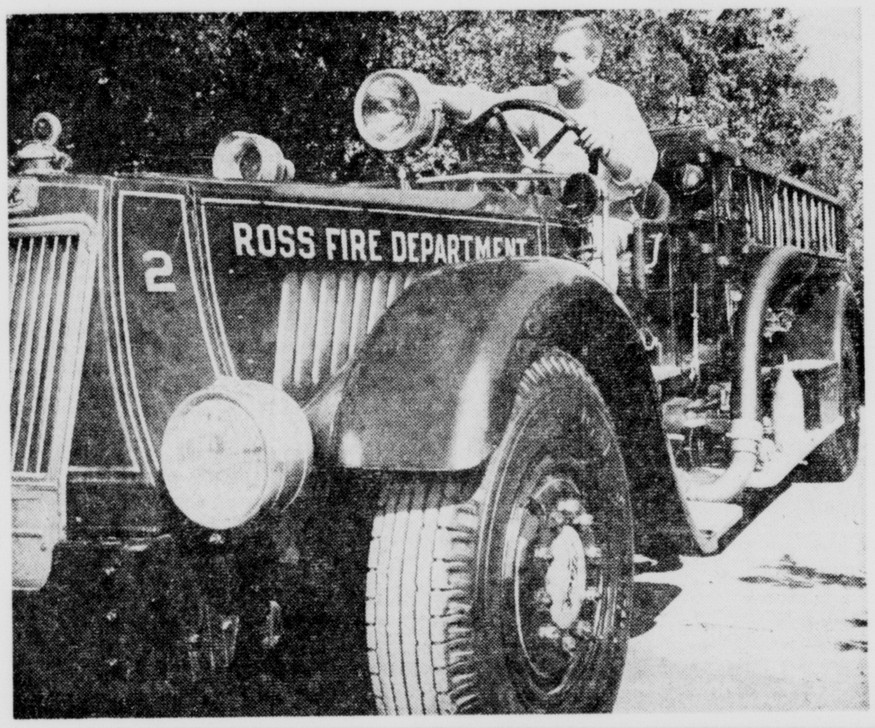
REGISTRATION — Year after year California registers itself three to two Democratic. But it kept Earl Warren and Goodwin Knight in office for 16 years. It chose Democratic Pat Brown over William Knowland, but two years later turned against John F. Kennedy. This state's Congressional delegation is overwhelmingly Democratic. It will be more Democratic next month. But simultaneously the voters will re-elect Republican Sen. Thomas Kuchel. Many California Democrats vote conservative and not a few vote ultra-conservative. Nixon's ultra right opponent in the primary, Joseph Shell who had the active backing of the Birchers, attracted three times as many Democratic write-in votes as did Nixon—60,000 to 20,000.

THE CANDIDATES—Most observers feel that Pat Brown's defeat of Knowland four years ago was primarily a party victory, since Mr. Knowland, standing so preeminently as "Mr. Republican" because of his strong partisanship and his role as majority leader of the U. S. Senate, tended to harden party lines rather than break them. If this means that party consciousness is resurgent in California, it will help Brown, who is more of a party figure than a strong independent personality of the type Californians have usually favored. Yet Nixon has always won a large independent and Democratic vote in his own state; he is a strong political personality, appealing to Californians to "upgrade" the national status of their governor at the very moment when California is about to become the nation's "first state" in population and political power, surpassing New York in the next few weeks.



ROSS'S FINEST . . . AND RAREST

The Town of Ross got a new fire truck last week. It replaced the town's antique but well-kept 1927 model, which will join a collection of classic vehicles, including Bugattis and Rolls-Royces, at the Ross estate of R. D. Ford on Upper Toyon Road. Top, Fire Chief A. T. Henrich and Kelly, the firehouse dog, look at the new $27,000, automatic engine. Below, Thomas Parks, of Parks Auto Electric in San Rafael, sits at the wheel of the old truck, one of 57 specially-built trucks. Henrich says the old truck is a collector's item because it was "never used much." Both trucks are painted Ross's own conservative color: "maroon red on blue." The town has another truck, purchased in 1947. (Independent-Journal photos)



Best Dog In Marin? Santa Venetia Spaniel

An English springer spaniel owned by Mr. and Mrs. Archie Whiting of Santa Venetia was named the best dog from Marin County at the third annual dog show of the Sir Francis Drake Kennel Club yesterday at Rickey's Rancho Rafael, Ignacio.

Other winners included:

Best dog in the show—miniature poodle owned by E. E. Ferguson of Hollywood; best hound — smooth dachshund owned by Mrs. D. R. Akers of Novato; best non-sporting dog —miniature poodle owned by E. E. Ferguson of Hollywood; best toy dog — Pekingese owned by Vera F. Grofton of Chatsworth; best terrier — Kerry Blue terrier owned by Mrs. J. W. Virmston of Pacific Palisades; best sporting dog—part-colored cocker owned by Morris W. Champers of Marysville, Wash.

Best working dog — Great Dane owned by Norval Ayers of San Francisco; best of Borzois — male and female Borzois owned by Mrs. Earl Dodson of San Rafael.

Greenbrae Recreation Will Be Discussed

Kentfield School District Supt. Howard C. Harmon and Dr. Kenneth J. Preble Jr., principal of Greenbrae School, will meet with the Larkspur-Corte Madera Recreation Commission at 8 p.m. Thursday.

The meeting, delayed from last week, will be in the superintendent's office at Larkspur-Corte Madera school. They will discuss inclusion of Greenbrae School in the recreation commission's program.

Two Under Care; Halted At Span

Two would-be suicides, both San Francisco men, were under psychiatric examination at San Francisco Hospital today as result of detention on the Golden Gate Bridge.

Ronald E. Knapp, 27-year-old order clerk, was stopped by the California Highway Patrol at 10:30 a.m. Saturday while walking 200 yards north of the toll plaza. After first saying he was on his way to Sausalito he burst into tears and revealed a suicide note.

Robert L. Bunting Jr., 19-year-old shoe salesman, was questioned by a toll taker at 6:30 a.m. Sunday. He too at first said he was going to Sausalito, then said he meant to jump from the bridge because of troubles involving money and women.

Art Festival In Mill Valley Draws 6,000

More than 6,000 persons attended the sixth annual Mill Valley fall arts festival during the week end at Old Mill Park, it was announced today by Mrs. Leland Shain and Mrs. Robert O'Connor, co-chairmen. Art work in the amount of $3,500 was sold.

Junior chamber of commerce members estimated that festival goers dunked 800 youngsters in the water tank netting $82 in returns which is to be used toward the promotion of next year's dipsea race.

"Everybody seemed to be pleased that the festival was held in Old Mill Park," said Mrs. Shain. The event had been held previously in the municipal parking lot at Lytton Square.

On Museum Board

Virgil S. Hollis, Marin County superintendent of schools, has been named to the board of directors of the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum, it was announced today by David N. Plant, museum president.

Two Women Injured In Ignacio Wrecks

Three women suffered minor injuries in two Saturday accidents within four hours in Ignacio.

Simone L. Kurth, Santa Rosa secretary, drove onto Highway 101 just north of Estrada Drive at 5:40 p.m., crossing the southbound lanes and turning into the northbound lanes just ahead of a car driven by Robert E. Rex, Napa welder.

Sheri Lee Robinson, 18-year-old beauty school student of 6 English Court, Novato, driving north not far from this point at 9:15 p.m., said that a car ahead driven by Howard M. Oser, Greenbrae insurance broker, started to turn left into South Novato Boulevard and forced her vehicle into the guard rail.

Twelve feet of rail were torn out and Miss Robinson, as well as her fellow-student Judy Tomaszack of 457 Hickory Lane, Terra Linda, suffered cuts and bruises for which they declined hospitalization.

Mother, Four Children Missing

Haynes told police that his wife took their clothing and some personal effects when she left. She has not been heard from since, he said.

CALIFORNIA CANDIDATES

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The candidates for superintendent of public instruction attacked each other's qualifications for the job and the candidates for governor each claimed victory over the weekend as tempers warmed for the last two full weeks of campaigning before California's Nov. 6 general election.

Dr. Max Rafferty declared that his opponent for state superintendent, Dr. Ralph Richardson, is an associate professor of speech at UCLA and not a professor of English as his campaign literature says.

Richard replied that he is an associate professor of speech (history of American public address) in the Department of English at UCLA.

Rafferty said Richardson's degree from Northwestern University is in speech, not American history.

Richardson answered that his degree was earned for study and research in the history of American political speaking. "It was a joint program of the departments of history and speech. My degree was awarded by the Department of Speech.

Rafferty said Richardson claims a lifetime teaching credential in Kansas but that the Kansas State Department of Public Instruction says it was a three-year elementary and secondary certificate which expired in 1943.

Richardson said his certificate to teach English and mathematics in Kansas was renewable for life after three years of teaching but he never asked to have it renewed "because I went into the field of teaching at the university level, instead."

Richardson added that Rafferty "has never held a position of responsibility in any school district with even as many as 100 teachers, except for a brief period in a job he resigned." Richardson said he himself has been a member of the Los Angeles City Board of Education five and one-half years and its president in 1961-62.

Richard M. Nixon, the Republican candidate for governor, said in San Bernardino he got about 600,000 votes from registered California Democrats in 1960 when he carried the state by 35,000 but failed to win the presidency.

Gov. Brown, Democrat seeking a second term, declared in Palm Springs that Nixon is losing the battle and unable to muster Republican support. Brown predicted his own victory on the basis of what he termed "our continuing lead" in polls, Democratic unity and the fact that some newspapers which supported Nixon for president in 1960 were backing Brown in 1962.

The San Francisco Examiner, which supported Nixon in races for senator, vice president and President, endorsed Brown for re-election on Saturday. The paper today endorsed San Francisco Mayor George Christopher, a Republican, for lieutenant governor.

The Los Angeles Times on Saturday endorsed Nixon as a man of "strong and unwavering leadership, of dynamic leadership."

VISIT TO RUSSIA

Seeger Tells Of Seeing Water Works

(Editor's note: This is the first of a series of interviews with Marinites who visited the USSR with the Marin Executive Delegation.)

By RANDALL GOULD

When Marin County was torn with fierce dissension over flouridation of water, one of the crushing and eventually winning arguments of the anti-flouride forces was that Russian water is flouridated to dull the willpower of the masses.

Now it turns out that 'tain't true.

Such is the testimony of general manager William R. Seeger of the Marin Municipal Water District as result of his recent participation in a 22-man Marin Executive Delegation to the USSR.

"They treat their water as we do, with alum and chlorine—but there's no flouridation," said Seeger.

Scientific processes for water treatment are of the most modern and "practically identical with what we're using here," Seeger said of his observations of the great water treatment plant in Moscow.

But the plant itself is most old-fashioned, said Seeger, and maintenance is non-existent.

All members of the party were allowed to investigate work in their own specialties. In Seeger's case this led him in Moscow first to a meeting with the chief planning engineer for this city of five million population. Seeger spent a whole morning with him and his aides.

Arrangements had been made for an afternoon meeting with the chief engineer of the municipal water department who took Seeger to the water treatment plant.

Here the scientific processes were found of top grade but an old-appearing brick building, actually constructed in 1951 but comparing structurally in Seeger's mind with the Alpine weir house built around 1914, was surrounded by weeds.

Seeger was also reminded of the old Sutro Baths in San Francisco.

This situation struck Seeger as characteristic of a country where scientific training of top people was clearly at high level, but "labor is another matter." Many of the workers are ex-farmers, with a great many women, Seeger observed, and skills are not of the best grade.

In Leningrad, no meeting was arranged but he traveled through areas of new apartment construction where precast concrete was used with 70 per cent of the work done in the shop and only 30 per cent on the job.

Again he found workmanship not up to American standards, although the processes were comparable to some jobs in this country.

Seeger met the head of Hungary's research laboratory in Budapest and in visiting the laboratory found "practically a duplicate of the army engineers installation at Sausalito." He concluded that the scientists were "doing a real fine job in working on problems of the Danube River."

Seeger said these problems included silting and flooding, and that work is also being done on dam construction.

He was also shown an ably run chemical test laboratory and the whole setup gave him study he considered worthwhile during most of a day.

Class In 'New Math' For Parents Slated

The "new mathematics" and how it is taught will be explained to parents of Henry C. Hall School pupils in Larkspur at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in room 8 of the school.

Principal Mervin Gootherts said Douglas Lindauer and Harold Bush, mathematics teachers, will present the program. He asked that parents planning to attend notify him, in case the turnout demands a larger room.

Indictments To Be Sought In Burglary-Fence Ring

Indictments will be sought tonight against three members of an alleged burglary-fense ring linked to the New Year's Eve burglary of the San Rafael home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Hickinbotham, and a former San Rafael resident charged with armed robbery of a San Francisco catering service.

Chief Deputy Dist. Atty. Fran Mayer of San Francisco said he would ask the San Francisco Grand Jury to return rereiving stolen goods indictments againt Murray Kaplan, 49, former San Francisco furrier, and Clifton Powers, 43, operator of a beauty salon. Charges against Power's wife, Gina, 38, "have been drop ped at this time," Mayer said.

A burglary indictment will be sought against Lloyd A. Picini, 27, third member of the alleged San Francisco ring. Richard Rolley, 26, formerly of 81 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, believed by police to be involved with the ring's operations, will be charged with the Oct. 12 holdup of a Clement Street catering service.

San Rafael police today awaited a complete list from San Francisco police of jewelry and furs identified from the ring's loot as coming from the $92,955 burglary of the Hickingbotham residence at 1408 Mission Avenue.

Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa of San Rafael said the Marin County district attorney's office is studying the case for possible prosecution.

Y-Indian Guides Meet Wednesday

A "get acquainted council" of the Y-Indian Guides, an organization sponsored by the Young Men's Christian Assn. to bring fathers and young sons closer together, will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the San Rafael High School auditorium.

The program is designed for boys between the ages of six and nine. There are now eight tribes in Marin County. Members take Indian names and meetings are conducted in Indian fashion.

Meetings for fathers and their sons are usually held twice a month. Events planned by officers of the organization include a weekend campout in June at the "Y" camp at La Honda, San Mateo County.

Exclusive! Stanford To Give Coach Curtice The Axe

Exclusive to the I-J: Stanford University's sorry showing against the University of Washington last Saturday is the beginning of the end for Coach "Cactus Jack" Curtice of the Redskins.

Since Stanford has made the decision to stay in big-time football, recruiting has produced the material but the feeling is that Curtice has failed to produce a winner and the axe is being sharpened. It is a good bet that the next coach on the Farm will be a disciplinarian who will end the "country club" atmosphere and start the Cards on the road back to prominence.

TO ALL intents and purposes, the "race" for the championship of the Western Conference of the NFL came to a close yesterday afternoon. Couple the 31 to 13 win of the undefeated Green Bay Packers over the San Francisco 49ers with the defeat of the Detroit Lions, and the Packers are home free with the season not yet half over.

For about 20 minutes it seemed that the Packers would get the ball only after 49er scores. And you don't win games without some element of ball control. The Niners were really moving the big defensive linemen with quick openers that sprang J. D. Smith and Bill Kilmer into the secondary.

SIDELINES

By ED RANDOL

The bubble burst when fullback Jim Taylor shifted into high gear and quarterback Bart Starr began calling his shots. In a matter of seconds the 49er lead faded and disappeared, and you knew the game was over as far as Coach Red Hickey and his men had anything to say about it.

Somehow, there is a kind of morbid fascination in watching the precision and efficiency of the great offensive and defensive teams under Coach Vince Lombardi. The play goes where it is called, and the ball carrier goes until he is dragged down or crosses the last line.

After the two 49er field goals, the Packers really took charge, and by the end of the game it was obvious that the thing the 49ers wanted most was the final gun.

And all of this without the services of Mr. Football himself, Paul Hornung. The Green Bay ace didn't even suit up for the game, and the way Tom Moore filled in for him, he can take all the time he wishes to get his knee back in shape for future games.

Don't get the idea that the 49ers quit. Far from it. In fact, against odds such as these, I would say the locals played one of their better games. But you can stick your fingers into the buzz saw just so many times and it's look, Maw, no hands. Bill Kilmer's injury in the first half didn't help, but his presence would not have changed the outcome of the game.

The brightest spot in the contest was Abe Woodson's punt return for the only 49er touchdown. Other than that, it was all Jim Taylor, who is simply the greatest these eyes have seen in modern pro football.

Penske Wins Grand Prix

By DICK BARNES

MONTEREY (AP) — Roger Penske has won $18,000 in eight days with a sports car that was a wrecked heap when he traded for it less than a year ago.

The 25-year-old Gladwyne, Pa., sales engineer won his second straight major event when he captured yesterday's $20,000 Pacific Grand Prix despite winning neither of its 100-mile heats.

But Penske was second in each race over the nine-turn Laguna Seca course and carted home the top money when Dan Gurney dropped from the second heat and Lloyd Ruby had turn trouble in the first.

Penske won $13,000 a week ago at the Riverside Grand Prix with his Zerex-Duralite-Climax car. Yesterday he picked up the $3,000 over-all prize plus $1,000 each for his heat finishes.

He traded a bucketful of Maserati parts for the car's chassis early this year after Bruce McLaren of New Zealand had wrecked the racer. The rebuilt version had not been driven until last week.

CAREFUL DRIVE

"With that trouble, I knew I couldn't stay with Dan or Lloyd," said the dark-haired Penske today. "So I drove carefully and didn't let any part of the course bother me."

A crowd of more than 70,000 saw Gurney pilot his Lotus Mark 19 Climax to a 2-second victory in the first heat. He led by about 10 seconds most of the way until easing off in the final 1.9-mile lap.

Gurney, from Cost Mesa, Calif. took the lead early in the second heat and held it for half the race until Ruby, in a nearly identical car, sneaked past him on a downhill turn. Gurney hung onto second for another 10 minutes, then went to the pits to stay with a faulty ring gear and pinion.

Had he held second in the final heat, he would have bene over-all winner.

Ruby averaged 91 miles per hour in his winning heat, 2 faster than Gurney in the first heat. Ruby's elapsed time was 1 hour, 6 minutes, 15 seconds to 1:07:45 for Gurney.

UNRESTRAINED—Green Bay Packer fullback Jim Taylor (31), avoided the grasp of Clark Miller (74), and ten other San Francisco 49ers as he flew to his second touchdown yesterday. Taylor travelled 25 yards for this score in the third period. The Packers won 31-13. (AP Wirephoto)

Red Knows How To Beat Packers, But...

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Coach Red Hickey of the San Francisco 49ers thinks he's discovered a way to beat the Green Bay Packers.

The only trouble is, he still doesn't know how to keep his strategy going for a full game. He's open to suggestions.

"They're just too explosive," Hickey said after the Packers had rolled to their sixth consecutive National Football League win at the expense of his team yesterday. The score was 31-13.

"You just can't let them get the ball. Keeping it away from them is the only way they'll get beat," he said.

The 49ers started off yesterday as if they were going to run the Packers off the field. Hickey's ball control strategy was such a success that for nearly half a game Bart Starr, Jim Taylor & Co. didn't get a speck of dirt on their bright green uniforms.

Until there were just four minutes to play, the Green Bay offense was in for just six plays. The Packers had the ball on just three other plays, when Willie Wood kicked off to start the game and on two booming punts by Boyd Dowler, one of which went 75 yards.

Things were getting pretty monotonous, with J. D. Smith carrying the ball on almost every play and the 49ers moving deep before settling for two field goals. Smith, the workhorse of the San Francisco backfield, carried 21 times for 101 yards in the first half.

MR. DO-IT-ALL

Then along came Willie Wood, the Green Bay defensive unit's answer to the offense's Mr. Do-It-All, Paul Hornung.

With a little less than four minutes to go, Wood picked off one of John Brodie's passes on the Packer nine and returned it to the 24. A roughing penalty put the ball on the 39 and the end was near for San Francisco.

"That did it," Hickey said. "When Wood intercepted that pass and then the Packers moved right down to score we just let down." Jerry Kramer's field goal made it 10-6 at halftime, and 49er fans got a brief glimpse at the glory that wasn't to be when Abe Woodson returned Dowler's 62-yard punt for the touchdown, 85 yards away.

Jim Taylor ,who picked up 160-yards—130 of them in the second half, and Tom Moore, subbing for the injured Hornung, took over from there. Moore gained 60 of his 84 yards in the final 30 minutes.

Two minutes after Woodson's score, Taylor went over from 17 yards away and three minutes later Taylor went over from the 25 for another touchdown. A fourth period scoring pass from Bart Starr to Ron Kramer was just icing on the cake.

How did Coach Vince Lombardi feel about beating the team that was the last to beat the Packers, 14 games ago?

"We looked pretty good, but I was just as happy to see New York beat Detroit," he said. "We were missing a lot of tackles. We'll have to work on that."

Mauch Edges Dark As Manager Of '62

NEW YORK (AP) — "I don't want to be just another big league manager," Gene Mauch said after he was named to handle the Philadelphia Phils at the outset of the 1960 season. "I want to be the best in the business."

Mauch's ambition was realized today when he was selected National League Manager-of-the-year for 1962 in the annual Associated Press poll. The 36-year-old skipper drew 33 votes in the balloting of members of the Baseball Writers Assn.

The voting was extremely close with Alvin Dark of the pennant-winning San Francisco Giants being named on 31 ballots and Walter Alston of the runnerup Los Angeles Dodgers ranking third with 27 votes.

There were 108 ballots cast. The voting was based on regular season performances of the teams.

The Phils were the hottest club in the last month of the 1962 season, winning 19 of their last 26 games. They wound up in seventh place, only 2½ games behind the sixth-place St. Louis Cardinals. Philadelphia won 81 and lost 80 and played better than .500 ball after the first All-Star break.

The Phils finished eighth and last in Mauch's first two seasons. In 1961, the team lost a record 23 straight games and a total of 107. Even with the 10-team expansion, Philadelphia didn't figure to finish higher than eighth in 1962.

Mauch began in pro ball in 1943 and was an infielder with six major league teams. He was a playing manager with Atlanta of the Southern Assn. in 1953 and also guided Minneapolis of the American Assn. in 1958 and 1959.

Freddie Hutchinson of Cincinnati, N.L. manager-of-the-year in 1961, was fourth in the balloting with 13 votes.

Other managers receiving votes were Casey Stengel of the 10th-place New York Mets (2), and Harry Craft of the eighth-place Houston Colts and Danny Murtaugh of the fourth-place Pittsburgh Pirates (1) each.

Tiger Is Favored

By JACK STEVENSON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —British Empire middleweight champion Dick Tiger of Nigeria continues the favorite to lift the World Boxing Assn. crown from Gene Fullmer tomorrow night.

Odds have fluctuated between 7-5 and 9-5 and should Tiger live up to them, he could put the British Boxing Board in a difficult position.

The British boxing fathers recognize Paul Pender of Massachusetts as the 160-pound champion while the WBA calls Fullmer the world champ.

Should Tiger wrest the WBA version of the title from Fullmer, would he be recognized in Britain as the world champion or would that recognition just come in the Americas and the Orient?"

"I think I can beat him," the challenger from Nigeria maintained today. "I'm at my peak right now."

SPLIT RANKS

The split in the middleweight title ranks goes back three years when the National Boxing Assn., now the WBA, lifted Sugar Ray Robinson's title recognition for failure to defend his crown in the stipulated time. New York, Massachusetts and Europe refused to go along so Pender became their world champ when he beat Robinson.

Fullmer won his title in San Francisco by stopping Carmen Basilio in the 14th round in August 1959 in their elimination bout for the NBA crown.

Tiger's manager Jersey Jones of New York, says he'll ask both New York and the British board to recognize the Nigerian as world champion if he defeats Fullmer.

"Pender hasn't fought in the six months limit and Jose Torres, whom he boxes next month, isn't rated as a challenger," Jones maintains.

The 15-round bout at Candlestick Park is slated to start at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow night with theater television in 53 locations across the nation.

Warriors Open Season Tomorrow

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco Warriors are back in town today to prepare for their Tuesday night National Basketball Assn. opener against the Detroit Pistons.

Pole vault record holder Dave Tork is a West Virginia graduate and the son of a professor on the university's physical education staff.

Koufax Heads Radio Station

The baseball star is president of the Thousand Oaks Broadcasting Co., which plans to begin operating a radio station in this Southern California community early in January.

Koufax also will be the station's program director.

Raiders Try Shotgun In Narrow Loss

OAKLAND (AP) — New Oakland Raiders head coach Red Conkright didn't hestitate to experiment in his debut Saturday night, but the best he could do was watch Oakland lose by its smallest margin of the year.

Raider fans undoubtedly will match with interest next Friday night when Oakland visits Boston to see if Conkright again uses his version of the San Francisco 49ers shotgun offense, which he came up with at Buffalo.

The Raiders outgained the Bills in yardage, 290 to 264, and the Conkright shotgun was in use when Oakland got its only score on the rain-pelted field in the third quarter.

Halfback Bo Roberson climaxed a 99-yard drive by dodging 14 yards for the touchdown. Oakland was penalized 107 yards in the game.

Longden Wins Again

ALBANY (AP) — Johnny Longden won the $21,590 Golden Gate Handicap at Golden Gate Fields for the fourth consecutive time by riding Mandate ($7.80) to a 3½ length triumph Saturday.

WEEKEND FIGHTS

NEW YORK — Doug Jones, 182, New York, stopped Bob Foster, 174, Washington, 8.

BELFAST, North Ireland—Fred Gilroy, Ireland, stopped John Caldwell, England, 9 (bantamweights).

New Basketball Coach At HAFB

Second Lt. Robert G. Morrell, a 1962 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, has been named new head coach of the Hamilton Air Force Base Defenders basketball team.

Morrell will replace 2nd Lt. Gene Hastings who separated from the Air Force this year to work with his father in Oregon. After he was graduated, Morrell was selected as part of the 12 per cent of his class for Air Force duty.

Novato Defense Crushes Marin Catholic, 32 to 13

By JIM GILMARTIN

One day last week Coach Marlin Olsen of Novato High School's football team told reporters, "I'll rate my defensive unit as one of the best in the league."

Saturday afternoon Olsen sent his gridders out against Marin Catholic's Wildcats and proved his point conclusively as his gang-tackling Hornets swamped the Wildcats 32-13.

Don't let those 13 Marin Catholic points fool you. They weren't scored against Novato's defense. A blocked punt and an intercepted pass accounted for Marin's points. Or as Olsen told rival coach Doug Damaschino after Saturday's sun-drenched game before 1,732 fans at Novato: "Our offense scored all 45 points up on that scoreboard."

The Hornets' defense was so magnificent that Marin gained a net total of 49 yards and only one (1) first down, which must be a Marin Athletic record for fewest first downs by a Catholic team on a Saturday, Oct. 20.

FOUR STANDOUTS

In praising his entire defensive unit, Olsen had fondest words for four lads in particular — Jim Dennett, Bill Leach, Bill Moore and Wayne Russell, all linemen.

Marin Catholic scored the first touchdown and the last touchdown but, in between, the Hornets flexed their offensive muscles to score three touchdowns on long passes and two more on the ground, one of which was set up by another long aerial.

Marin made the fatal mistake of using a two-deep defense against Novato's wing-T attack and the Hornet signal callers took full advantage of this sieve.

NOVATO BOMBS

The Novato "bombs" were a 42-yard pass from Tom Miller to Tom Reilly (a Tommy-gun?), and aerials of 46 and 35 yards from quarterback Roy Otis to Dave Ralph and Kris Kristofors, respectively, all of which scored. The other TDs were on a five-yard run by Rick Thomas, after a 42-yard pass from Otis to Kristofors set it up, and a sparkling 39-yard scoot by little George Schurba.

The fact that Novato won by such a comfortable margin is amazing when you consider that Novato lost the ball four times in the first half on two fumbles and two blocked punts.

The first blocked punt in the first period sent Marin Catholic off to a 7-0 lead. A fast-charging line blocked John Miller's attempted boot and Marin's Dan Crowley scooped it up on the Novato 10 and raced into the end zone untouched by human hands. Chuck Hardeman plunged over for the extra point to make it 7-0, Marin.

THOMAS SCORES

Then Novato got moving. Taking the kickoff, the Hornets scored in four plays as John Miller moved seven yards, Otis passed the big 42 to Kristofors, Miller ripped off eight more to the five and Rick Thomas ran the remaining five to scoresville. Al Blos' kick for the extra point failed and Novato still trailed 6-7 at the end of the first period.

After about five minutes into the second period Novato took the lead for keeps after stopping Marin on the Novato 28. A nice 23-yard run by John Miller moved Novato to Marin's 47; Rick Thomas gained five more to the 42 and then Otis passed to Reilly for the 42-yard TD pitch. Reilly was 15 yards behind the Wildcat defense when he caught it and Novato had a 12-7 edge at halftime as Blos again failed with his placement.

Novato broke the game wide open in the third period with Otis pitching strikes. The first one was for 46 yards to Dave Ralph and the second one to Kristofors for 35 yards making it 25-7 in the period as Blos kicked the extra point after the latter TD.

SCHURBA's RUN

Just trying to prove that all TDs aren't made through the air, little Schurba put on a nifty run in the fourth period to cap Novato's scoring. After a 15-yard penalty advanced the Hornets to Marin's 39, Schurba took a handoff to the right side, appeared trapped, broke free, reversed field to his left and dashed into the end zone. Blos' toe added the 32nd candle to Novato's victory cake.

Marin had one last breath of air and Wally Lourdeaux breathed it. Novato sub quarterback Ken Marder threw a pass and Lourdeaux pilfered it on his own 48, running the remaining 52 yards to the game's final TD.

Next on the agenda for the teams: Novato at Terra Linda at 1:30 and Marin vs. Drake at Kentfield at 8 p.m., both Saturday.

T.L. Leads Marin Pop Warner Race

Yesterday in other Marin Pop Warner football action, the San Rafael Junior Bulldogs smashed the San Anselmo Junior Pirates 26-7 and the Novato Junior Hornets handed the Redwood Giants their third straight defeat by outscoring them 21-13.

Scoring touchdowns for the Trojans in their victory were Pat Carney who scored twice on long runs, Peter Weekly on a pass interception, and Jim McInnus on a pass from Steve Congdon.

In the San Rafael victory, TDs were scored by Bill Meredith who scored three on a pair of long runs and a pass interception and Ken Waxman who scored on a drive over center.

Because of the rained out games Oct. 13, the Pop Warner All-Star game has been put back to Nov. 17.

LIONS ARE BEATEN

Passes Fill NFL

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

National Football League quarterbacks filled the air with touchdown bombs Sunday but the most disruptive damage of the day was done by the New York Giants with an old-fashioned weapon called defense.

Little Eddie LeBaron of the Dallas Cowboys threw five touchdown passes, and Billy Wade of the Chicago Bears, Fran Tarkenton of the Minnesota Vikings and Jim Ninowski of the Cleveland Browns each passed for three scores in leading the teams to victory.

The Giants won the hard way, upsetting the Detroit Lions, 17-14, with an "attack" that included blocked kicks, intercepted passes, a recovered fumble and any number of bone-jarring tackles.

As a result, the Giants are still on the heels of the Eastern-Division-leading Washington Redskins, who remained undefeated with a 27-20 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles, while the Western Division Lions dropped two games behind the champion Green Bay Packers, who made it six straight wins by trouncing the San Francisco 49ers, 31-13.

BIG UPSET

LeBaron's five touchdown passes enabled the Cowboys to upset the Pittsburgh Steelers, 42-27; Wade's aerials led the Bears to a 35-15 victory over the Baltimore Colts; Tarkenton's flips helped the Vikings win their first game of the season, 38-14, over the Los Angeles Rams, and Ninowski's TD tosses stopped the Browns' skid as they drubbed the St. Louis Cardinals, 34-7.

Among the many heroes of the Giants defense were: linebacker Sam Huff, who blocked a punt by Detroit's Yale Lary; rookie Reed Bohovich, who recovered the ball; Dick Lynch, who intercepted a Milt Plum pass, and Erich Barnes, who touched off the third-period uprising by becoming infuriated when an official called a pass interference penalty against him.

The Giants trailed 14-7 when the interference call went against them. Three plays later Huff blocked Lary's punt and Bohovich recovered on the Detroit 36. Phil King ran 31 yards with a screen pass from Y. A. Tittle and then plunged over from the one for the tying touchdown.

INTERCEPTED PASS

Lynch interecepted Plum's pass on the next series of downs and ran it back to the Detroit 33. A 23-yard Tittle-to-Alex Webster pass brought the ball within range for a game-winning 9-yard field goal by Don Chandler.

Twice after that the Giants' defense saved them. When Jim Gibbons caught a pass and raced goal-ward, Lynch tackled him hard enough to induce a fumble on the New York 15 and Jimmy Patton recovered.

The Lions threatened for the final time in the fourth period when Plum's pass to Gail Cogdill brought them to the Giants 30 with two minutes left to play. Again the rugged Giants defenders shoved the Lions back 16 yards in three plays and Lynch blocked a 53-yard field goal try by Wayne Walker. A crowd of 62,856 attended.

Norm Snead also got into the touchdown-tossing act with a pair to Bobby Mitchell in the Redskins' win before 60,671 at Philadelphia. Snead's passes gained 279 yards, eight falling into Mitchell's hands. Washington's margin of victory was a pair of 28 and 9 yard field goals by Bob Khayat in the middle periods. Sonny Jurgensen passed for all three Eagles scores, two of them to Hopalong Cassady.

DIDN'T MISS HORNUNG

The Packers played without Paul Hornung, but it seemed they hardly missed him. Green Bay struggled for nearly one half with the 49ers before Jim Taylor and Tom Moore (Hornung's replacement) broke the game open with their rushing. Taylor gained 160 ground yards, scoring on runs of 17 and 25 yards; Moore gained 84. San Francisco gained an early lead on field goals of 31 and 13 yards by Tommy Davis.

Three of LeBaron's passes were caught by Frank Clarke in the Cowboys' upset win over Pittsburgh. LeBaron's fifth scoring throw went 36 yards to Lee Folkins from a fake field goal kicking formation. Bobby Layne threw two Pittsburgh TD passes to Buddy Dial.

The Bears moved into a second-place tie with Detroit in the Eastern Division by scoring 21 point in the final period against the Colts. Joe Marconi ran for two of these scores and Wade passed 33 yards to Johnny Morris for the third. Wade earlier had completed scoring passes of 12 yards to Rick Casares and 69 yards to Mike Ditka. A safety and Johnny Unitas' 80-yard touchdown pass to Jimmy Orr had put Baltimore ahead, 15-14, after three periods.

L.A. FANS BOO

Tarkenton's passes helped Minnesota gain a 31-0 halftime lead and led the Los Angeles fans to boo the home team lustily. The defeat was the sixth without a win for the Rams. Doug Mayberry caught one of Tarkenton's scoring passes and ran 5 yards for another TD. Charle Ferguson and Tommy Mason caught the two other touchdown throws.

Ninowski's passes gained 339 yards for Cleveland against the Cardinals. He gained 227 yards through the air as the Browns took a 20-0 lead at halftime. They scored on six of the 11 times they gained possession of the ball. Lou Groza started the Cleveland scoring with 12 and 27 yard field goals.

The next meeting of trustees of the Tomales Bay Union School District will be held on Oct. 30, according to Mrs. Merle Lawson, clerk of the board. The regular meeting date of the board was the second Wednesday of the month.

Doctor Wins In Del Rio Tourney

Undegraff shot a 70 yesterday to bring his score to 142 in the two-day, 36-hole competition. He also won the tourney three years ago.

John Lotz, of Hayward, took second place with a 74-70—144. Frank Tatum of San Francisco was third with 72-73—145.

Davenport Third In Golf Tourney

PALM SPRINGS (UPI) — Los Angeles Angels outfielder Albie Pearson yesterday won the second annual Baseball Celebrity Golf Tournament with a 72-hole total of 307.

He finished two strokes ahead of Houston Colts catcher Jim Campbell. Third was San Francisco Giants infielder Jim Davenport with a 311, and fourth was the Dodgers' Lee Walls at 314.

College Of Marin Tars Defeat Sierra Gridders 14-6

Mariners Keep 4-Game Victory Streak Alive

The rampaging College of Marin gridders won their opening Golden Valley Conference game Saturday night in Auburn when they whipped Sierra College 14-6.

Saturday's victory gave the Tars a 4-0 record so far this season, with three practice game wins under their belts.

College of Marin was the first to score late in the opening quarter when Scott Moriarty took a pitchout from quarterback Curtis Embry and swung around right end for eight yards and a touchdown.

The Tars added two extra points on a pass from Embry to Moriarty making the scoreboard read 8-0.

Later in the first quarter Sierra came back with a touchdown but failed in the extra point attempt to leave the home team trailing by two points.

That score remained until College of Marin added its second touchdown in the final quarter with only three minutes remaining.

And what a touchdown it was! Defensive back Ray Edwards plucked a Sierra pass out of the air on his own 22-yard line and rambled 78 yards for a touchdown. Key blocks were thrown by Randy Petrini, Ron Cole and Bob Ruznick. The interception was one of three by the Tars, Bill Buffalow and Jim Lucas each getting one also.

Head coach Dick Read called the Tar showing the "best defensive effort ever." The game was a real rock and sock affair with most of the play in the middle of the field. Marin and Sierra took turns trying to penetrate each other's 20-yard stripe, but both defensive teams dug in.

Read couldn't single out any member of the defensive team were ends Petrini and Buffalow, tackles Lyle Baucom and Frank Gellardo, guards Dale Thompson and Don Ippoito, linebackers Don Burrows and Ruznick and deep backs Lucas, Edwards and Cole.

"I was really proud of these kids," Read beamed.

He also had praise for the running of Moriarty and effensive blocking by Denis Nickel and John Storrs.

Moyer Is Jr. Middleweight Champion

He won the crown Saturday night with a unanimous 15-round decision over veteran Joey Giambra of Los Angeles in a fast-paced bout. Moyer weighed 154¾, Giambra 154.

The gate was reported at $9,500—not enough to cover the $6,000 guarantee to Giambra and the $4,000 to Moyer.

Moyer's new title is not without dispute.

Griffith and Moyer have met three times, with Griffith winning two of the decisions.

Tam Blanks Terra Linda

Independent-Journal Sports
Monday, Oct. 22, 1962 11

By RALPH CHATOIAN

The Tamalpais High Indians' smoke signals today are coming out circles representing the number of points scored against them so far in the Marin Athletic League grid season.

The Tam Indian gridders captured their second shutout victory of the young MCAL season Saturday night when they scalped the Terra Linda Trojans 20-0 in College of Marin stadium before 3,000 fans.

Tam, which now boasts a 2-0 league record, held Marin Catholic High School scoreless in the season opener, knocking off the Wildcats 19-0.

The Tam defenders, led by defensive captain Bill McIntyre, never allowed Terra Linda to threaten. The nearest Terra Linda could get to pay dirt was the Injun 33-yard line. The Trojans managed to cross the midfield stripe on only three occasions, twice in the second quarter—to the 33 and the 39—and once in the third stanza when they got as far as the 39 again.

STRONG DEFENSE

Displaying a strong defensive front wall, Tam held Terra Linda to 24 net yards rushing while the fleet Indian backs, led by halfback Warren Domino, Tracy Oldham, Bill Gillingham and Don Johnston racked up 242 yards on the ground.

The first Tam touchdown came late in the first quarter on an 11-play drive which saw the Indians march 44 yards. Culminating the drive was quarterback Cedric Collett who plunged into the end zone from the three-yard line.

Terra Linda earlier in the opening quarter stopped Tamalpais on the Trojan 11-yard line after Collett failed to complete a fourth down pass. When the Indians next took over on offense on the Terra Linda 44 and started their drive, it looked like Terra Linda would stop them again as another fourth down pass fell incomplete. But a 15-yard penalty against the Trojans gave the Indians a first down and paved the way for the touchdown march.

JOHNSTON SCORES

Tam's next touchdown came late in the second quarter as the strong Indian ground gainers moved the ball 55 yards on seven plays, with the aid of a 15-yard penalty against the Trojans. Halfback Johnston, recovered from an early season injury, capped the march by crashing through right guard for 10 yards and a touchdown.

Johnston picked up the extra point on a power play. The 13-0 Tam bulge at halftime remained until the final play of the game when the Indians scored their third TD as the final gun sounded.

It was Gillingham's turn for six points as he scampered around left end for 20 yards and a touchdown. As he banged into the end zone, the final gun sounded. But rules call for a chance at the extra point, which Tam picked up on a crash through right tackle by Oldham.

DAVLIN PRAISED

Tam head coach Pete Belden was proud (he had good reason to be) of his entire defensive team and the power running of his backs on offense.

He lauded praise to veteran assistant coach Mike Davlin who is in charge of the defense for the Indians. "Mike has done a tremendous job with our defense," Belden declared.

Also praised was the offensive play of Johnston who racked up 50 yards in six carries for an 8.3 average. Johnston, because of his early injury, has been used only on defense, but he had a real big night in his first chance at offense for some time.

Domino (75 yards), Gillingham (56) and Oldham (48) were the other big ground gainers for Tam.

Frick Planning U.S.-Japanese Baseball Exchange

TOKYO (AP) — U.S. baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick said today he will meet with Japanese officials to work out regulations under which American players can contract to play in Japan—and Japanese to play in the United States if circumstances permit.

Frick, who is visiting Japan with the Detroit Tigers on their Asian goodwill exhibition tour, said a meeting with his Japanese counterpart was being set up for later this week.

"Before I leave we hope to agree on a definite set of rules under which American players can come to Japan," he said.

Speaking at a luncheon at the Tokyo Foreign Correspondents' Club, Frick made the disclosure in response to a question on contract conflicts that have at times arisen in the past.

Builders Even League Record With 5-1 Win

The Billings-Hutchison Builders evened their record in the Alameda Winter League at 2-2 yesterday with a 5-1 decision over Fitzpatrick Chevrolet in a semi-pro baseball game.

Hurler Jerry Walters allowed two hits and an unearned run in the first inning and then pitched hitless ball the remainder of the game.

The Builders collected four hits, one each by Don Lauters, Ron Blum, Dick Spackman and Larry Smoot. The defensive play of the Builders was good as they made three double plays.

Frightening Asthma Attacks End In Minutes As New Formula Unblocks Lung Passages Fast

New Medical Formula Restores Free Breathing Without Vaccines, Shots Or Narcotics. Calms Anxiety. No Prescription Needed.

New York, N.Y. (Special)—A team of scientists has announced a new formula that stops frightening asthma attacks in minutes and unblocks lung passages fast.

Medical tests prove this formula promptly restores free breathing, so calms anxiety and relieves the worst symptoms of asthma—the straining for breath, the gasping, the wheezing, the terrible fear of suffocation. All without vaccines, painful shots or habit-forming drugs. This formula is so safe when used as directed, it can be sold without prescription in tiny tablets called BRONITIN®.

Doctors know that when asthma strikes, breathing tubes become swollen, lung passages become blocked, so air is "trapped" inside lungs and less and less oxygen can enter. Now BRONITIN, with two asthma relieving medicines that doctors prescribe for their patients, acts quickly to open bronchial tubes and loosen the mucus that blocks lung passages. Trapped air is released and new vital oxygen enters the lungs.

The result is: free breathing is restored, tension eased and so fears are calmed in minutes. Sufferers can now look forward to restful sleep.

Injuns, Cal Take Lumps

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

A good bet is that UCLA will be in the "thick" of the Big Six's Rose Bowl race next Sunday after taking on "fat" Stanford.

To begin with, the UCLA-Stanford game is the only conference battle of the week and the alert Bruins figure to be too tough for the beefy Indians.

An expected victory would give UCLA a 1-0 mark in the Big Six and move the Bruins Sinto a first place tie with Southern California, Washington, and Washington State. Those three teams sport the same mark but play outside games next weekend.

Southern Cal and Washington both opened their Big Six action last Saturday with routine wins over the Bay Area's feeble duo of California and Stanford. While the Trojans were bouncing California, 32-6, the Huskies were blanking Stanford, 14-0.

Hal Bedsole, a former quarterback who now plays end, scored on two passes to spark the Trojans to their win over Cal which now has lost four out of five. All told, Bedsole snagged six tosses from Bill Nelsen and Pete Beathard for 201 yards.

TOUCHDOWN MARCHES

Washington marched 61 and 83 yards for touchdowns in the first half then held off Stanford three times by killing off drives on the Huskies' one, four and 22-yard lines. Nat Whitmeyer went 10 yards on a pitchout for the first Washington score and Pete Ohler passed 28 yards to Jim Stiger who tallied the other.

UCLA lost a weirdie to the Pitt Panthers, 8-6. A six yard run by Paul Martha gave Pittsburgh a 6-0 lead in the third period. The Panthers added two points when Jim Traficant passed to Rick Leeson. The latter had been back to attempt a one-point place kick but a bad pass from center paid off after some frantic improvising.

PAT STOPPED

The Bruins marched back 81 yards for a touchdown with Kermit Alexander going over from the one after grabbing a fumble in his backfield. Then Larry Zeno vainly passed to Alexander for two more points. Alexander caught the ball but couldn't get past the goal line.

Washington State made history by defeating a Big 10 team for the first time. The victim was Indiana, which succumbed 21-15, after going into the last period with a 7-0 lead. The Cougars exploded for three touchdowns with the clincher coming on a 50-yard pass from Dave Mathieson to Hugh Campbell.

Terrific Terry Baker made hash of the University of the Pacific's pass defense by connecting for four scoring aerials to lead Oregon State to a 40-6 romp. Baker rolled up 186 yards all told. Three of his touchdown passes went to Vern Burke. The Beavers were in the van, 26-0, before UOP scored.

Tied 14-14 at the half, Oregon broke loose to ground the Air Force, 35-20. A touchdown pass by Bob Berry accounted for the Ducks' go-ahead tally in the third period and they came up with the clincher a few minutes later on Dave Hill's 49 yard run around end.

Arizona State handed groggy San Jose State its fifth loss in as many games, 44-8, behind the sharp passing of quarterback John Jacobs who hit for three touchdowns. Jacobs, who had learned of his father's death the day before, netted 186 yards gained.

Eddie Erdelatz To Speak Tomorrow

Eddie Erdelatz, one of the nation's most well known football personalities, will be the principal speaker at the "Dads and Sons Night" meeting of the St. Raphael's Dads Club tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

The meeting is scheduled in the school gymnasium. Erdelatz, now a resident of San Rafael, will speak of his coaching experiences, and will illustrate his talk with a movie of game highlights.

Refreshments will be served.

MURAL WITH TEETH IN IT

Boris Borzy explains unusual mural he created for the new offices of Shortridge-Young Dental Laboratory at 496 B Street, San Rafael. All the ingredients in the mural are castoff material from dental laboratory work. Tree trunk is of worn out grinding stones, leaves of dental plates. Dark round flowers shooting up from the ground are worn-out brush wheels. The dental laboratory, operated by Robert Shortridge and Wallace Young, just moved to its new B Street site from the Albert Building, where is operated for the past 12 years. Schweppes Bitter Lemon Arrives Despite London-Like Heavy Fog

Fog spoiled the plans of Commander Edward Whitehead to visit Bay Area cities by helicopter today, but the bearded president and product symbol of Schweppes (U.S.A.) Limited kept his San Rafael appointment anyway.

Commander Whitehead, who has become better known than his company's quinine water to the American television viewing public, arrived a bit late at McCarthy's Loch Lomond Marina, where his helicopter had been scheduled to land at 9:15 a.m.

The purpose of the tour was to introduce "Bitter Lemon," a new soft drink and mixer by Schweppes.

The commander was the perfect traveling host. As Whitehead alighted from a gray Jaguar saloon, the chauffeur produced from the luggage boot a set of three-legged folding chairs, some glasses and a large portable cooler of the new bottled drink.

Commander Whitehead poured, and the small group sat in the fogbound marina parking lot, chatting and sipping Bitter Lemon.

The fog, said the commander, was reminiscent of his native England "but much cleaner."

He said he enjoyed the Bay Area, and Marin County, and recalled a previous visit during which he hiked up Mount Tamalpais and at Stinson Beach.

Among those who greeted Commander Whitehead was Arthur Sears, San Rafael distributor for Schweppes. Missing were some retailers who took one look at the fog and stayed home, assuming the whole thing would be cancelled.

SAY WHEN — Commander Edward Whitehead (right), widely known to the American television audience as the star of the Schweppes tonic commercials, pours a drink of his company's new lemon mixer for Arthur Sears, San Rafael distributor for Schweppes. Fog prevented arrival of a helicopter which was supposed to take the commander on a tour of Bay Area cities today. (Independent-Joural photo)

Slaying Suspect In Good Condition

John G. Trischan, charged with last Tuesday's slaying of Kentfield attorney Albert H. Gommo Jr., was in "good" condition today at San Francisco General Hospital.

Hospital officials said the 50-year-old San Francisco electrician "could possibly be released this week" to appear before the San Francisco Grand Jury which will be asked Monday to return a murder indictment.

Trischan accused Gommo of having an affair with his estranged wife, Louise, before shooting the attorney in his office and then turning the gun on himself according to San Francisco police. Gommo died Thursday of his wounds.

Suspect In Cannery Money Theft Arrested

Edmund James Whalen, 55, suspected of walking off with $2,600 belonging to the Sebastopol cannery where he worked, was arrested in Hawthorne, Nev., Saturday after sheriff's deputies spotted a car Whalen had been reported driving.

Whalen, an ex-convict from San Rafael who worked himself up to a high position in the Sebastopol Apple Growers Union cannery, has waived extradition and will be returned to Sonoma County today or tomorrow, according to Sonoma Sheriff's Inspector Humbert Panizzera.

Panizzera said the deputies had traced Whalen to Bishop, Inyo County, and learned he bought a black 1951 Cadillac there, using the assumed name of Barclay. Mineral County, Nev., sheriff's deputies spotted the car's KAG-626 license plate, stopped it and arrested Whalen.

Apple growers union officials were apparently unaware of Whalen's record. Sgt. Tom Cole of the Sonoma sheriff's office, formerly a guard at San Quentin Prison when Whalen was an inmate on a forgery conviction, said Whalen had a dignified appearance with grey hair and glasses and "looks like an executive."

Whalen had become office manager for the cannery since his parole from the prison in 1960.

Minor Cuts, Bruises As Car Rolls Over

Felix P. Lahaderne of 1111 Irwin Street, San Rafael, sped off the Black Point cutoff road and rolled his car over when he failed to hold to the connector road to Highway 101 at 10:25 o'clock last night.

He refused hospitalization for minor cuts and bruises. The California Highway Patrol cited him on a charge of unsafe speed.

BLUE CROSS®

FOR SENIOR CITIZENS OVER 65

Nationwide, more than 5 million citizens 65 or over already have Blue Cross protection.

Based on this experience and a comprehensive study of senior citizens' requirements, Blue Cross in Northern California is offering a new program of protection for the over-65 age group.

There are no upper age limits. No physical examinations are required.

The benefits are designed to help meet the special needs of senior citizens.

Blue Cross realizes that there will be some senior citizens who cannot afford to purchase this protection. In such cases, Blue Cross makes it possible for relatives or others to arrange the protection for them.

Blue Cross, because of its traditional concern with the costs of care to subscribers, and its direct working relationship with hospitals, has always offered outstanding value. In 1961, for instance, Blue Cross Plans as a whole returned in benefits an average of 93¢ of every dollar paid in. That's far more than the average return for other forms of health protection.

As a result, Blue Cross is the organization most preferred by Americans to help assure the payment of their hospital and medical needs. Today, 59 million in all are enrolled in Blue Cross Plans.

Fall Floral Festival Is Set For Weekend By Garden Society

"Indian Summer" is the theme chosen by Herman Hein Marin landscape architect, designer for the annual Fall Floral Festival sponsored by the Garden Society of Marin.

Capt. L. F. Teuscher, president of the Society, and his committees have completed plans for the event to be held on Saturday and Sunday at the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross.

As in years past, it will be a judged show of floral arrangements and cut blooms along with the sale of blooming chrysanthemum plants.

Flowers and arrangements will be exhibited indoors this year to take advantage of the new wing of the Marin Society of Artists Building.

Hein has planned a landscaped design that will accommodate complimentary arrangements by professionals as well as cut blooms and potted plants. The Bonsai Club of Marin and the Orchid Society will honor the show by exhibiting.

Mrs. Esther McDonald is in charge of judges, with Mrs. Thomas Cusick directing the hostesses.

Serving as general chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Paterson with Mrs. Robert Tuckey, arrangements chairman, assisted by Mrs. Clifford Flack.

A. J. Daggett and Roy Rhoades will be in charge of the food booth and plant sales will be supervised by Mrs. E. P. Larson.

Show schedules for exhibitors will be available at the Art and Garden Center office or from Mrs. Tuckey.

Non-members as well as members are invited to exhibit.

The show will open to the public at noon on Saturday and close at 6 p.m. Hours for Sunday are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Following is the schedule for flower arrangers. Those who will exhibit cut blooms and potted plants may call the Center for a schedule:

NOVICE

1. Beauty of Form. An arrangement using driftwood. Your choice of appropriate plant material.

2. Grass Valley. Combination of wheat or any wild grass and mums. Foliage optional.

3. Duck Dinner. An arrangement suitable for a sportsman's dinner. Exhibitor's choice of plant material.

4. Indian Summer. Exhibitor's choice of plant material. Interpretation of title may express anything suggestive of the seasons.

AMATEUR

1. Farewell to Summer. Combination of dried and fresh material.

2. Gourmet's Delight. An arrangement using fruit, flowers and/or vegetables.

3. Supersonic. A tall arrangement. Exhibitor's choice of color and foliage material. Mums required.

4. October Song. An arrangement in fall colors. Figurine may be used if desired.

5. Garden Clean-up. Use a dried branch from your garden. Complete the arrangement with appropriate flowers and foliage. Mums preferred.

6. Indian Summer. Use Indian corn, gourds, a pumpkin or other material suggestive of late summer. Combine with flowers or foliage or both, any combination of the above is acceptable.

ADVANCED AMATEUR

1. Marvelous Marin. An all green arrangement. Sky is the limit, use pods, green mums, lemons or whatever you have in the garden but it must be green.

2. Salute to the Orient. Arrangement in the Oriental manner. Exhibitors choice of container and plant material.

3. Field and Garden. Combination of fresh and dried material. Mums required.

4. Little Jewels. A diminutive arrangement (not less than 8 inches or more than 12 inches).

5. Civic Center. An arrangement suitable for a public office building. Exhibitor's choice of material.

6. Abstract. Exhibitor's interpretation. Anything goes.

7. Texture. Exhibitor's choice of material. Must have some fresh flowers. Mums preferred.

8. Indian Summer. A blend of flowers, foliage, fruit and/or vegetables.

INVITATIONAL

Exhibitor's interpretation of any of the above categories or any other arrangement (except Little Jewels) suitable to the season or suggestive of Indian Summer.

Psychiatric Social Worker Joins Social Service Staff

Margaret P. Frings of Mill Valley, psychiatric social worker, has been selected as a new staff member of Catholic Social Service in Marin, bringing to her new post an extensive professional background.

After obtaining her degree in psychology from the University of California, she spent two years in the School of Social Work at American University, Washington, D.C., for a master's degree in social work.

When Miss Frings returned to California she became a family caseworker at the Catholic Social Service office in San Francisco, working with foster parents and children, as well as intake and treatment of family problems.

THEN, FOR SIX years, as clinical social worker at the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco, she worked with patients in the cardiac and psychomatic clinics and with in-patients of the Internal Medicine Service of Moffitt Hospital. Here she also studied the social service needs of hospitalized medical patients and conducted weekly therapy groups with consultation from Dr. Eric Berne.

Miss Frings has just finished the third year of her program of advanced study, returning from the School of Social Administration of the University of Chicago, where her field assignment at the Illinois State Psychiatric Institute put special emphasis on the therapeutic implications of the "role theory" in family centered therapy.

A GRADUATE of the University of California, she also studied at San Francisco College for Women, Lone Mountain, where she edited their college newspaper, and the California School of Fine Arts. More recently she has been absorbed in "potting" the past couple of years, after studying ceramics at the College of Marin.

As a member of the Sierra Club, she is a mountain devotee and not only does the burro-packing of the "mountaineer," but also makes her home in a studio perched atop Mount Tamalpais.

SISTER MARTINA, acting director of the Marin office of Catholic Social Service, which is a United Crusade Agency, says, "Miss Frings will not only be part of the staff here, helping to implement the community pyschiatry program, techniques and trends being used in the field of social work."

Sister Martina's staff also includes Sister Marcia, Sister Helena and Mrs. Raymond Hebel, all of whom are psychiatric social workers who have completed their graduate work. David Sherbon, M.D., gives psychiatric consultation weekly to the staff, as well as psychiatric seminars twice monthly. Dr. Sherbon is in private practice, and is psychiatric director for the Marin Medical Department.

FAMILY WELFARE is the major service offered locally. Most of the problems presented are centered in the relationships of married couples with each other, including, however, any parent-child relationships that show discord. Unmarried parents are each given counseling when both are available to be seen, with sympathetic, understanding help in planning for the future of the child.

School Shelters Debate Is Set By Mill Valley P-TAs

A debate on "Shall bomb shelters or air-raid shelters be required in new schools?" will take place between William W. Ward, regional director of the State Disaster Office, and Ben Seaver, chairman of the Friends Committee on Legislation for Northern California at Edna Maguire School in Mill Valley on Thursday at 8 p.m.

The public debate, which will be followed by questions to the speakers from the audience, is sponsored by Parent-Teacher Assn. units from Old Mill School and Tamalpais High School.

The purpose of the meeting is to present information and arguments about this question which is before the state legislature. All P-TA units have been asked to determine the stand to be taken by the California Congress of Parents and Teachers in Sacramento.

Gift Wrap Program To Open Section's New Lunch Series

"Gift Wrapping Magic" by "Toby" will highlight the first of a new series of luncheons to be inaugurated by the San Rafael Improvement Club tomorrow. Luncheon is set for 12:30 p.m.

The day's events will present a number of firsts for the club. The newly organized "American Home Section," under the chairmanship of Mrs. Cletus Fitzharris and Mrs. Louis Walsh, will pioneer a monthly luncheon series which will feature simplicity in food and serving, with emphasis on companionship and getting acquainted.

THIS FIRST luncheon is limited to members only, said reservation chairman Mrs. William Howe of San Rafael. Chairman of the luncheon is Mrs. George Ballantyne, assisted by Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. Robert Logan and Mrs. Fitzharris.

Speaker of the day, Toby, has presented his gift wrapping artistry and his paper sculpture on several television programs. One of his new ribbon designs, which he will show on Tuesday, is a Christmas pine cone. He may also show a sample of his folded paper sculpture.

BECAUSE THE American Home Section is just being formed, there will also be a number of token displays relating to possible fields of interest for potential section members. There will be opportunity for members to visit with some of those who represent special fields of interest. Mrs. Ragnar Thaning, for instance, will discuss furniture re-finishing with them; Mrs. John Pitcher, knitting; Mrs. Louis Yuvan, flower arrangement; Mrs. Richard Hardin, painting, etc.

Two other projects are on the immediate agenda for the American Home Section. One is for a group to attend the Christmas Show in the Oakland Auditorium between 5 and 8. The other is to present the club's first cookbook.

Belgian Consul's Talk Postponed

The talk scheduled tonight by Jacques Roothaert, Belgian consul general, for the International Relations Section of American Assn. of University, Marin Branch, has been postponed one week, the section announced today.

Mr. Roothaert, who will speak on "New Developments in the Common Market," will appear Oct. 29 at 8 p.m. for the meeting at the home of Mrs. William R. Eastman of San Rafael.

Elastic Thread Helps Tots Keep Buttons On Clothes

By EUNICE FARMER

"Use elastic thread to sew buttons on coats and jackets for your school children. The extra 'give' from the elastic compensates for the extra 'strain' on the buttons and will keep them from popping off so fast. This will save mothers time and patience."

"I would like to make over a velvet dress and would like to know if there is any way to take out the stitching marks that show from the original stitching?"—Mrs. L.A.L.

Dear Mrs. L.A.L.:

The marks from machine stitching are almost impossible to remove from velvet. The longer they have been in, the harder the task. My only suggestion would be to hold the velvet close to the steam from a tea kettle and gently brush as it steams. If any of you readers have a better idea, please come to our rescue.

"I sew for my grandchild and a size 2 fits her well except that it is about 4 inches too long. If I buy a size 1, it is too small. How does one buy children's patterns?" — Mrs. D.M.S.

Dear Mrs. D.M.S.:

Buy the pattern according to the chest measurement. The age of the child often has little to do with the size pattern you will need. The length of the garment would be measured in the same way you would measure the length of the pattern for an adult, both from shoulder to waistline, and from the waistline to the finished length of the skirt. Since children's heights vary considerably at any age, it is usually necessary to adjust the length of the pattern.

"One of the mysteries of adjusting a ready-made garment is the diagonal wrinkles that form on the bodice, just in front of the armholes. What can I do about this, it happens on almost all the clothes I buy?"—Mrs. L.R.

Dear Mrs. L.R.:

The diagonal wrinkles you speak of are usually caused by very sloping shoulders. If this is the case with you, rip the sleeve out of your garment. Make a new shoulder seam by taking at least ½-inch additional seam allowance at the armhole and taper to the original seam at the neckline.

To make the sleeve fit into the armhole, you will have to trim the underarm seam about ½-inch lower, tapering to nothing about halfway to the shoulder. I would check the way your garment hangs at this time, if the wrinkles have disappeared, you may reset the sleeves.

Your Sewing Glossary: Revers: Front part of the bodice, coat or jacket, that rolls back to form lapels. This actually is part of the front facing of your garment.

Your sewing "short cuts" may be old to you, but new to someone else. Send them to Sew Simple and make many new friends. I welcome letters from you and will answer them as soon as possible in this column.

Sondra Gail Dennis Will Be Bride Of Khosro Djahanbani

The engagement of Sondra Gail Dennis to Khosro Diahanbani was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Floyd Dennis of San Anselmo at a family party Saturday at the home of Mrs. John Hoerl of Sacramento, sister of the future bridegroom.

Sondra is the sister of Sharon Diane and James Michael Dennis of San Anselmo, and the granddaughter of Dee Johnson and the late Mrs. Johnson and of James Dennis of Poteau, Okla. and the late Mrs. Dennis.

She was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is employed in San Francisco by Remington Rand.

The future bridegroom is the son of Gen. and Mrs. Amanolah Djahanbani of Tehran, Iran. He is the brother of Mrs. Hoerl, Maj. Nader Djahanbani of Tehran, Capt. Parvies Djahanbani of Tehran, Dr. Massoud Djahanbani, who is consul general of Iran in New York City, and Lt. Gen. Hossein Djahanbani, military attache to the Iranian embassy in London.

His grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Amanolah Djahanbani and the late Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Kasminsky.

Khosro was graduated from Lodi High School and is now a student at Sacramento State College, where is is a member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity. He is employed by All-State Insurance Co. in Sacramento.

The couple plans a wedding on Dec. 15 and will reside in Sacramento.

Mill Valley Couple To Head Edna Maguire P-TA Program

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Mill Valley's Edna Maguire School Parent-Teacher Assn. will have an extraordinarily dynamic leadership this year with Dr. Calvin Terwilliger and his wife as president and second vice president, respectively.

Questioned as to how he had been persuaded to accept such an office, Dr. Terwilliger, an orthopedic surgeon, said, "Men are becoming more and more active in P-TA, and my election is a reflection of this trend.

"I am impressed with the local level functions of the P-TA and the opportunities it has to enrich the lives of students and add something the scholastic routine does not provide."

Dr. Terwilliger went on to speak of P-TA contributions in the fields of music and library and the important social dancing classes established at Edna Maguire a year or so ago in which youngsters are taught dancing—"so that they don't have to go through the awkward misery I went through at the Junior Prom."

IN THE 'THINKING ABOUT' stage with the Terwilligers, who are not always on the same side of the question, are some very important projects they would like to see the P-TA work on this year.

They are divided in their opinions on abolishment of the eighth grade graduation with Dr. Terwilliger inclined to favor retaining it and his wife sure it should be eliminated for a number of reasons including the inconvenience of having to use Tamalpais high school faciliites.

She would rather see an operetta given in its place in another project both think should be investigated.

This is an open-air amphitheater to occupy the area against the hills between Alto and Edna Maguire schools to be used, they say, by both of the schools and the community. The proposal will come before the Mill Valley school board of trustees at its Nov. 5 meeting.

Other projects they hope to work on are getting physical education taken off the honor roll qualifications because of its discrimination against non-sports minded and physically limited children, and building of a covering — probably of clear plastic — between the school's two buildings so that children can eat outside during rainy weather.

THEY WOULD also like to do something about one block without sidewalk that interferes with children following a safety rule about walking on the right hand side of the street on the way to school.

According to his wife, children, outdoor activities and reading — especially Civil War and California history — are his greatest interests outside his profession. Whenever possible "he is outdoors or has his nose in a book," she said.

The whole family is intensely interested in nature and conservation. Dr. Terwilliger is a member of the Sierra Club, the Marin Conservation League, the Marin Nature Group, Marin Audubon Society, Rod and Gun Club, and he is among those who teach first aid to Boy Scout Troop 28 in Mill Valley. He is also a member of the Commonwealth Club in San Francisco.

A NATIVE OF Porterville, he received his M.D. degree from Stanford Medical School and had three years' training in orthopedic surgery at New York Orthopedic Hospital. During World War II he was at the Walter Reed General Hospital in Washington, D. C. two years and at England General Hospital in New Jersey two years.

A Few Words About Speeches May Help The 'Unaccustomed'

NEW YORK (UPI)—Unaccustomed as we are, somewhere along the line we all are called on to say a few words.

Keep them few is the advice of a woman who's devoted a career to helping men and women feel at ease before an audience.

"Even the featured speaker shouldn't run more than 40 minutes in my opinion," said Dorothy Carnegie, widow of Dale Carnegie.

"Remember, if you have stage fright, you're not alone. But you can make it work for you. With practice, the terror turns to excitement.

"Preparation is one of the best ways of whipping stage fright," she said. "And draw on your own experience when you plan a talk."

Other suggestions:

—A basic color scheme is preferable. No red shoes with black dress. But red in suit or dress is a good platform color. Black often "blurs" the speaker out.

—On hats. They're not mandatory on the platform. If you wear a hat, keep it small. Keep it free of any bobbing flowers that'll go into motion as you talk.

"And I wish," said Mrs. Carnegie, "that sponsoring groups once and for all would quit sending the inevitable corsage. If they must send flowers, present them after the speech.

LANVIN CASTILLO chose the exclusive Arctic dawn mink of Finland to create a stole of sweeping elegance and opulance with the flair for "making entrances" for which this house of fashion is famous. With each turn of the shaping another new effect happens and a totally new stole fashion appears. That's why it has been dubbed "kaleidescope" as well.

PIERRE BALMAIN chose to create this full length pastel mink coat of great simplicity in the grand manner as his contribution to the ultimate fur collection. The distinctive shoulder treatment, the newly draped back line, the high slit skirt that moves with the body are all timeless and classic.

THE FAMED LAURENT sailor suit which swept Paris in the debut showing of the Yves St. Laurent collection has been transplanted by the designer in all its gaiety and wit into pastel mink as a fashionably outrageous gesture. The dickey front, called a "modesty" can be worn in or out depending on dramatics desired. It's topped with Mr. John's great black mink beret.

Rainbow Sewing Club To Give Its Fall Luncheon And Bazaar

Jeanette Brown Is Bride In San Anselmo Church Rite

Jeanette B. Brown became the bride of Orville R. Koenning on Saturday evening at the First Baptist Church of San Anselmo, the Rev. Jerald Traeger officiating.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Frances Brown of San Rafael, was given in marriage by Victor Thole of San Rafael. She donned a white gown of lace over taffeta, ballerina length. Mrs. Betty White of San Rafael was matron of honor.

Best man for the bridegroom was John Piaszk of Forest Knolls. Ushers were John Low and Gilbert Kibler. After the ceremony a reception was given at the Brown home. The couple took a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.

Jeanette is a Sir Francis Drake High School graduate and is employed by Northwestern Savings and Loan Assn. Walter Brown of San Francisco is her brother.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward John Koenning of Shiner, Tex., and the brother of Arlene, Alice, Eddie, June, Sandra, Marilyn, Kenneth, Carlton, Edward, Harold and Gerald Koenning.

He was graduated from Shiner High School and is employed by Central States Concrete Pipe Co. in Novato.

You Can Encourage Child's Enjoyment Of Good Reading

The school year is well underway, new books are flowing into the bookstores and libraries, and everyone is thinking ahead to Christmas.

It is a good time for parents to take stock of what they are doing to encourage their children's reading and enjoyment of books, say librarians. See how you score on this checklist of things every family can do.

Does everyone in your family old enough to sign his name have a library card?

Do you help your young children make regular use of the library and continue to encourage your older children to do so?

Do you have a regular time for reading aloud?

Do you have up-to-date reference books in your home library to answer spontaneous questions as well as to help with homework?

ON HAWAII CRUISE

Dr. and Mrs. Charles F. Tobin of Fairfax sailed Tuesday from San Francisco harbor for the Hawaiian Islands aboard the Lurline.

Top Parisian Designers Meet The Challenge Of Fur Fashion

A fashion Odyssey which began in the mink ranches of Scandanavia, proceeded to the posh solons of Paris and Rome, and drew to a close on New York's Seventh Avenue, makes the most exciting fur fashion news of the season.

The goal was the ultimate fur collection—a couture collection of the most precious minks in the rarest, newest shades, styled by the world's foremost designers and interpreted by leading manufacturers.

TEN OF THE Continent's most famous names agreed to pool their talents and contribute one canvas each to the collection—a creation that would have the unmistakable "signature" of its author. Balenciaga, Givenchy, St. Laurent, Balmain, Chanel, Dior, Lanvin-Castillo, Cardin, Ricci and Simonetta would be the signatures.

The natural product—the furs themselves—would be prime beauties from Scandanavia's ranches. A committee of fur experts from Norway, Finland, Denmark and Sweden selected the pelts—many of them in shades never before seen on this side of the Atlantic.

FOR HIS COAT, called "Country Morning," Balenciaga chose pearl mink from Sweden. The new wide shoulders, never padded but simply shaped in tomorrow's fuller fashion, herald a trend. The body of the coat—with the familiar Balenciaga oval feeling—tapers at the hemline.

Yves St. Laurent translated the middy blouse of his famed "sailor suit" into pastel mink —right down to its dickey front. The creation which caused such a stir when introduced in Paris takes on lavish elegance in mink . . . but loses none of its dashing flair. The dickey or "modesty" front can be worn in or out.

Bridging the styles, from casual to dressier afternoon wear, is a Chanel jacket in sapphire mink. Featuring the season's slightly wider lapels, it's notable for Chanel's own little finishing touches—for instance, her tiny signature brass buttons.

IF IT'S "LUNCHEON and On" on milady's schedule, she'll delight in Nina Ricci's sophisticated coat which was executed in an exclusive new sage mutation, "Demi-buff" from Denmark. Important new shaping is shown in the easy princess feeling, the elegant trumpet sleeve and the intricately detailed shaping of the dramatic back.

Balmain and Givenchy also gave us coats to be appreciated in daylight. Full-length and all pastel mink Balmain's creation bespeaks simplicity, from its newly draped back line to its high slit skirt that moves with the body.

Givenchy worked in saga natural black mink from Norway. His new 7/8 length coat features the collarless look, but is fitted with magnificently precise detail at the neck. Shoulder treatment shows the new, wide shape to come . . . sleeves are luxuriously long . . . and again, the oval body ends in a tapered hem.

PIERRE CARDIN CALLS his cape "Cocktail Party". It has three typical touches — tight little pleats, a hint of the pouf and free moving comfort. Perfection in Arctic blue mink from Norway, it will be as at home at an intimate cocktail party as on a ballroom floor.

Similarly styled for an "evening on the town" is Simonetta's extravagant "Poncho". Lavish in an mutation mink from Finland—topal mink—it's executed with the famous casual flair of the Italian designer, but might go over the grandest ball gown in any collection.

THE LABEL ON Lanvin-Castill's canvas was "Afternoon at the Races," but a better name for this sweeping stole might be "kaleidescope," because with each turn of the exquisite shaping, another new effect is achieved and a totally new stole fashion appears. In Arctic dawn mink from Finland, it's perfect for "making entrances."

The final fashion of the collection is flawless white mink, styled by the House of Christian Dior in the smart shape of the dashing Hungarian guardsman jacket. With a look of almost royal elegance, it's made to be dramatically "tossed" over the shoulders.

Opening lead — ◇ J

South's jump to three spades was forcing to game, of course. North went to four hearts to show spade support and mild interest in a slam.

North could not have a tremendous heart suit for he had opened with one notrump.

PAST GAME

South went past game by showing the clubs, and North had a chance to show the ace of diamonds. This was enough for South. He jumped to six spades.

West opened the jack of diamonds and declarer took the ace and the top hearts to get rid of a diamond. Then he led a low club from dummy.

East began a fine defense by discarding a heart instead of ruffing the club. South won with the king of clubs, led a trump to dummy's king and returned another low club.

ANOTHER HEART

East threw another heart, and South won with the ace of clubs. If East had ruffed either club, South would draw just one round of trumps and use dummy's other two trumps for ruffing club losers. This would enable him to make the slam.

After East refused to ruff a club with one of his worthless trumps South was doomed. When declarer gave up the third round of clubs to West, back came a trump.

PLEASE SMILE

West was just about to congratulate East on his magnificent restraint when East made a complaint. "All this fancy bidding is very confusing," he growled. "I thought the contract was six notrump. I wish I had known in time to ruff one of those clubs!"

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Minor Episodes Of Epilepsy May Be Overlooked For Months, Years

VAN DELLEN

Minor episodes of epilepsy (petit mal) may be so brief they are overlooked for months or years. This is ironical in modern times because drugs are available to control the condition. Most victims of petit mal are children, usually under age 10.

The attack comes on without warning and consists of a sudden blackout. The child becomes motionless, stares into space and does not respond to commands. Just as suddenly, consciousness returns and the youngster resumes whatever he is doing.

SHOULD THE BOUT come on while eating, the boy or girl may get a blank expression and chew more slowly but doesn't drop the knife or fork. Two to 20 seconds later, he resumes eating but has no idea what was said or what he did during the brief period of unconsciousness.

Some children have one blackout a week whereas others have them every 30 minutes. Those with frequent lapses do poorly in school because the continuity of instruction is interrupted so often. The child does not fall as a rule and may continue to walk or even ride a bicycle during an attack.

THE ENTIRE AFFAIR has been described as a blank place or an absence in the stream of consciousness. Various drugs (Tridione, Paradione, and Milontin) are effective in controling petit mal, though they are less effective in other types of epilepsy.

Do these children outgrow minor epilepsy? According to Dr. Louis D. Boshes of Chicago, some continue to have sieges of petit mal even in adult life but it is not unusual for them to become less and less frequent as the child gets older. In many, they disappear before age 20.

NOW AND THEN petit mal is replaced by the major type of epilepsy (grand mal) or by psychomotor seizures. Some develop convulsions; others, temporary hallucinations or illusions involving peculiar smells and tastes. Objects appear to be far away or unreal, as in the story, "Alice in Wonderland."

The occurrence of these episodes in childhood, with cessation in adult life, has been described as a separate syndrome (pyknolepsy). There is no way to determine ahead of time, however, those who will stop having attacks and those who will develop grand mal or psychomotor seizures later in life.

(Dr. Van Dellen will send leaflet on the various types of epilepsy if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

IT'S A LEMON

J. B. writes: A 23-year-old girl read about the curative powers of lemons and eats 35 a day. Will this harm her in any way?

REPLY

This is 34 too many. Lemons have no curative powers. They contain vitamin C but so do oranges, apples and other fruits and vegetables. In addition, sucking lemons may be hard on the teeth.

VITAMINS IN BEER

R.Y. writes: Does beer contain vitamins?

REPLY

Yes—the B vitamins.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN

ORDINANCE NO 1235

AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, APPROVING PRECISE DEVELOPMENT PLANS FOR THE RED HILL (MARINERO) R-P DEVELOPMENT AND SETTING FORTH CONDITIONS WHICH MUST BE OBSERVED.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1: The precise Development Plans for Lot 7, Sector 5 of the Red Hill (Marinero) R-P Master Plan are hereby approved, which approval shall be in accordance with the following:

A. The development, maintenance and use of the property shall be carried on in conformance with certain maps and plans entitled as follows:

Sheets 1-12, titled "Apartment Buildings—Orville Carlson" all by Thompson & Hayes, Building Designers.

B. The development, maintenance and use of the property shall be further subject to the following condition:

1. Approval of these Development Plans does not imply approval of the adequacy of any facilities subject to engineering review. Prior to commencing of any grading, filling, or construction of any improvements, improvement plans including planting plans shall be submitted to the Director of Public Works, who may require complete compliance with Sections III and IV of Ordinance No. 640, the Marin County Subdivision Ordinance.

C. The maps and plans designated in Sub-section A hereof shall be filed in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Marin, along with a copy of this Ordinance, by the Planning Department, after authorization in writing for such filing, and the filing fee has been secured from the owner or owners of said land, and said authorization shall be construed to constitute his or their acceptance of the conditions set forth herein.

D. No building shall be constructed maintained or used other than for the purposes specified on the maps and plans as described in Sub-section A hereof.

SECTION 2: Adoption of this Ordinance is not and shall not be construed as acceptance by the County of Marin of any streets or roads proposed or offered for dedication and shown on said approved Development Plans.

SECTION 3: This Ordinance is to take effect and be in full force and effect after the expiration of thirty (30) days from and after its passage and the same shall be published before the expiration of fifteen (15) days with the names of the members voting for and against the same at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published in said County of Marin.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, on the 16th day of October, 1962, by the following vote, to-wit:

AYES: Supervisors William D. Fusselman, Peter H. Behr, George H. Ludy, William A. Gnoss, Walter Castro

MARIN COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, until November 13, 1962, for:

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Request for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, 1711 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, California.

Plans, Specifications (but not including Standard Specifications or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) (cash or check made payable to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin) to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten (10) percent of the bid. Guaranties shall be in the form of a certified or Cashier's check or a Bidder's bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guarantees not so retained by the County shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Proposal shall be filed with Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Court House, San Rafael, California.

Said Proposals will be opened and read by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors at 1:30 P.M. on the day specified above for receiving bids, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard. The Clerk will read only the total amount bid and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub totals and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Director of Public Works to which they will be removed for this purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

Cozy Seacoast Home $26,500
Enjoy the warmth of an evening fire, (or the daytime sunshine) in this 3-bedroom, 2-bath home; studio-guest cottage also on the property. Near shops; ocean view. Overlooks tennis courts. Bolinas.

Knotty Pine and Mahogany $26,600
An expert craftsman paneled the living, dining rooms, and master bedroom in mahogany, and the corner bedroom is finished in knotty pine, all low-care and attractive. Four bedrooms, 2 baths, large family kitchen. Secluded patio just outside kitchen and dining room. Landscaped; quiet street. view. San Anselmo.

Children's Delight $27,250
A playhouse and a sunken wading pool are included in this entirely-fenced garden, where a spreading tree shades the brick patio. 3 bedrooms, family room, 2 baths, and a separate enclosed garden is outside the glass walls of two of the bedrooms. Convenient Terra Linda location.

Four Bedrooms, Family Room $34,500
Plenty of space for the family with children; four bedrooms, 3 baths, rumpus room. Electric kitchen, covered terrace just outside; tree-shaded patio, lawn, wooded setting. Close-in location near schools, shops, transportation, library. San Anselmo.

PRICED RIGHT BEAUTY
Beautiful, almost new; owners transferred, priced the home for quick sale to fortunate buyer. Wonderful large electric kitchen, tile counters, all built-ins, homemaker's desk. Large, sunny breakfast room; sewing closet, pantry. Full dining room, attractive entrance hall, living room out of traffic pattern; used brick hearth, mahogany paneling. 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, upstairs. Family room with fireplace below, needs just minor finishing. Workshop and possible bedroom and bath also downstairs. Large closets; protected entrance, bay-spanning view. Greenbrae. $39,900.

Two Fireplaces $35,750
Fireplaces in both the living room (which has high beamed ceiling) and family room. 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, deck. Carpets, drapes, view of the mountain, well-landscaped garden; automatic sprinkler system. Greenbrae.

Traditional Home—Spacious $45,000

Redwood Rustic—Oak-shaded $53,500

Ultra Modern $75,000
Extensive use of glass; Roman brick, well-chosen woods—all combine to produce an unusual and livable contemporary home. Wide view terrace, reached by sliding glass doors from every room, looks out on the bay, down to two bridges, the East Bay profile across the water. Swimming pool, dressing rooms, large well-landscaped lot, complete privacy. Bayside Acres.

Substantial Allowance Considered $79,500
Owners will make a generous allowance for completion of fourth bedroom adjacent to third bath in this handsome home. Situated on a magnificently landscaped acre in Country Club Heights, the house offers the ultimate in convenience, and indoor-outdoor living. Separate dining room, family room, electric kitchen. Good design, top quality.

Country Estate $82,500
Heavy-timbered construction, gracious five-bedroom home; 3½ baths. Separate servants' quarters. Heavy beamed ceiling in living room, marvelous all-electric kitchen with every possible built-in; two bars for convenient entertaining: one upstairs, one down, in the family room. Wooded acre, privacy.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

Rice Named General Manager Of Producers Of Haydite

The McNear Co., San Rafael, producers of Haydite aggregates and blocks, has announced the appointment of Clayton K. Rice as its general manager.

Rice has been with the firm for 17 years. He started as a bookkeeper, later became office manager and was named assistant manager in 1952.

A resident of San Rafael since 1937, he is married to the former Evelyn Menary. They have two children, Susan and Kim. He is active in a variety of civic and fraternal organizations and trade associations, and was recently made a director of the Extended Shale, Clay and Slate Institute of Washington, D. C.

"PORT LOUISE," a new store at 10 Louise Street off Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, deals in gifts, mosaics and creative arts.

MARIN REAL ESTATE BROKERS may get a leverage to boost home sales through the entry of a large private loan insurer into the California market — Mortgage Guaranty Insurance Corp. of Milwaukee. And since a Marin man has been named Northern California representative, there is bound to be considerable local interest in it.

G. F. Ard, a resident of Fairfax who has had a realty firm in San Francisco and is the new regional appointee, is out to promote MGIC insured 90-per cent home loans from Bakersfield to the Oregon line. Its quick check of loan applications makes approval or rejection possible within three days time—sometimes within 24 hours.

"These loans, available up to $26,500," says Ard, can be placed through savings and loan associations of your own choice, provided these institutions will go along with it."

THRIFTY DRUG STORES "200th Store Contest" closes at midnight tomorrow. Costs nothing to enter and blanks may be obtained at Thrifty stores in the Montecito Shopping Center, San Rafael and Corte Madera Shopping Center. Winners of 336 prizes will be selected in a Nov. 1 drawing.

SANITATION PROBLEMS can originate with improper layout and design, according to Keith White of Mill Valley, commercial designer for Western Contract Furnishers.

White, in addressing a group of sanitation experts in San Francisco last week, said any institution serving food has done only part of its job if good designing stops with the public areas. It's how things look behind the scenes that counts.

DON SPARROW of the Salon Royal in Novato was winner of the Marin "Hairdresser of the Year Award" at the recent contest of the Marin Cosmetologists Assn. at Bermuda Palms.

OUR BEST WISHES for an early recovery to Mrs. Esther Dearth of Northwestern Savings and Loan Assn. who is going through a "fuming" convalescence at home after a tricky bone operation on her foot at San Rafael General Hospital.

'Taming Of Shrew' At School Delayed

Joseph Wadlington, Redwood High School's dramatics instructor, has delayed the performance of "Taming of the Shrew" until the evenings of Nov. 1, 2, 8 and 9.

The play, originally scheduled for Oct. 25 and 26, and Nov. 2 and 3, is the first production to be staged in the new little theater. The play will be done in early California style. It will feature music and dancing.

Partnerless Parents To Discuss Dating

The problems of dating for a single parent will be discussed by Celia Walker of Family Service at 8 p.m. Thursday in the multi-purpose room at the Adaline Kent School.

The meeting is sponsored by the Marin chapter of Parents Without Partners, a group for divorced and widowed parents with children. A Halloween party for adults will be held Oct. 27 in the home of a member to be determined.

Richardson, Rafferty Questions Due

Max Rafferty and Ralph Richardson, candidates for state superintendent of public instruction, will be represented by two men in a question and answer session beginning at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Mill Valley Community Church.

The forum, sponsored by the Mill Valley branch of the American Assn. of University Women and open to the public, will include Richard Foster, superintendent of Jefferson Elementary School district in Daly City and former Marin County superintendent, speaking for Richardson.

Everett T. Calvert, an unsuccessful primary election candidate for state superintendent, will speak for Rafferty. Calvert is a former administrator in Pasadena and Kern County schools.

Moderator will be Mrs. Harry T. Magill.

Antiques-Imports Store Moving

Grant Smith Antiques-Imports of Bolinas will move its location from the Country Store to the old Adams house on Main Street in Bolinas, to be open for business Nov. 15.

Smith, the owner, said today that he has started a close-out sale at the Country Store to run two weeks. He opened the store, which includes varieties, drugs and school supplies, five years ago, having formerly owned the Sea Chest in Tiburon.

Smith, who resides in Bolinas, said that the 94 year old Adams house has been completely restored. His antiques are now at the new location; the sale is of other items.

Kirchner, Nieri Are Named Vice Presidents Of Bank

BURTON R. KIRCHNER

ADOLPH L. NIERI
Both vice presidents

Burton R. Kirchner of San Rafael and Adolph L. Nieri of Novato have been named vice presidents of the new Bank of Marin by the bank's board of directors, announced William P. Murray Jr., president.

Both men began their banking careers in 1940 with the First National Bank in San Rafael and stayed in the main office after the recent merger with the Crocker-Anglo National Bank.

A charter for the Bank of Marin, which has taken temporary quarters a 836 Fourth Street, San Rafael, was granted by the state banking commission in July.

Kirchner, a past president of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, is chairman of the United Crusade campaign in Marin County. He and his wife, Verna, live at 3 Vista Wood Way, San Rafael. Their two sons attend University of Nevada.

Nieri, active in the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, is chairman of the Marin County Heart Fund Drive. He and his wife, Evogene, and two daughters live at 42 Shields Lane, Novato.

More Than Million Autos Enter State

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — More than one million automobiles entered California in August alone, the State Agriculture Department reports.

Of the 1,034,384 cars coming into the state in that period, some 638,277 bore California license plates, while the rest came from other states or foreign countries.

Inmates Fight Fires

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Inmates in California's penal institutions, mostly conservation camps, averaged 3,553 man-hours per day battling forest fires during August.

Proposal For County Library Hours Is Going To Supervisors

A proposal for morning and weekend opening of the Marin County Library when it is housed in the Civic Center will be presented to the county board of supervisors at their meeting starting at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

County Librarian Virginia Keating and Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows are understood to have decided on extension to evening hours twice weekly, details being given in a report which will go to the board over Barrows's signature.

Administrator Alan Bruce is reversing policy of his predecessor in letting his assistant sign reports. Another initial Barrows report going to the board tomorrow will be about preparation of plans for the new Hicks Valley substation for the county fire department.

Bruce will report on results of his conference on medical department policy and on revised "house rules" for the Civic Center administration building.

Architect Aaron Green during the afternoon is expected to give the board a revised schedule on probable next moves on acceptance of the administration building from the contractor, as indication of how soon the county departments may move in.

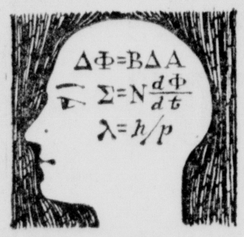
Moyer of 9 Granada Drive, Corte Madera, and Beverly Bryson, daughter of C. H. Bryson of 170 Helens Lane, Mill Valley.

WILL AMERICA HAVE ENOUGH



BRAIN POWER?

Brain power is more important to us than ever, because it is the basis of our strength in . . . business and trade, science and invention, culture and living standards.

But the demand for brain power is growing—can we develop enough to hold our world lead?

Not unless we back higher education, which gives us our leaders. But colleges are in a squeeze. Many face serious shortages—they need laboratories, facilities and, above all, qualified teachers.

HELP THE COLLEGE OF YOUR CHOICE NOW!

Chinese Press Forward With Tanks Into India

ON MOUNTAIN PATROL—This is the type of terrain in which Indian soldiers and Chinese Communists are battling along the disputed Himalayan frontier. It shows Indian troops on patrol duty on a snowy and mountainous section of Kashmir. (AP Wirephoto)

Nehru Fears Reds Peril Independence

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru declared today that the Independence of India is threatened by Chinese Communist attack.

If necessary, everything else must be sacrificed to meet the threat to the freedom of the Indian people, Nehru said in a broadcast.

He said India is facing a "powerful and unscrupulous opponent."

He spoke at the end of the third day of a Chinese offensive into northeastern and northwestern India.

Reporting on the fighting along the disputed Himalayan frontier, an Indian spokesman indicated the Chinese were still advancing. They captured four more posts at the southern end of the Ladakh battlefront in northwest India, one post falling to tanks after they had turned back two previous Chinese assaults, he said.

Peiping radio, which says the Chinese are fighting in self-defenshe against Indian aggression reported an outbreak of fighting in a new area on the north side of the border claimed by India. It said Indian troops at Hsialinkung launched "a violent attack" and that Communist troops "were compelled to hit back."

Hsialinkung is in the Chayul area of Tibet, and is about 50 miles northeast of Thagla Ridge, which India claims as her northeastern border near the little Himalayan state of Bhutan.

SURPRISE ATTACK

Indian defense officials said the Red Chinese launched a surprise attack at dawn Saturday from positions inside Indian territory. The Chinese accused the Indians of launching hostilities.

Indian defense officials admitted loss of at least seven border posts in the northeastern sector and in the Ladakh theater 900 miles to the northwest—both remote snow-covered mountainous areas.

Both Prime Minister Jigme Dorji of Bhutan and the crown prince of Sikkim, Maharaja Kumar Palden Thondup Namgyal, arrived in New Delhi for emergency talks.

BHUTAN REQUEST

India is reported to have asked Bhutan for permission to send in a military defense force. Red China has claimed a part of southeastern Bhutan.

Bhutan is an independent country, but India by treaty handles its foreign relations and has a mission in the country to train its small military force. Sikkim is an Indian protectorate.

Years ago, Red China's Mao Tze-tung said both Bhutan and Sikkim should be a part of China by right of treaties with old Chinese empires.

On new Chinese objective appeared to be Chushul airfield, only air supply base for Indian troops facing the Chinese in the Ladakh theater of operations, 900 miles west of the Northeast Frontier area, which is near the airfield.

JFK Reporting On 'Emergency'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy was to address the nation on "a subject of the highest national urgency" over television this afternoon.

(Radio station KNBC in San Francisco will broadcast a transcription of Kennedy's speech at 7:30 p.m. today.)

The White House announced that Kennedy also had scheduled meetings of the National Security Council, the Cabinet and congressional leaders of both parties this afternoon.

Democrats and Republican leaders in Congress were asked to report to the White House.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson already was in Washington. Fifteen senators and representatives, including chairmen and top minority members of the Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committees of Congress, were asked to attend the conference.

Salinger said Air Force planes were sent to bring the senators and representatives to Washington where no other rapid transportation was available.

Kennedy conferred in private this morning with key administration officials, including Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

The high level sessions were held while evidence mounted that some major international development was imminent.

There was fresh speculation that the heart of the mystery-laden meetings in the capital over the weekend lay in Europe — quite possibly at the storm center of Berlin.

Among those at the White House this morning were Llewellyn Thompson, former ambassador to Russia and now a State Department adviser on the Soviet Union.

Pole Houses Cost Investigation Asked

Marin County grand jury investigation of actual costs of Marin City's 59 "houses on poles" was asked yesterday by a group of Marin City residents.

Citizens, at a meeting called by the Marin City citizens committee and Marin City Ministerial Alliance voted 29-16 to ask for investigation.

Discussion was held on the subject before about 50 people, according to Frank Phillips, citizens committee chairman.

Benjamin Myles, citizens committee secretary, reported an architect—whom he did not identify—has valued the homes at $9,038, including the agent's commission. They are to be sold for prices between $15,950 and $18,500. They are the first permanent single family homes to be made available to the residents who are being relocated from World War II temporary housing.

Rev. Samuel Banks, pastor of the Village Baptist Church and chairman of the ministerial alliance, asked how many wanted to buy a home in Marin City but refused to buy a "pole house." Thirty persons raised their hands.

Two persons out of 30 who have placed $300 deposits on the homes have asked for their money back, Phillips told the audience. They are L. V. Bradley and Henry Gaddison. Gaddison, Phillips added, asked for return of his money last month but as yet has not received it.

"No one has asked formally by letter for return of their deposits," said John H. Tolan Jr. of Barrett Homes Inc., today.

He said Phillips had asked that his deposit apply to the next unit to be built, not to the pole houses. "I said," Tolan commented, "in so far as possible, I will do it." He indicated this was the general policy.

Tolan, said Gaddison, asked about his deposit but agreed to wait and reserve judgment when the pole houses are completed.

Tolan said Barrett Homes Inc. expects to get federal housing authority approval Wednesday for immediate start of construction of 48 cooperative apartments, the second phase of redevelopment. The two and three-bedroom apartments, to be built on Drake Avenue behind the present administrative building, will be similar to cooperative apartments built in Terra Linda, he said.

One resident recommended grand jury investigation of the question of what is to be done for 19 single persons living in the low-rent housing who, he said, are to be evicted next February when 10 buildings are demolished to make way for a new road.

The firm of Dreyfus, Conradi and Dreyfus, San Francisco attorneys, has been hired by the citizens committee, Phillips said.

Fog Drops A Blanket Over Marin, Slows Down Bay Area Road Traffic

Fog muffled Marin County this morning for the third straight day, but lifted in many areas before noon.

The gray blanket was worse, however, on the San Francisco side of the bay, where it halted air travel and slowed highway traffic.

The Weather Bureau attributed the fog, which covered most of Northern California, to recent heavy rains and a static mass of air soaking up moisture from the soggy earth.

The California Highway Patrol reported no increase in traffic accidents due to the fog, and traffic this morning was "moving normally."

Civilian light planes were grounded but officials at Hamilton Air Force Base said the fog did not interfere with most air operations. It was a "little handicap" for training flights, but all-weather interceptors ignored the one-mile visibility limitation and flew on instruments.

A Hamilton spokesman said the fog was at its worst Saturday, but even then it broke by noon.

Commodore Flying Service at Richardson Bay reported its planes had been grounded since yesterday morning because much of its activity is training, requiring good visibility.

Commercial airline flights to San Francisco had to be diverted to Los Angeles. Some flights were delayed elsewhere in the country as much as four hours.

Morning fog is expected again tomorrow, lingering until the air warms enough to absorb the excess moisture.

Novato Urban Money Approved

The Urban Renewal Administration today approved $46,980 for a federally assisted planning grant for the city of Novato, Sen. Clair M. Engle reported from Washington.

Billy D. Dobbs, Marin County planning director who prepared the plans for the study, said cost of the master plan was set at $70,463. The federal government has approved its two-thirds share of this.

The City of Novato, the Novato Sanitary District and the County of Marin will share the other one-third.

High Court Refuses To Rule In New York Wire Tap Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to rule on an appeal contending state-authorized wiretapping in pursuit of law violators is a violation of the U. S. Constitution.

The ruling was asked by counsel for three Yonkers, N. Y., men convicted of bookmaking at a trial in which recorded telephone conversations obtained by wiretapping comprised the state's basic evidence.

New York law permits wiretapping under court order. A section of the federal communications act says "no person not being authorized by the sender shall intercept any communication" or divulge its contents.

In 1952 the Supreme Court in a Texas case said wiretap evidence might be received in state courts; although the admission in evidence violated federal law the court "refused to overturn a state rule of evidence." On March 29, 1861, the Supreme Court in an Ohio case said evidence obtained by searches and seizure in violation of the U. S. Constitution was not admissible in a criminal trial in a state court.

Counsel for the three Yonkers men, in appealing to the high tribunal, contended the decision in the Ohio case now requires a holding that court-ordered wiretaps may not be constitutionally be received in evidence in state trials. Such evidence is barred in federal court trials.

The appeal said conviction of the three bookmakers violated the U. S. Constitution's supremacy of federal law clause; also their rights under guarantees of due process and equal protection of laws.

Trapped Man Saved By Deputy

A San Francisco man, trapped half way up a sheer 200-foot cliff south of Stinson Beach, was saved last night in a daring rescue by Deputy Sheriff Raymond L. von Savoye.

The deputy lowered himself over the cliff by rope and plucked Allen L. Saperstein, 22, of 69-A Gilbert Street from a narrow ledge just as darkness and the freezing cold closed in.

ROCK FALLS

Saperstein and his companion, Tary A. Rebenar, 22, also of 69-A Gilbert Street, had been climbing the cliff about a mile and a half south of Stinson Beach when a rock fell on Saperstein, hitting him on the shoulder.

The impact knocked Saperstein onto a narrow ledge. Rebenar tried to reach him, slipped, but caught himself in time. He suffered scrapes and bruises of his left hand. Rebenar decided to go for help.

It was about 6:30 p.m. when Rebenar got to a telephone to seek aid.

ROPE PROVIDED

Deputy von Savoye said Stinson Beach State Park rangers provided rope, and the Stinson Beach Volunteer Fire Department also arrived with manpower and an ambulance.

"There was nothing we could tie the rope to, not even a rock," said von Savoye. As rangers and firemen hung on to the ropes, von Savoye lowered himself to Saperstein, tied a second rope to the victim, and the two were hauled to safety.

"It was pitch dark by the time we saved him," said Deputy von Savoye. "A little bit later and it would have been hard to locate him."

Caribbean Maneuvers Called Off

WASHINGTON (AP) — A practice landing by 6,000 Marines on the Caribbean island of Vieques was canceled abruptly today.

The Defense Department said the practice landing through the surf and by helicopter had been called off because the ships of the Navy's amphibious force had been scattered by a hurricane.

The practice landing had been scheduled for Tuesday as the climax of an antisubmarine warfare-amphibious exercise which began Oct. 15 and is due to wind up Oct. 30. The exercise involves about 40 Navy ships and 20,000 Navy and Marine men.

There was no immediate indication whether the landings might still be held before the end of the exercise period.

It is a regular training area for the Marine Corps and the Atlantic Fleet.

The big exercise which began Oct. 15 was planned late last year. Similiar drills have been helld about once a year for some time.

Searchers Stranded By Weather

Michael Gordon, owner of Jim's Sport Shop in Novato, was lost in thick fog at Black Point with two teen-age fishing companions last night but groped back to shore about midnight.

However, a search craft with a Novato police officer aboard got hung up in the mudflats off Hamilton Air Force Base and was stranded all night in the freezing cold.

WALKIE-TALKIE

Officer Floyd Hollowell and Charles E. Myers of 626 Trumbull Avenue, Novato, had a walkie-talkie with them in the search. However, the walkie-talkie went dead. They said they could hear searchers calling for them over loudspeakers but could not answer them.

The two wrapped themselves in tarpaulin, waited for the tide to refloat their boat, and managed to come ashore at 8 a.m. today. They were "frozen stiff" but otherwise unharmed.

The missing trio that set off the search in the first place were Gordon, and two boys from San Francisco, Joel Spear, 18, and Martin Ferrari, 14.

FAILED TO RETURN

Mrs. Michael Gordon called the sheriff for help at 9:40 last night when her husband and the boys failed to return. They had parked their car at the Black Point boat launching ramp and expected to be back before dark.

The Coast Guard and Hamilton Air Force Base were alerted to help in the search. Myers, who works for Gordon at Jim's Sport Shop, and Officer Hollowell took a 16-foot boat to look for the missing fishing boat. That was about 11:30 p.m.

The missing fishermen got back within an hour, but the search boat was then trapped for eight hours on the mudflats.

Ike Is Against Sniping During A Kennedy Crisis

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says political snipers should hold their fire while President John F. Kennedy is trying to deal with an international crisis.

To subject him to campaign attacks while he is attempting to cope with a current foreign policy problem is to weaken and divide the nation, Eisenhower said in a taped television interview yesterday.

At the same time the former president stoutly defended the Repuolican party's right to discuss policy matters that are history and the general long-range attitude of the nation toward its whole position in the world.

"Any pronouncements he may make respecting an impending crisis is almost sacrosanct as far as I am concerned," Eisenhower said.

"If anyone argues with him, and the bigger the following this opponent gets, the more it has divided our country."

Eisenhower's comments came in the wake of congressional campaign cross-fire over the Communist regime in Cuba and the Berlin crisis. Last Monday, in a Boston speech, Eisenhower joined in the fray, criticizing Kennedy for conducting "a dreary foreign policy . . . to sad to talk about."

In that stinging attack, Eisenhower termed "a strange departure from fact" a quote he attributed to Kennedy that "during eight years of Republican administration our foreign policy drifted aimlessly about."

Eisenhower said yesterday, "I think that probably we have heard the last of it. At least I hope so."

Eisenhower said it was the Democrats who first brought up foreign policy, accusing his Republican administration of drifting for eight years, and that he had responded to this in his Boston remarks.

"I do not believe we should fail to discuss things that are history," Eisenhower said. "A loyal opposition has got a perfect right to discuss it without rancor."

At the same time Eisenhower brushed aside as "none of my business" a request for comment on calls by some Democrats and Republicans for an immediate invasion of Cuba.

Of the last Cuban invasion—the April 1961 Bay of Pigs fiasco—Eisenhower said he has never expressed an opinion about it at all.

Noting it occurred three months after the Kennedy administration had taken over, Eisenhower said:

"I do not know enough about its complete details to comment upon it, and so while others have, others of my party and I suppose some of the other party have, I have personally kept still about it."

Commenting on Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro, Eisenhower said: "While it is true the activities and the actions of the man began to prove his real situation and his real intentions before I left office, the fact was that it was just something a situation we were still trying to save rather by diplomatic means than anything else."

Last Tuesday, the Republican campaign high command declared that foreign policy—Cuba in particular — is "the dominant issue of the 1962 campaign."

A formal statement, issued at GOP headquarters, declared: "If we were asked to state the issue in one word that word would be Cuba—symbol of the tragic irresolution of the administration."

Rep. William E. Miller, national party chairman, was joined in the statement by Sen. Barry Goldwater and Rep. Bob Wilson, chairman of the Senate and House GOP campaign committees.

Reached last night at Niagara Falls, N.Y., Miller said in a telephone interview there is no Republican disagreement over Cuba's place in the campaign.

MILITARY GUARD AT YEMEN CAPITAL

A Yemeni soldier, armed with a Russian automatic weapon, stands guard on the roof of an old royal palace overlooking the Yemen capital city, San'a, with its minarets and high mud-brick houses clustered together. For years foreigners were forbidden to enter the mountain-rimmed city deep in the country's interior. Premier Abdullah Sallal was quoted yesterday as announcing that his Republican army had taken over "every inch" of Yemen's eastern Marib area from royalist supporters of the dethroned Imam Mohammed Al-Badr.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Prelate Says World Soul Lost

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The world has, by and large, lost its soul, the Archbishop of Canterbury says.

Dr. Arthur Michael Ramsey, spiritual leader of the Church of England and the Anglican Communion, spoke to more than 1,000 persons at the University of California at Los Angeles last night.

He said "races and nations are not using the world's resources in fellowship, are exploiting their neighbors and aggrandizing themselves, trying to dethrone god."

He said pride is "the supreme rebellion against God."

Car Hood Flips, Cuts Power

CUMBERLAND, Ind. (AP)—At 6:10 p.m. the burglar alarm at the bank began jangling. Lights and traffic signals blacked out. A fire sprang up in a vacant lot. Telephone lines went dead.

Authorities later blamed it all on a loose hood on Ford Sorrell's 1949 model car.

Town Marshal Vernon Buckshot said the hood flew off the 18-year-old Indianapolis youth's auto as he drove along U.S. 40 Sunday night. The wayward metal sheet soared over the car and sliced through telephone lines and a 13,000-volt electrical cable.

Power was restored to this small suburb east of Indianapolis two hours later.

Gems, Furs Taken

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Police were looking today for a burglar with a taste for furs, jewelry and black lace nightgowns.

Some $30,000 in jewelry and furs were discovered missing early yesterday from the Nob Hill penthouse of socialite Peter Bercut, San Francisco police reported.

Included in the missing items was a lace nightgown which the Bercuts gave their daughter, Suzanne, on her 21st birthday.

Ranger 5 Tracked

PASADENA (AP) — Tracking stations will determine by tomorrow whether Ranger 5 will go into orbit around the sun, its builders say.

The spacecraft, thwarted by a power failure from its intended lunar landing, passed within 450 miles of the moon yesterday, the Jet Propulsion Laboratory reported.

The spacecraft, 13 feet tall, was launched last Thursday at Cape Canaveral. It was supposed to televise the moon at close range and measure quakes of the lunar surface.

However, solar panels intended to power the camera and devices to correct its path failed soon after launching.

106 Autos Stolen

GLENDALE (UPI)—Local police report that 106 automobiles were reported stolen in Glendale in the first six months of 1962.

Drowns In Rainwater

The body of Patrick Leslie Haislip, 6, was found in the muddy waters yesterday after Fragments of a makeshift raft were floating in the pool, filled by recent rains.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haislip.

Spy Sentenced

LONDON (UPI) — British Admiralty clerk William John Christopher Vasall, a clergyman's son, pleaded guilty today to spying for Russia and was sentenced to 18 years in prison.

Slim, soft-spoken Vassal, 38, replied "guilty, sir," to all four charges under the official secrets act of collecting and communicating information which might be useful to an enemy. Vassal once worked in the naval attache's office of the British Embassy in Moscow.

Bomb In Basement

The blast wrecked a basement play room and broke windows in the two-story seven-room brick house and in an adjoining home. No one was injured.

McCarron, whose father, Walter Edward McCarron was former Cook County coroner, estimated damage at $5,000. Young McCarron, 34, his wife, Mary, 32, and their three children, Timothy, 10, Michael, 7, and Marianne, 4, were in the house when the bomb, apparently placed at a basement window, exploded.

S. Viet Nam Progress

SAIGON (UPI) — The commander-in-chief of America's Pacific command, Adm. Harry D. Felt, wound up a four-day visit to South Viet Nam today and said he found the anti-Guerrilla war against Communist Viet Cong forces making significant progress.

He said the communists are losing from five to six times as many men as government forces.

Davis Now Offering English Ph.D. Degree

DAVIS (UPI)—The Davis campus of the University of California this year is offering a Ph.D. Degree in English for the first time in its history.

About 35 graduate students from across the country have enrolled in the new program.

Mother Turns Vamp To Slow Truckers

LONDON (AP) — Anne MacDonald, a shapely mother of four, became a roadside vamp to slow down fast drivers.

Then she wiggled her hips and gave the hitch-hiking thumb sign to every passing motorist.

When truck drivers pulled up to offer her a lift, Mrs. MacDonald, 31, smiled sweetly and said: "Thank you for stopping. I do hope you will observe the speed limit through our village."

Mrs. MacDonald, said she had written six times to the Transport Ministry asking that it do something about the many drivers who ignored the village's 30-mile-an-hour speed limit.

"I saw drivers whistling at pretty girls in the village and that gave me a new idea," she said.

Mrs. MacDonald now has abandoned her vamp technique.

"The drivers were all as nasty as possible," she said. "I'm shocked.

Slight Auto Bump: Sickness Later

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Whiplash probably is the most common type of injury arising from auto accidents —and most Americans have been involved in a motor mishap at one time or another.

Even a lightweight rear end bump could produce a whiplash injury to the neck. The effects of such a bump can be drastic even though the symptoms don't appear until weeks or months after the accident.

The unexpected bump may snap your head back and cause the vertebrae in your neck to lose their normal alignment. Such a displacement can damage nerves, blood vessels and muscles in the neck region. Eventually organs elsewhere in your body may be effected—the heart, liver, kidneys or stomach.

These symptoms, distant from the site of injury can be explained by the fact that nerves supplying all the organs and tissues of the body originate in the brain and are channeled through the bony framework of the spinal column. Consequently, when the spine is jolted by the sudden whiplash in the neck, a vertebrae may be forced out of place and pinch nerves leading to any one of several organs.

Let's take the stomach as an example. Because of damaged nerve supply, the stomach in time will lose its digestive efficiency and ulcers may occur. The cause of the ulcers, however, remains in the neck . . . the vertebrae that was jerked out of line.

The science of finding and restoring misaligned vertebrae is the science of Chiropractic. When the nerve interference is removed efficiently and painlessly by a Chiropractic adjustment, nerves will return to normal function and the stomach ulcers eventually will disappear—with the help of time and nature.

LUTCHER, La. (AP) — The grim task of searching for the missing continued today after a ship-barge collision that apparently took the lives of 19 Norwegian tanker crew members.

Twelve bodies—most of them badly burned—were recovered from the Mississippi River and the charred bulk of the 13,500-ton motor tanker Boheme. Searchers sought seven others still unaccounted for.

Firefighters put out the last blaze aboard the beached ship last night—about 36 hours after the tanker, bound for the continent, collided near here with a string of oil barges towed by the tug Bonnie D.

As salvage work began, the Coast Guard prepared an investigation but no hearing date was announced. A spokesman for A. O. Andersen Steamship Co., of Oslo, Norway, owner of the Boheme, said her cargo, which included a highly flammable nitrate solvent, was intact.

The spokesman said it was too early to give an estimate of damage, but fore and aft sections were badly charred. The engine room and nearby crew's quarters, where many were trapped, were heavily burned.

Panic - stricken crewmen leaped into the flaming waters as fire roared across the Boheme's deck and explosions—apparently from the engine room—rocked the tanker. Seamen's cries could be heard from shore.

The lone identified body was that of Second Mate Hans Wollsen, 65, of Copenhagen. It was found in the river soon after the crash.

Two crewmen are in critical condition

Norway Sea Claims 20

Five lifeboats with 47 survivors had been found, and 20 or more persons were missing.

Of the survivors, 23 were passengers and 24 were members of the 45-man crew.

The modern 2,172-ton liner went aground last night in gale force winds four miles south of Nordoeya Lighthouse Island.

The ship messaged that it pulled itself clear, but it had been holed by the grounding. Thirty minutes later it radioed that it was taking a considerable amount of water and abandon ship was ordered.

Mother Testifies At Trial

Murder suspect Claude Hilton Bradley, 22, buried his head in his arms on the courtroom table and wept quietly this morning as his mother took the stand in his defense before Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. in Marin Superior Court.

Mrs. Nora Woosley, Bradley's mother, told the jury of nine women and three men that her son was always kind and gentle and very loving toward her and toward women in general.

"He made friends easily, and everybody liked him," said Mrs. Woosley. "He wanted love, but his mother couldn't give him the time."

She testified that she had been married four times, and worked as cocktail waitress at night. She said her son has been resentful of his stepfather ever since her last marriage about 10 years ago.

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety contends that Bradley visited Mrs. Carole Leona Frederick, 29, at her apartment at 45 Woodland Avenue and strangled her to death on the morning of June 3.

Defense attorney Berwyn A. Rice said he intends to call several psychiatrists to testify on Bradley's mental condition. "I don't think he has the ability to form an intent or malice aforethought," the lawyer declared. "He seems to remember up to a point and then his mind regresses."

Engraver's Legs Broken By Auto

Donald M. Parker, 55, of 842 Hayden Drive, Novato, an engraver for the Independent-Journal, suffered compound fractures of both legs about 10 p.m. yesterday when his car pinned him against the garage at his Novato home.

The brake on the car slipped and the car rolled down the inclined driveway to the garage, pinning Parker against the wall, he reported.

A. E. Heise of 839 Hayden Drive, heard the crash. He backed the car away from Parker and called United Ambulance, which took him to Novato General Hospital. He was reported in satisfactory condition today by the hospital.

Mrs. Parker had left Saturday on a trip to the Midwest.

charges linking the United States with the border strife.

The U.S. State Department said in a statement yesterday "our sympathy is with India as it seeks to meet this unprincipled challenge to its national integrity."

The Indian government has admitted its troops have been forced to fall back in the face of what were described as attacks with overwhelming strength. Various reports said four to seven strongpoints were lost.

Stolen Auto Found, Stripped Of Parts

Sausalito policeman Stanley Kelly's 1954 two-door sedan, stolen in Marin City Thursday night while Mrs. Kelly, a school teacher, attended a meeting, was found Friday afternoon near 49 Cole Drive.

The car had been stripped, Kelly said. Generator and battery were taken and manifold was disconnected. The water heater had been damaged and the fan belt cut.

Kentfield Board Due Program Report

Administrative Asst. Anthony Bacich will report on new programs and materials, including national defense education act projects, at the Kentfield school district board meeting at 7:45 p.m. today in the Greenbrae school multi-use room.

Gabrielle Lohnberg, Adaline E. Kent school instructor, will report on teaching of Spanish in the seventh and eighth grades.

Two Treated For Wounds After Fight

Two Marin City men were treated for knife wounds and bruises early yesterday after a brawl involving about 20 persons at a Richardson Bay bar, sheriff's deputies reported.

Isaac Felder, 30, of 49 Cole Drive, suffered a knife slash in the abdomen which required 15 stitches. Amos Hollis, 43, of Building A-54, was treated for bruises on his head. They, and a third man, Willie Perkiss, 30, of San Francisco, were booked on drunk charges in Marin County Jail after treatment at Marin General Hospital.

Deputies said about 20 men appeared to be taking part in a scuffle at the Pig Haven Bar when they arrived at the scene shortly before 3 a.m.

The men were not sure who their assailants were. A witness, Joseph W. Duncan of San Francisco, told deputies "it all started when someone walked up and threatened to shoot Perkiss."

Patrolman Breaks Nose In Accident

Just ahead was a car driven by A/1c Kerlin R. Farwell, living on the base. Farwell later said a third vehicle swung in ahead of him so close that he hastily backed his own car without noting the patrol car behind.

Drainage Report On Schools Due

A report on the drainage project at the Meadow Park School will be given to the San Jose Elementary School District board at 8 o'clock tonight in the administration building.

Supt. Ralpn Giovanniello will report to the board on this project. The board will also consider a grant of easement to Pacific Gas and Electric Co. for a high line over the upper portion of the San Jose Intermediate School grounds.

Other items to come before the board include a report on copyrighting mathematics materials and a report on mathematics and social studies.

OBITUARIES

Berrien P. Anderson III Rites Set

Funeral services of Berrien P. Anderson III, 18, who was killed Friday night in an auto accident near Ventura, will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael. Inurnment will be private.

Friends may call at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Young Anderson was killed when the car in which he was riding with Theodore Fouts, 17, of Newport Beach, a classmate at Menlo College, spun out of control and overturned on Highway 101. Fouts, the driver, suffered minor injuries.

Anderson was born in Pensacola, Fla., April 18, 1944, when his father, Berrien P. Anderson Jr., was a Navy flier there.

He attended Coleman School in San Rafael, Sleepy Hollow School, and Desert Sun School in Idyllwild, Riverside County, where he was graduated last June as president of the senior class. He entered Menlo College last month.

He is survived by his father, former San Rafael resident now of Climbing Arrow Ranch, Bozeman, Mont.; his mother, Mrs. Robert E. Linscott of Kentfield, with whom he lived; five half-brothers and two half-sisters, Mark, Bruce and Tracey Linscott of Kentfield, and Page, Frank, Anita and Katherine Anderson of Bozeman, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Berrien P. Anderson Sr. of San Rafael and Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield Baker of San Rafael and San Francisco.

Founder Of Sewing Circle Dies

The funeral of Mrs. Cristina Farlatti of Kentfield, a resident of Marin County since 1910, will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Mrs. Farlatti, 79, died Saturday at a local hospital after a long illness.

Mrs. Farlatti, who leaves a son, Ben A. Farlatti, and a daughter-in-law, Juliat, both of Pasadena, founded the Florence Crittenden Sewing Circle in 1925, now the Marin Sewing Circle, which aids the Florence Crittenden Home for unwed mothers in San Francisco. She served several terms as president. She was also an active member of Tamalpais Center Woman's Club. She held a number of important chairmanships and was active in county politics.

Mrs. Farlatti was a member of the pioneer Cavagnaro family of San Francisco and was born and reared in the historic Octagon House on Gough Street in San Francisco, now owned by the National Society of Colonial Dames.

She was the widow of Massimo Farlatti and lived most recently at 118 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield.

Interment will be private.

NELL MOLSEED

Requiem Mass for Mrs. Nell E. Molseed, 54, a former Marin resident, will be celebrated tomorrow at 11 a.m. in the Church of Assumption in Tomales.

She died Saturday in a Petaluma hospital after a long illness. She was a native of Tomales and attended schools there.

Mrs. Molseed was graduated from San Francisco State College and later taught school in Santa Rosa and San Rafael. For the past eight years she had taught in Fort Bragg schools and was a resident of Fort Bragg.

She was a member of the California State Teachers Assn., St. Francis Altar Society and California Christian Doctoran.

Mrs. Molseed leaves two sons and a daughter, Elwood Molseed of Berkeley, Larry Molseed of San Jose, and Mary Molseed of Fort Bragg; four sisters and a brother, Mrs. John Kinloch of Suisun, Mrs. John Montgomery of San Mateo, Mrs. Louis Sheehan of Oakland, Mrs Robert Maloney and A. L. Cunningham of Fallon.

Burial will be in Tomales Catholic Cemetery, directed by Sorensen Funeral Home, Petaluma.

CATHERINE MOSHER

Mrs. Catherine C. Mosher, 46, a former clerk in the Kentfield Post Office, died early today in a Sonoma hospital after an illness of about four weeks.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

Mrs. Mosher joined the staff of the Kentfield Post Office in 1949 and continued in the postal service until 1956. The Moshers lived in Kentfield until their departure from Marin County in 1959, since when they lived in Rio Del Mar, Santa Cruz County, though her husband, Harold Mosher, retained an interest in the San Rafael contracting firm of Mosher Brothers.

She became ill recently while visiting her sister, Mrs. Barbara Schnell, in Sonoma.

Survivors include three sons, Dr. Loren Mosher of Boston, Roger Mosher of Palo Alto and Harold Jr. of Denver, and two brothers, John Conley of Napa and Michael Conley of Illinois.

MATILDA EDWARDS

Funeral services for Matilda Edwards of Greenbrae, who died in her sleep Saturday, will be held at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo.

Mrs. Edwards, who suffered a heart condition, had lived with her daughter, Mrs. Gordon S. Carman, at 12 Corte Los Sombras, Greenbrae, for 14 years. Her husband, Harvey C. Edwards, died three years ago.

She leaves, besides her daughter, a son, Clarence Edwards of Atwater, Merced County; a sister, Ella Rahn of Greenbrae; a brother, Clarence Rahn of Lava Hot Springs, Ida., and two grandchildren.

Entombment will be at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

JESSIE GAINEY

Funeral services for Mrs. Jessie Roark Gainey, 70, of San Anselmo, will be held tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael.

Mrs. Gainey died Thursday in a local hospital after a long illness. She was a retired apartment house owner and had lived for the past four years at 14 Sunnyside Avenue, San Anselmo. She was a native of Missouri.

She leaves two sons, Frank S. Gainey Jr. of San Anselmo and Raymond S. Gainey of San Francisco; a daughter, Mary C. Gainey of San Anselmo; a brother, Martin Roark of San Rafael; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Elliott and Mrs. Helena B. Stites of Salt Lake City, and two grandchildren.

Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

FRANKA HAMBERG

Private funeral services for Franka M. Hamberg, 89, a Marin resident for 20 years, were held today at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

Mrs. Hamberg died Thursday in a local rest home after a lon gillness. She retired four years ago after working as a cook and housekeeper for the faculty at Marin Catholic High School. Her home was at 219 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo. She was a native of Germany but had lived in California 75 years.

She leaves a sister, Catherine of Santa Cruz.

Burial was in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

FRANK GREEN

Funeral services for Frank Green, 64, of 11 Marion Court, Novato, who died Friday in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness, will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Redwood Chapel Funeral Home, Novato.

He was born in Sydney, Australia, on Dec. 24, 1897. He came to this county 42 years ago and has lived in the Bay Area since. He moved to Novato nine years ago.

For 25 years he had worked for the Pacific Maritime Assn. He was a member of the International Longshoremen and Warehousemen's Union.

He is survived by his wife, Evangeline Green of the home; a brother, Eric Green of New York, and several other brothers in Australia.

Private inurnment will be in Marin Memorial Gardens, Novato.

MRS. CAILLEAUD

Funeral services for Honorine Cailleaud, 66, member of an early day Marin family, will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Halsted and Co. in San Francisco.

Mrs. Cailleaud died Saturday in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness. She was the widow of August A. Cailleaud, whose father, Henry Cailleaud, built Deer Park Villa in Fairfax 60 years ago and was owner of extensive properties in Marin County and San Francisco. She was a native of France. She resided in San Francisco but visited Marin frequently.

Mrs. Cailleaud leaves three daughters, Mrs. Georgette Vilas of Woodacre, Mrs. Honorine Joyce and Mrs. Louise Kilkenny of San Francisco; two sons, Jack Cailleaud and Robert Noque of San Francisco and 13 grandchildren.

Burial will be in Woodlawn Memorial Park, Colma. The family asks that tribute be memorial gifts to the American Cancer Society.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials of normal regularity

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs frequently cramp and gripe. Of all leading laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAID prevents the formation of dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAID's unique rebulking action helps retone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

How long does it take to build a family's future security?

It depends on how you go about it.

From the moment you receive your policy, your family is guaranteed more money than you could save in years.

Are you making the most of the unique advantages your life insurance offers? Here's how to find out!

Unless you have reviewed your policies with your life insurance agent recently, you may not be making the most of the choices and opportunities they offer.

Ask your agent how the unique advantages of life insurance can be used to guarantee funds for children's education . . . to pay off a mortgage . . . provide cash for emergencies . . . even to bring you a retirement income you can't outlive!

See your life insurance agent regularly. He's trained to help you make your policies even more valuable.

QUENTIN INMATE STABBED

A San Quentin inmate who was treated Saturday for superficial cuts on his back told prison officials he did not know who attacked him.

James Ratliff, 25, said he was attacked when he stopped in a lavatory on his way from the prison textile mill to his cell block late Friday. He did not ask for treatment of the wounds until noon Saturday.

Capt. Carl Hocker, prison officer of the day, said the cuts may have been inflicted by a razor. Ratliff's coat and shirt were slashed and there were three or four slight cuts on his back.

Ratliff, convicted of burlary in Tulare County and escape from Chino State Prison, has been in San Quentin since September, 1961. He has not been in previous trouble at the prison, Hocker said.

Hub Meeting On Horse 'Nuisance'

A horse which neighbors call a "health nuisance" will be considered by the San Anselmo City Council when it meets at 8 p.m. tomorrow in city hall.

Several neighbors have complained to the council and asked it to rid the neighborhood of the horse, which lives at 33 Salinas Avenue.

The council will also consider an ordinance creating a city park and recreation commission and approval of a final map for the Creekside Subdivision.

Supreme Court Denies Hoffa Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—James R. Hoffa, Teamsters Union president, was denied today a Supreme Court hearing on his complaint that President John F. Kennedy and other government officials had prejudiced a grand jury against him.

Counsel for Hoffa and McCarthy asked dismissal of the indictment on the ground they were deprived of a fair grand jury "through the conscious and deliberate instigation of propaganda hostile" to Hoffa by officials of the federal government.

A statement made by Kennedy during a presidential campaign debate Sept. 26, 1960, was offered in support of the dismissal request. Kennedy's statement, tne complaint said, in substance was "I am not satisfied to see men like Hoffa be free."

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, the complaint added, "has been deliberately fomenting inflammatory publicity. Mr. Kennedy has made public statements that he wants to see Mr. Hoffa rot in jail, that he has enough evidence to convict him."

U.S. Dist. Judge Joseph P. Lieb in Tampa, Fla., refused to dismiss the indictment. He quashed subpoenas that had been issued for government officials, and ordered trial of Hoffa and McCarthy. Lieb found Hoffa had failed to prove the contention that government officials had prejudiced the grand jury.

JUST WHAT IS REPUBLICAN VICTORY WORTH TO YOU?

Just how much does a Republican Victory mean to you next month? Only you can answer this question. Is it worth an hour or more of your time? Is it worth a dollar or more of your hard earned money? Only you can give the answer.
If you are dissatisfied with the way our government is being run in Washington and in Sacramento, then here is your opportunity to register your objection. Here is your opportunity to do something about it.
Thousands of thinking men and women of both major parties are expressing their dissatisfaction and doing something about it by giving unsparingly of their time and their money. How about You?

Two very important ways are open for You to express your objections to higher taxes and to more government control. We who are working for better government and for lower taxes urge You to join us.
If You cannot give of your time then your contribution of even a dollar or more will help to bring the message of good government to the thinking voters of Marin County through the Press, Radio, TV and through our candidates.
Just voting on election day is not enough to assure a change. We need your help in time or in money if we are to win this most important election. Every contribution in time and money will help. Do something about it today. November 7 will be too late.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Proposition 10 is another attempt to create a whole new category of property tax exemptions.

This one, as do most, deals with good causes, in this case religious, hospital and charitable tax exempt agencies. It would grant tax exemption to property leased by these agencies for 99 years. They already are tax exempt when owned outright by the agency.

We can see now a proposition coming a few years from now asking us to lower that 99 years to 50 years. A few years later it would come down to 25 or 20 years and eventually to any property rented by such an agency.

We think it unjustified to extend the exemption. Property not owned by those agencies should be taxed.

Vote NO on Proposition 10.

PROPOSITION 12 would permit use of state money to help finance a home or farm for the unremarried widow of a veteran.

There is nothing in this measure which says the veteran must have lived in California or enlisted from California. Indeed, so far as we can see, there is nothing to stop a widow from the East, who may have already spent her husband's veteran's bonus, from coming here and benefitting from this law, whether she needs help or not.

Vote NO on Proposition 12.

PROPOSITION 5 deals with workmen's compensation, but it has nothing to do with increased or expanded benefits.

The measure would shift to the employers the burden now carried by the general taxpayers of providing additional aid to injured men when a previous injury makes the subsequent one even more damaging.

We believe that this measure would seriously harm the fine hire-the-handicapped program for which the subsequent injury benefit were first designed, because employers would be taking additional risks in hiring them.

Vote NO on Proposition 5.

Marin's Nutty Squirrels

As is the habit of squirrels everywhere, Marin's bushy-tailed acrobats are putting away nuts, acorns and other food for the forthcoming "rainy day" of winter.

One grey squirrel of our acquaintance has caches buried all over our garden. We seriously doubt that a genius with an electric computer could keep track of all this accumulated loot, much less our furry, little friend.

Like a miser with a fortune which he will seldom touch stored in dozens of different banks, Mr. Squirrel seemingly delights in putting it away.

MARIN LOOKS AT POLITICS

Crowds Applaud For Emotional Issues, When Candidates Want

By CHAPIN A. DAY

'CHIP' DAY

ONE OF THE most fascinating sports when accompanying a political candidate on a whistlestop campaign by train is watching the crowd, listening to when they cheer and clap—and trying to figure out why.

It's not difficult to predict what's going to touch off the applause. The appearance of the local politicians—the appearance of the candidate and his wife—local references, like "the King City Mustangs' 17 straight wins." Crowd: "18, 18, 18." Candidate Nixon: "18? That's great, you've won another since someone wrote this for me."

"We need a change" is usually good for a few cheers; Dwight D. Eisenhower does it; jokes about the other party are sure fire; "get the chiselers off of the welfare rolls" appeals to everyone because everyone favors it, even those on welfare who never are chiselers themselves.

But don't expect much mileage from taxes (even if you want to reduce them), from better highways, better schools or a farm program.

THERE ARE JUST two that appear to be surefire. The second best is "an effective program against communism" in a thundering voice and with fist clenched.

But the best, and this was surprising to me, is "the death penalty for top dope peddlers."

We asked Nixon about this as four of us sat around the dining table in his private car at the end of the train.

"They cheer emotional issues," he explained, "but the statements they cheer are not necessarily those which have the greatest impact. The speech that has the most cheers isn't necessarily the best speech. Getting cheers is a trick, the trick of the demagogue, and every politician has a little demagogue in him.

"But the points that really score are those which go here (indicating his head) rather than here" (patting the general area of the heart and lungs).

WHY ARE communism and the death penalty for dope peddlers so effective?

Because the people are worried, concerned and frustrated. They don't know what to do about them. They feel better and are willing to assist someone who has an idea what to do.

The enthusiasm for capital punishment for top dope addicts is a combination of concerns — about the mounting crime rate, about dope, about involvement of children with dope and crime.

This same concern is the reason many people are supporting the Francis anti-communist amendment, Nixon declared. But it's a bad law, he insisted.

IN ANY anti-communist, or anti-anything else, legislation the real heart of the problem is in deciding who is a communist, Nixon said. In the Francis amendment this power is placed in the hands of grand juries, federal officials, possibly even individuals like U.S. marshals. There is a "saving clause" which says "under due process of law," but this is not enough, in Nixon's opinion, to keep the battle against communism from complete confusion if the amendment is passed.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

IT'S YOUR MONEY

The average wage-earner devotes over a quarter of his pay check to the government. Yet few taxpayers are aware of how much they pay to maintain all levels of government through income, real estate, corporate, sales and dozens of other taxes.

It now costs 162 billion dollars a year (nearly 14 billion a month) to run all government in the USA—local, State and Federal. Divided equally, that would mean a bill of over $868 each year for every man, woman and child in the country—or $4,340 for a family of five.

Are government costs too high? Increasing too rapidly? Handled inefficiently? Too little in certain vital areas?

It's your responsibility before God to find out. Every dollar spent comes out of your pocket—or the pockets of others like you.

So it's up to citizens like you to see that your representatives in government get a dollar's worth of value out of every dollar spent.

"Render, therefore, to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

(Matthew 22:21)

May I show a conscientious care in the use of Your blessings, O Lord.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Grieved By Loss Of Clem Miller

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

. . . When one is limp with grief over the loss of a close and beloved friend of the calibre of Clem Miller, it seems an effort of questionable worth to bother to comment on the negative, "hole in the doughnut" type of reporting from Novato. I don't remember the reporter's name nor do I have the energy or the interest to look it up.

During the past week, I have been engaged and shocked by the merciless intrusion on the part of reporters and photographers into the lives of my family and friends during this sorrowful time.

I am puzzled often as to how the word "journalism" is interpreted by the staff of the San Rafael Independent-Journal.

'Know Them By Their Silence'

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I read with sorrow of the desecration in Mississippi of those truths set forth in our constitution which we were to hold as being self-evident.

And I kept waiting for those great defenders of the constitution—the John Birchers, the supporters of the Louis Francis Amendment, the followers of Fred Schwarz—to arise and thunder out in righteous wrath the words of Amendments XIV and XV to the constitution, ring their liberty bells, rally their sunshine patriots, and support with the last drop of their true-blue blood the cause of one, lonely American citizen attempting to claim his rights under those provisions of the constitution.

But, alas, no word has come from the anointed ones. No Birchers, no Francis Amendment supporters, no Schwarz followers have raised their voices in behalf of Mr. Meredith.

It is their favorite and constant claim that they are protecting us from evil, and yet now we have seen them standing silently by while this great travesty of justice was perpetrated, this greatest of insults to the constitution was committed by the chief executive of a state of the United States.

Let us all remember this in the future—that these men who prate the loudest their love and respect for the constitution stood silently by while Governor Ross Barnett and his mobs attempted to nullify that constitution. "By their words, ye shall know them." Many a time, by their silence, ye shall know them.

Comrade Kazotsky dropped in at the polls on election day in Pinsk and was handed a sealed envelope to drop into the ballot box. An official jumped six feet when Kazotsky started to open it. "What's the big idea?" screamed the official. "I want to see who I'm voting for," explained Kazotsky. "You must be out of your mind," decided the official. "Don't you realize that this is a secret ballot?"

An appliance dealer sent out a "To the occupant" throwaway which read, "Lady of the House, you can save enough on your food bills to pay for our brand new food freezer." One unexpected reply went as follows: "Gentlemen: We are paying for our car on the carfare we save; we're paying for the washing machine on the laundry bills we save, and we're paying for the insulated picture windows on the fuel bills we save. Frankly, we just can't afford to save another penny at the present time."

West Coast Should Have Storm Warning Service Like One In East

WELL, I SUPPOSE by now everybody is getting dried off after the experience of having two typhoons hit us one right after the other. It's a funny thing, we heard about those storms as they were in Asia, but our own weather bureau didn't warn us that they would hit us.

Maybe I blinked my eye at the wrong time, but I didn't see anything about our big storms on the national television networks news programs. Here was a national disaster of gigantic proportions. Portland, Ore., a major city, was really hard hit by the storms. Every other city and town from the Bay Area to British Columbia suffered.

The West Coast did not have any warning. The fishing and small boats were not warned to get into safe cover. Nothing was done for our protection in the way of a warning. So, not being warned, we suffered more damage than necessary.

Maybe the weather bureau could put a branch of the hurricane warning service into a typhoon warning service for the West.

THE BIG WIND blew leaves off the trees as though it was later in the season when they should be falling. In the bright, clear weather that followed, these leaves have dried out. Of course they are being raked and burned.

That smell of burning leaves gave us a bit of nostalgia. My wife and I grew a little homesick for the scents and sights of autumn. So, as this is being written, our plans are to head into the high country over the weekend for a sight of the autumn leaves in the mountains. Our plans are completely nebulous—we will just go where the inclination takes us and do what looks interesting. There are plans on for camping and cooking out in the forests, but that is all.

There are advantages to living in a small town. People still care, not only about civic affairs, but also about other people.

A good example of this occurred last week after Harley McAskill's men's shop was burglarized. His loss was only partially covered by insurance.

So the merchants of the town put their heads together. Before two days had elapsed, they had raised enough money to replace a big share of the loss for Harley.

Irv Links, who is Harley's competition for men's clothing, took a big armful of slacks and walked down Grant Avenue to McAskills. These were the sizes taken from Harley. Irv gave the slacks to Harley so he could stay in business.

Irv took a lot of kidding as he walked down Grant Avenue. The other merchants were accusing him of returning some of the merchandise he had stolen from his competitor the night before.

So that is life in a small town. Everybody knows everybody else's business, and sometimes this pays off in good deeds.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Nixon, Brown Both Battling For Political Center To Win Votes

LOS ANGELES — It is impossible—at least ridiculously imprudent—to attempt to forecast the outcome of the hot, neck-and-neck Nixon-Brown contest for governor of California. It is so close and so uncertain that, as in the 1960 presidential race, it may be the absentee ballot which will decide it.

But it is possible to see why this election is so unpredictable. It is unpredictable because this fabulous and burgeoning state of California and its 17 million people are unpredictable—and love it.

With far more registered Democrats than Republicans, Gov. Edmund Brown really doesn't know who his supporters are or how they will vote, because in electing its governor California has almost invariably chosen the man over the party.

With this technically Democratic state tending to elect one Republican governor after another (Brown is an exception), Richard Nixon really doesn't know where his supporters are, but he does know that at least 20 per cent of them will have to be Democrats if he is to win.

EACH IS DOGGEDLY trying to preempt the political center—where victory alone rests—and to persuade the voters that the other is something of an unreliable extremist despite the fact that their stated objectives are almost identical.

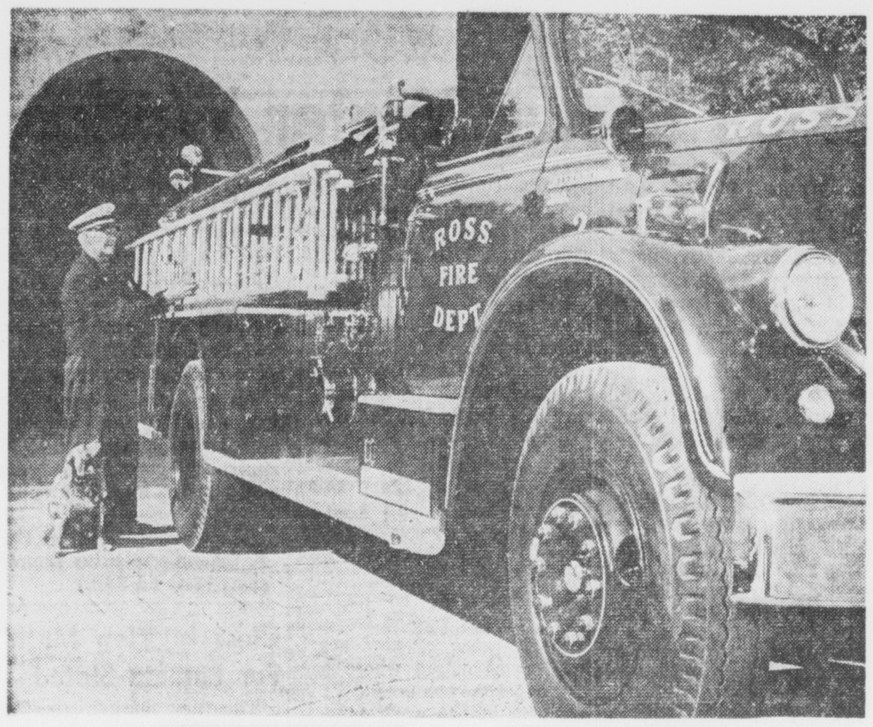
Nixon is plagued by his own right wing extremists—the John Birchers, whose support he has repudiated. Brown is plagued by his own left wing extremists—the California Democratic Council, which often talks about recognizing Red China but whose essential support Mr. Brown dares not repudiate.

All of this makes for a swirling political uncertainty. The principal factors which contribute to this uncertainty are these:

POPULATION — Because Brown won by a million votes in 1958, why shouldn't he win again? At least 2 million new residents have come here in the four years since his first election. The state's population rises by 1,600 every day, about 40,000 Negroes are added every year. This is the most unjelled, shifting, politically unmoored electorate in all the 50 states.

REGISTRATION — Year after year California registers itself three to two Democratic. But it kept Earl Warren and Goodwin Knight in office for 16 years. It chose Democratic Pat Brown over William Knowland, but two years later turned against John F. Kennedy. This state's Congressional delegation is overwhelmingly Democratic. It will be more Democratic next month. But simultaneously the voters will re-elect Republican Sen. Thomas Kuchel. Many California Democrats vote conservative and not a few vote ultra-conservative. Nixon's ultra right opponent in the primary, Joseph Shell who had the active backing of the Birchers, attracted three times as many Democratic write-in votes as did Nixon—60,000 to 20,000.

THE CANDIDATES—Most observers feel that Pat Brown's defeat of Knowland four years ago was primarily a party victory, since Mr. Knowland, standing so preeminently as "Mr. Republican" because of his strong partisanship and his role as majority leader of the U. S. Senate, tended to harden party lines rather than break them. If this means that party consciousness is resurgent in California, it will help Brown, who is more of a party figure than a strong independent personality of the type Californians have usually favored. Yet Nixon has always won a large independent and Democratic vote in his own state; he is a strong political personality, appealing to Californians to "upgrade" the national status of their governor at the very moment when California is about to become the nation's "first state" in population and political power, surpassing New York in the next few weeks.



ROSS'S FINEST . . . AND RAREST

The Town of Ross got a new fire truck last week. It replaced the town's antique but well-kept 1927 model, which will join a collection of classic vehicles, including Bugattis and Rolls-Royces, at the Ross estate of R. D. Ford on Upper Toyon Road. Top, Fire Chief A. T. Henrich and Kelly, the firehouse dog, look at the new $27,000, automatic engine. Below, Thomas Parks, of Parks Auto Electric in San Rafael, sits at the wheel of the old truck, one of 57 specially-built trucks. Henrich says the old truck is a collector's item because it was "never used much." Both trucks are painted Ross's own conservative color: "maroon red on blue." The town has another truck, purchased in 1947. (Independent-Journal photos)

The meeting, delayed from last week, will be in the superintendent's office at Larkspur-Corte Madera school. They will discuss inclusion of Greenbrae School in the recreation commission's program.

Two Under Care; Halted At Span

Two would-be suicides, both San Francisco men, were under psychiatric examination at San Francisco Hospital today as result of detention on the Golden Gate Bridge.

Ronald E. Knapp, 27-year-old order clerk, was stopped by the California Highway Patrol at 10:30 a.m. Saturday while walking 200 yards north of the toll plaza. After first saying he was on his way to Sausalito he burst into tears and revealed a suicide note.

Robert L. Bunting Jr., 19-year-old shoe salesman, was questioned by a toll taker at 6:30 a.m. Sunday. He too at first said he was going to Sausalito, then said he meant to jump from the bridge because of troubles involving money and women.

Art Festival In Mill Valley Draws 6,000

More than 6,000 persons attended the sixth annual Mill Valley fall arts festival during the week end at Old Mill Park, it was announced today by Mrs. Leland Shain and Mrs. Robert O'Connor, co-chairmen. Art work in the amount of $3,500 was sold.

Junior chamber of commerce members estimated that festival goers dunked 800 youngsters in the water tank netting $82 in returns which is to be used toward the promotion of next year's dipsea race.

"Everybody seemed to be pleased that the festival was held in Old Mill Park," said Mrs. Shain. The event had been held previously in the municipal parking lot at Lytton Square.

Two Women Injured In Ignacio Wrecks

Three women suffered minor injuries in two Saturday accidents within four hours in Ignacio.

Simone L. Kurth, Santa Rosa secretary, drove onto Highway 101 just north of Estrada Drive at 5:40 p.m., crossing the southbound lanes and turning into the northbound lanes just ahead of a car driven by Robert E. Rex, Napa welder.

Sheri Lee Robinson, 18-year-old beauty school student of 6 English Court, Novato, driving north not far from this point at 9:15 p.m., said that a car ahead driven by Howard M. Oser, Greenbrae insurance broker, started to turn left into South Novato Boulevard and forced her vehicle into the guard rail.

Twelve feet of rail were torn out and Miss Robinson, as well as her fellow-student Judy Tomaszack of 457 Hickory Lane, Terra Linda, suffered cuts and bruises for which they declined hospitalization.

Mother, Four Children Missing

Haynes told police that his wife took their clothing and some personal effects when she left. She has not been heard from since, he said.

CALIFORNIA CANDIDATES

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The candidates for superintendent of public instruction attacked each other's qualifications for the job and the candidates for governor each claimed victory over the weekend as tempers warmed for the last two full weeks of campaigning before California's Nov. 6 general election.

Dr. Max Rafferty declared that his opponent for state superintendent, Dr. Ralph Richardson, is an associate professor of speech at UCLA and not a professor of English as his campaign literature says.

Richard replied that he is an associate professor of speech (history of American public address) in the Department of English at UCLA.

Rafferty said Richardson's degree from Northwestern University is in speech, not American history.

Richardson answered that his degree was earned for study and research in the history of American political speaking. "It was a joint program of the departments of history and speech. My degree was awarded by the Department of Speech.

Rafferty said Richardson claims a lifetime teaching credential in Kansas but that the Kansas State Department of Public Instruction says it was a three-year elementary and secondary certificate which expired in 1943.

Richardson said his certificate to teach English and mathematics in Kansas was renewable for life after three years of teaching but he never asked to have it renewed "because I went into the field of teaching at the university level, instead."

Richardson added that Rafferty "has never held a position of responsibility in any school district with even as many as 100 teachers, except for a brief period in a job he resigned." Richardson said he himself has been a member of the Los Angeles City Board of Education five and one-half years and its president in 1961-62.

Richard M. Nixon, the Republican candidate for governor, said in San Bernardino he got about 600,000 votes from registered California Democrats in 1960 when he carried the state by 35,000 but failed to win the presidency.

Gov. Brown, Democrat seeking a second term, declared in Palm Springs that Nixon is losing the battle and unable to muster Republican support. Brown predicted his own victory on the basis of what he termed "our continuing lead" in polls, Democratic unity and the fact that some newspapers which supported Nixon for president in 1960 were backing Brown in 1962.

The San Francisco Examiner, which supported Nixon in races for senator, vice president and President, endorsed Brown for re-election on Saturday. The paper today endorsed San Francisco Mayor George Christopher, a Republican, for lieutenant governor.

The Los Angeles Times on Saturday endorsed Nixon as a man of "strong and unwavering leadership, of dynamic leadership."

VISIT TO RUSSIA

Seeger Tells Of Seeing Water Works

(Editor's note: This is the first of a series of interviews with Marinites who visited the USSR with the Marin Executive Delegation.)

By RANDALL GOULD

When Marin County was torn with fierce dissension over flouridation of water, one of the crushing and eventually winning arguments of the anti-flouride forces was that Russian water is flouridated to dull the willpower of the masses.

Now it turns out that 'tain't true.

Such is the testimony of general manager William R. Seeger of the Marin Municipal Water District as result of his recent participation in a 22-man Marin Executive Delegation to the USSR.

"They treat their water as we do, with alum and chlorine—but there's no flouridation," said Seeger.

Scientific processes for water treatment are of the most modern and "practically identical with what we're using here," Seeger said of his observations of the great water treatment plant in Moscow.

But the plant itself is most old-fashioned, said Seeger, and maintenance is non-existent.

All members of the party were allowed to investigate work in their own specialties. In Seeger's case this led him in Moscow first to a meeting with the chief planning engineer for this city of five million population. Seeger spent a whole morning with him and his aides.

Arrangements had been made for an afternoon meeting with the chief engineer of the municipal water department who took Seeger to the water treatment plant.

Here the scientific processes were found of top grade but an old-appearing brick building, actually constructed in 1951 but comparing structurally in Seeger's mind with the Alpine weir house built around 1914, was surrounded by weeds.

Seeger was also reminded of the old Sutro Baths in San Francisco.

This situation struck Seeger as characteristic of a country where scientific training of top people was clearly at high level, but "labor is another matter." Many of the workers are ex-farmers, with a great many women, Seeger observed, and skills are not of the best grade.

In Leningrad, no meeting was arranged but he traveled through areas of new apartment construction where precast concrete was used with 70 per cent of the work done in the shop and only 30 per cent on the job.

Again he found workmanship not up to American standards, although the processes were comparable to some jobs in this country.

Seeger met the head of Hungary's research laboratory in Budapest and in visiting the laboratory found "practically a duplicate of the army engineers installation at Sausalito." He concluded that the scientists were "doing a real fine job in working on problems of the Danube River."

Seeger said these problems included silting and flooding, and that work is also being done on dam construction.

He was also shown an ably run chemical test laboratory and the whole setup gave him study he considered worthwhile during most of a day.

Indictments To Be Sought In Burglary-Fence Ring

Indictments will be sought tonight against three members of an alleged burglary-fense ring linked to the New Year's Eve burglary of the San Rafael home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Hickinbotham, and a former San Rafael resident charged with armed robbery of a San Francisco catering service.

Chief Deputy Dist. Atty. Fran Mayer of San Francisco said he would ask the San Francisco Grand Jury to return rereiving stolen goods indictments againt Murray Kaplan, 49, former San Francisco furrier, and Clifton Powers, 43, operator of a beauty salon. Charges against Power's wife, Gina, 38, "have been drop ped at this time," Mayer said.

A burglary indictment will be sought against Lloyd A. Picini, 27, third member of the alleged San Francisco ring. Richard Rolley, 26, formerly of 81 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, believed by police to be involved with the ring's operations, will be charged with the Oct. 12 holdup of a Clement Street catering service.

San Rafael police today awaited a complete list from San Francisco police of jewelry and furs identified from the ring's loot as coming from the $92,955 burglary of the Hickingbotham residence at 1408 Mission Avenue.

Exclusive! Stanford To Give Coach Curtice The Axe

Exclusive to the I-J: Stanford University's sorry showing against the University of Washington last Saturday is the beginning of the end for Coach "Cactus Jack" Curtice of the Redskins.

Since Stanford has made the decision to stay in big-time football, recruiting has produced the material but the feeling is that Curtice has failed to produce a winner and the axe is being sharpened. It is a good bet that the next coach on the Farm will be a disciplinarian who will end the "country club" atmosphere and start the Cards on the road back to prominence.

TO ALL intents and purposes, the "race" for the championship of the Western Conference of the NFL came to a close yesterday afternoon. Couple the 31 to 13 win of the undefeated Green Bay Packers over the San Francisco 49ers with the defeat of the Detroit Lions, and the Packers are home free with the season not yet half over.

For about 20 minutes it seemed that the Packers would get the ball only after 49er scores. And you don't win games without some element of ball control. The Niners were really moving the big defensive linemen with quick openers that sprang J. D. Smith and Bill Kilmer into the secondary.

SIDELINES

By ED RANDOL

The bubble burst when fullback Jim Taylor shifted into high gear and quarterback Bart Starr began calling his shots. In a matter of seconds the 49er lead faded and disappeared, and you knew the game was over as far as Coach Red Hickey and his men had anything to say about it.

Somehow, there is a kind of morbid fascination in watching the precision and efficiency of the great offensive and defensive teams under Coach Vince Lombardi. The play goes where it is called, and the ball carrier goes until he is dragged down or crosses the last line.

After the two 49er field goals, the Packers really took charge, and by the end of the game it was obvious that the thing the 49ers wanted most was the final gun.

And all of this without the services of Mr. Football himself, Paul Hornung. The Green Bay ace didn't even suit up for the game, and the way Tom Moore filled in for him, he can take all the time he wishes to get his knee back in shape for future games.

Don't get the idea that the 49ers quit. Far from it. In fact, against odds such as these, I would say the locals played one of their better games. But you can stick your fingers into the buzz saw just so many times and it's look, Maw, no hands. Bill Kilmer's injury in the first half didn't help, but his presence would not have changed the outcome of the game.

The brightest spot in the contest was Abe Woodson's punt return for the only 49er touchdown. Other than that, it was all Jim Taylor, who is simply the greatest these eyes have seen in modern pro football.

Penske Wins Grand Prix

By DICK BARNES

MONTEREY (AP) — Roger Penske has won $18,000 in eight days with a sports car that was a wrecked heap when he traded for it less than a year ago.

The 25-year-old Gladwyne, Pa., sales engineer won his second straight major event when he captured yesterday's $20,000 Pacific Grand Prix despite winning neither of its 100-mile heats.

But Penske was second in each race over the nine-turn Laguna Seca course and carted home the top money when Dan Gurney dropped from the second heat and Lloyd Ruby had turn trouble in the first.

Penske won $13,000 a week ago at the Riverside Grand Prix with his Zerex-Duralite-Climax car. Yesterday he picked up the $3,000 over-all prize plus $1,000 each for his heat finishes.

He traded a bucketful of Maserati parts for the car's chassis early this year after Bruce McLaren of New Zealand had wrecked the racer. The rebuilt version had not been driven until last week.

CAREFUL DRIVE

"With that trouble, I knew I couldn't stay with Dan or Lloyd," said the dark-haired Penske today. "So I drove carefully and didn't let any part of the course bother me."

A crowd of more than 70,000 saw Gurney pilot his Lotus Mark 19 Climax to a 2-second victory in the first heat. He led by about 10 seconds most of the way until easing off in the final 1.9-mile lap.

Gurney, from Cost Mesa, Calif. took the lead early in the second heat and held it for half the race until Ruby, in a nearly identical car, sneaked past him on a downhill turn. Gurney hung onto second for another 10 minutes, then went to the pits to stay with a faulty ring gear and pinion.

Had he held second in the final heat, he would have bene over-all winner.

Ruby averaged 91 miles per hour in his winning heat, 2 faster than Gurney in the first heat. Ruby's elapsed time was 1 hour, 6 minutes, 15 seconds to 1:07:45 for Gurney.

UNRESTRAINED—Green Bay Packer fullback Jim Taylor (31), avoided the grasp of Clark Miller (74), and ten other San Francisco 49ers as he flew to his second touchdown yesterday. Taylor travelled 25 yards for this score in the third period. The Packers won 31-13. (AP Wirephoto)

Red Knows How To Beat Packers, But...

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Coach Red Hickey of the San Francisco 49ers thinks he's discovered a way to beat the Green Bay Packers.

The only trouble is, he still doesn't know how to keep his strategy going for a full game. He's open to suggestions.

"They're just too explosive," Hickey said after the Packers had rolled to their sixth consecutive National Football League win at the expense of his team yesterday. The score was 31-13.

The 49ers started off yesterday as if they were going to run the Packers off the field. Hickey's ball control strategy was such a success that for nearly half a game Bart Starr, Jim Taylor & Co. didn't get a speck of dirt on their bright green uniforms.

Until there were just four minutes to play, the Green Bay offense was in for just six plays. The Packers had the ball on just three other plays, when Willie Wood kicked off to start the game and on two booming punts by Boyd Dowler, one of which went 75 yards.

Things were getting pretty monotonous, with J. D. Smith carrying the ball on almost every play and the 49ers moving deep before settling for two field goals. Smith, the workhorse of the San Francisco backfield, carried 21 times for 101 yards in the first half.

MR. DO-IT-ALL

Then along came Willie Wood, the Green Bay defensive unit's answer to the offense's Mr. Do-It-All, Paul Hornung.

With a little less than four minutes to go, Wood picked off one of John Brodie's passes on the Packer nine and returned it to the 24. A roughing penalty put the ball on the 39 and the end was near for San Francisco.

"That did it," Hickey said. "When Wood intercepted that pass and then the Packers moved right down to score we just let down." Jerry Kramer's field goal made it 10-6 at halftime, and 49er fans got a brief glimpse at the glory that wasn't to be when Abe Woodson returned Dowler's 62-yard punt for the touchdown, 85 yards away.

Jim Taylor ,who picked up 160-yards—130 of them in the second half, and Tom Moore, subbing for the injured Hornung, took over from there. Moore gained 60 of his 84 yards in the final 30 minutes.

Two minutes after Woodson's score, Taylor went over from 17 yards away and three minutes later Taylor went over from the 25 for another touchdown. A fourth period scoring pass from Bart Starr to Ron Kramer was just icing on the cake.

How did Coach Vince Lombardi feel about beating the team that was the last to beat the Packers, 14 games ago?

"We looked pretty good, but I was just as happy to see New York beat Detroit," he said. "We were missing a lot of tackles. We'll have to work on that."

Mauch Edges Dark As Manager Of '62

NEW YORK (AP) — "I don't want to be just another big league manager," Gene Mauch said after he was named to handle the Philadelphia Phils at the outset of the 1960 season. "I want to be the best in the business."

Mauch's ambition was realized today when he was selected National League Manager-of-the-year for 1962 in the annual Associated Press poll. The 36-year-old skipper drew 33 votes in the balloting of members of the Baseball Writers Assn.

The voting was extremely close with Alvin Dark of the pennant-winning San Francisco Giants being named on 31 ballots and Walter Alston of the runnerup Los Angeles Dodgers ranking third with 27 votes.

There were 108 ballots cast. The voting was based on regular season performances of the teams.

The Phils were the hottest club in the last month of the 1962 season, winning 19 of their last 26 games. They wound up in seventh place, only 2½ games behind the sixth-place St. Louis Cardinals. Philadelphia won 81 and lost 80 and played better than .500 ball after the first All-Star break.

The Phils finished eighth and last in Mauch's first two seasons. In 1961, the team lost a record 23 straight games and a total of 107. Even with the 10-team expansion, Philadelphia didn't figure to finish higher than eighth in 1962.

Mauch began in pro ball in 1943 and was an infielder with six major league teams. He was a playing manager with Atlanta of the Southern Assn. in 1953 and also guided Minneapolis of the American Assn. in 1958 and 1959.

Freddie Hutchinson of Cincinnati, N.L. manager-of-the-year in 1961, was fourth in the balloting with 13 votes.

Other managers receiving votes were Casey Stengel of the 10th-place New York Mets (2), and Harry Craft of the eighth-place Houston Colts and Danny Murtaugh of the fourth-place Pittsburgh Pirates (1) each.

Tiger Is Favored

By JACK STEVENSON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —British Empire middleweight champion Dick Tiger of Nigeria continues the favorite to lift the World Boxing Assn. crown from Gene Fullmer tomorrow night.

Odds have fluctuated between 7-5 and 9-5 and should Tiger live up to them, he could put the British Boxing Board in a difficult position.

Should Tiger wrest the WBA version of the title from Fullmer, would he be recognized in Britain as the world champion or would that recognition just come in the Americas and the Orient?"

"I think I can beat him," the challenger from Nigeria maintained today. "I'm at my peak right now."

SPLIT RANKS

The split in the middleweight title ranks goes back three years when the National Boxing Assn., now the WBA, lifted Sugar Ray Robinson's title recognition for failure to defend his crown in the stipulated time. New York, Massachusetts and Europe refused to go along so Pender became their world champ when he beat Robinson.

Fullmer won his title in San Francisco by stopping Carmen Basilio in the 14th round in August 1959 in their elimination bout for the NBA crown.

Tiger's manager Jersey Jones of New York, says he'll ask both New York and the British board to recognize the Nigerian as world champion if he defeats Fullmer.

"Pender hasn't fought in the six months limit and Jose Torres, whom he boxes next month, isn't rated as a challenger," Jones maintains.

The 15-round bout at Candlestick Park is slated to start at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow night with theater television in 53 locations across the nation.

Warriors Open Season Tomorrow

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco Warriors are back in town today to prepare for their Tuesday night National Basketball Assn. opener against the Detroit Pistons.

Pole vault record holder Dave Tork is a West Virginia graduate and the son of a professor on the university's physical education staff.

Koufax Heads Radio Station

The baseball star is president of the Thousand Oaks Broadcasting Co., which plans to begin operating a radio station in this Southern California community early in January.

Koufax also will be the station's program director.

Raiders Try Shotgun In Narrow Loss

OAKLAND (AP) — New Oakland Raiders head coach Red Conkright didn't hestitate to experiment in his debut Saturday night, but the best he could do was watch Oakland lose by its smallest margin of the year.

Raider fans undoubtedly will match with interest next Friday night when Oakland visits Boston to see if Conkright again uses his version of the San Francisco 49ers shotgun offense, which he came up with at Buffalo.

The Raiders outgained the Bills in yardage, 290 to 264, and the Conkright shotgun was in use when Oakland got its only score on the rain-pelted field in the third quarter.

Halfback Bo Roberson climaxed a 99-yard drive by dodging 14 yards for the touchdown. Oakland was penalized 107 yards in the game.

Longden Wins Again

ALBANY (AP) — Johnny Longden won the $21,590 Golden Gate Handicap at Golden Gate Fields for the fourth consecutive time by riding Mandate ($7.80) to a 3½ length triumph Saturday.

WEEKEND FIGHTS

NEW YORK — Doug Jones, 182, New York, stopped Bob Foster, 174, Washington, 8.

BELFAST, North Ireland—Fred Gilroy, Ireland, stopped John Caldwell, England, 9 (bantamweights).

New Basketball Coach At HAFB

Second Lt. Robert G. Morrell, a 1962 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, has been named new head coach of the Hamilton Air Force Base Defenders basketball team.

Morrell will replace 2nd Lt. Gene Hastings who separated from the Air Force this year to work with his father in Oregon. After he was graduated, Morrell was selected as part of the 12 per cent of his class for Air Force duty.

Novato Defense Crushes Marin Catholic, 32 to 13

By JIM GILMARTIN

One day last week Coach Marlin Olsen of Novato High School's football team told reporters, "I'll rate my defensive unit as one of the best in the league."

Saturday afternoon Olsen sent his gridders out against Marin Catholic's Wildcats and proved his point conclusively as his gang-tackling Hornets swamped the Wildcats 32-13.

Don't let those 13 Marin Catholic points fool you. They weren't scored against Novato's defense. A blocked punt and an intercepted pass accounted for Marin's points. Or as Olsen told rival coach Doug Damaschino after Saturday's sun-drenched game before 1,732 fans at Novato: "Our offense scored all 45 points up on that scoreboard."

The Hornets' defense was so magnificent that Marin gained a net total of 49 yards and only one (1) first down, which must be a Marin Athletic record for fewest first downs by a Catholic team on a Saturday, Oct. 20.

FOUR STANDOUTS

In praising his entire defensive unit, Olsen had fondest words for four lads in particular — Jim Dennett, Bill Leach, Bill Moore and Wayne Russell, all linemen.

Marin Catholic scored the first touchdown and the last touchdown but, in between, the Hornets flexed their offensive muscles to score three touchdowns on long passes and two more on the ground, one of which was set up by another long aerial.

Marin made the fatal mistake of using a two-deep defense against Novato's wing-T attack and the Hornet signal callers took full advantage of this sieve.

NOVATO BOMBS

The Novato "bombs" were a 42-yard pass from Tom Miller to Tom Reilly (a Tommy-gun?), and aerials of 46 and 35 yards from quarterback Roy Otis to Dave Ralph and Kris Kristofors, respectively, all of which scored. The other TDs were on a five-yard run by Rick Thomas, after a 42-yard pass from Otis to Kristofors set it up, and a sparkling 39-yard scoot by little George Schurba.

The fact that Novato won by such a comfortable margin is amazing when you consider that Novato lost the ball four times in the first half on two fumbles and two blocked punts.

The first blocked punt in the first period sent Marin Catholic off to a 7-0 lead. A fast-charging line blocked John Miller's attempted boot and Marin's Dan Crowley scooped it up on the Novato 10 and raced into the end zone untouched by human hands. Chuck Hardeman plunged over for the extra point to make it 7-0, Marin.

THOMAS SCORES

Then Novato got moving. Taking the kickoff, the Hornets scored in four plays as John Miller moved seven yards, Otis passed the big 42 to Kristofors, Miller ripped off eight more to the five and Rick Thomas ran the remaining five to scoresville. Al Blos' kick for the extra point failed and Novato still trailed 6-7 at the end of the first period.

After about five minutes into the second period Novato took the lead for keeps after stopping Marin on the Novato 28. A nice 23-yard run by John Miller moved Novato to Marin's 47; Rick Thomas gained five more to the 42 and then Otis passed to Reilly for the 42-yard TD pitch. Reilly was 15 yards behind the Wildcat defense when he caught it and Novato had a 12-7 edge at halftime as Blos again failed with his placement.

Novato broke the game wide open in the third period with Otis pitching strikes. The first one was for 46 yards to Dave Ralph and the second one to Kristofors for 35 yards making it 25-7 in the period as Blos kicked the extra point after the latter TD.

SCHURBA's RUN

Just trying to prove that all TDs aren't made through the air, little Schurba put on a nifty run in the fourth period to cap Novato's scoring. After a 15-yard penalty advanced the Hornets to Marin's 39, Schurba took a handoff to the right side, appeared trapped, broke free, reversed field to his left and dashed into the end zone. Blos' toe added the 32nd candle to Novato's victory cake.

Marin had one last breath of air and Wally Lourdeaux breathed it. Novato sub quarterback Ken Marder threw a pass and Lourdeaux pilfered it on his own 48, running the remaining 52 yards to the game's final TD.

Next on the agenda for the teams: Novato at Terra Linda at 1:30 and Marin vs. Drake at Kentfield at 8 p.m., both Saturday.

T.L. Leads Marin Pop Warner Race

Yesterday in other Marin Pop Warner football action, the San Rafael Junior Bulldogs smashed the San Anselmo Junior Pirates 26-7 and the Novato Junior Hornets handed the Redwood Giants their third straight defeat by outscoring them 21-13.

Scoring touchdowns for the Trojans in their victory were Pat Carney who scored twice on long runs, Peter Weekly on a pass interception, and Jim McInnus on a pass from Steve Congdon.

In the San Rafael victory, TDs were scored by Bill Meredith who scored three on a pair of long runs and a pass interception and Ken Waxman who scored on a drive over center.

Because of the rained out games Oct. 13, the Pop Warner All-Star game has been put back to Nov. 17.

Doctor Wins In Del Rio Tourney

Undegraff shot a 70 yesterday to bring his score to 142 in the two-day, 36-hole competition. He also won the tourney three years ago.

John Lotz, of Hayward, took second place with a 74-70—144. Frank Tatum of San Francisco was third with 72-73—145.

Davenport Third In Golf Tourney

PALM SPRINGS (UPI) — Los Angeles Angels outfielder Albie Pearson yesterday won the second annual Baseball Celebrity Golf Tournament with a 72-hole total of 307.

He finished two strokes ahead of Houston Colts catcher Jim Campbell. Third was San Francisco Giants infielder Jim Davenport with a 311, and fourth was the Dodgers' Lee Walls at 314.

LIONS ARE BEATEN

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

National Football League quarterbacks filled the air with touchdown bombs Sunday but the most disruptive damage of the day was done by the New York Giants with an old-fashioned weapon called defense.

Little Eddie LeBaron of the Dallas Cowboys threw five touchdown passes, and Billy Wade of the Chicago Bears, Fran Tarkenton of the Minnesota Vikings and Jim Ninowski of the Cleveland Browns each passed for three scores in leading the teams to victory.

The Giants won the hard way, upsetting the Detroit Lions, 17-14, with an "attack" that included blocked kicks, intercepted passes, a recovered fumble and any number of bone-jarring tackles.

As a result, the Giants are still on the heels of the Eastern-Division-leading Washington Redskins, who remained undefeated with a 27-20 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles, while the Western Division Lions dropped two games behind the champion Green Bay Packers, who made it six straight wins by trouncing the San Francisco 49ers, 31-13.

BIG UPSET

LeBaron's five touchdown passes enabled the Cowboys to upset the Pittsburgh Steelers, 42-27; Wade's aerials led the Bears to a 35-15 victory over the Baltimore Colts; Tarkenton's flips helped the Vikings win their first game of the season, 38-14, over the Los Angeles Rams, and Ninowski's TD tosses stopped the Browns' skid as they drubbed the St. Louis Cardinals, 34-7.

Among the many heroes of the Giants defense were: linebacker Sam Huff, who blocked a punt by Detroit's Yale Lary; rookie Reed Bohovich, who recovered the ball; Dick Lynch, who intercepted a Milt Plum pass, and Erich Barnes, who touched off the third-period uprising by becoming infuriated when an official called a pass interference penalty against him.

The Giants trailed 14-7 when the interference call went against them. Three plays later Huff blocked Lary's punt and Bohovich recovered on the Detroit 36. Phil King ran 31 yards with a screen pass from Y. A. Tittle and then plunged over from the one for the tying touchdown.

INTERCEPTED PASS

Lynch interecepted Plum's pass on the next series of downs and ran it back to the Detroit 33. A 23-yard Tittle-to-Alex Webster pass brought the ball within range for a game-winning 9-yard field goal by Don Chandler.

Twice after that the Giants' defense saved them. When Jim Gibbons caught a pass and raced goal-ward, Lynch tackled him hard enough to induce a fumble on the New York 15 and Jimmy Patton recovered.

The Lions threatened for the final time in the fourth period when Plum's pass to Gail Cogdill brought them to the Giants 30 with two minutes left to play. Again the rugged Giants defenders shoved the Lions back 16 yards in three plays and Lynch blocked a 53-yard field goal try by Wayne Walker. A crowd of 62,856 attended.

Norm Snead also got into the touchdown-tossing act with a pair to Bobby Mitchell in the Redskins' win before 60,671 at Philadelphia. Snead's passes gained 279 yards, eight falling into Mitchell's hands. Washington's margin of victory was a pair of 28 and 9 yard field goals by Bob Khayat in the middle periods. Sonny Jurgensen passed for all three Eagles scores, two of them to Hopalong Cassady.

DIDN'T MISS HORNUNG

The Packers played without Paul Hornung, but it seemed they hardly missed him. Green Bay struggled for nearly one half with the 49ers before Jim Taylor and Tom Moore (Hornung's replacement) broke the game open with their rushing. Taylor gained 160 ground yards, scoring on runs of 17 and 25 yards; Moore gained 84. San Francisco gained an early lead on field goals of 31 and 13 yards by Tommy Davis.

Three of LeBaron's passes were caught by Frank Clarke in the Cowboys' upset win over Pittsburgh. LeBaron's fifth scoring throw went 36 yards to Lee Folkins from a fake field goal kicking formation. Bobby Layne threw two Pittsburgh TD passes to Buddy Dial.

The Bears moved into a second-place tie with Detroit in the Eastern Division by scoring 21 point in the final period against the Colts. Joe Marconi ran for two of these scores and Wade passed 33 yards to Johnny Morris for the third. Wade earlier had completed scoring passes of 12 yards to Rick Casares and 69 yards to Mike Ditka. A safety and Johnny Unitas' 80-yard touchdown pass to Jimmy Orr had put Baltimore ahead, 15-14, after three periods.

L.A. FANS BOO

Tarkenton's passes helped Minnesota gain a 31-0 halftime lead and led the Los Angeles fans to boo the home team lustily. The defeat was the sixth without a win for the Rams. Doug Mayberry caught one of Tarkenton's scoring passes and ran 5 yards for another TD. Charle Ferguson and Tommy Mason caught the two other touchdown throws.

Ninowski's passes gained 339 yards for Cleveland against the Cardinals. He gained 227 yards through the air as the Browns took a 20-0 lead at halftime. They scored on six of the 11 times they gained possession of the ball. Lou Groza started the Cleveland scoring with 12 and 27 yard field goals.

College Of Marin Tars Defeat Sierra Gridders 14-6

Mariners Keep 4-Game Victory Streak Alive

The rampaging College of Marin gridders won their opening Golden Valley Conference game Saturday night in Auburn when they whipped Sierra College 14-6.

Saturday's victory gave the Tars a 4-0 record so far this season, with three practice game wins under their belts.

College of Marin was the first to score late in the opening quarter when Scott Moriarty took a pitchout from quarterback Curtis Embry and swung around right end for eight yards and a touchdown.

The Tars added two extra points on a pass from Embry to Moriarty making the scoreboard read 8-0.

Later in the first quarter Sierra came back with a touchdown but failed in the extra point attempt to leave the home team trailing by two points.

And what a touchdown it was! Defensive back Ray Edwards plucked a Sierra pass out of the air on his own 22-yard line and rambled 78 yards for a touchdown. Key blocks were thrown by Randy Petrini, Ron Cole and Bob Ruznick. The interception was one of three by the Tars, Bill Buffalow and Jim Lucas each getting one also.

Head coach Dick Read called the Tar showing the "best defensive effort ever." The game was a real rock and sock affair with most of the play in the middle of the field. Marin and Sierra took turns trying to penetrate each other's 20-yard stripe, but both defensive teams dug in.

Read couldn't single out any member of the defensive team were ends Petrini and Buffalow, tackles Lyle Baucom and Frank Gellardo, guards Dale Thompson and Don Ippoito, linebackers Don Burrows and Ruznick and deep backs Lucas, Edwards and Cole.

"I was really proud of these kids," Read beamed.

Moyer Is Jr. Middleweight Champion

He won the crown Saturday night with a unanimous 15-round decision over veteran Joey Giambra of Los Angeles in a fast-paced bout. Moyer weighed 154¾, Giambra 154.

The gate was reported at $9,500—not enough to cover the $6,000 guarantee to Giambra and the $4,000 to Moyer.

Tam Blanks Terra Linda

By RALPH CHATOIAN

The Tamalpais High Indians' smoke signals today are coming out circles representing the number of points scored against them so far in the Marin Athletic League grid season.

The Tam Indian gridders captured their second shutout victory of the young MCAL season Saturday night when they scalped the Terra Linda Trojans 20-0 in College of Marin stadium before 3,000 fans.

Tam, which now boasts a 2-0 league record, held Marin Catholic High School scoreless in the season opener, knocking off the Wildcats 19-0.

The Tam defenders, led by defensive captain Bill McIntyre, never allowed Terra Linda to threaten. The nearest Terra Linda could get to pay dirt was the Injun 33-yard line. The Trojans managed to cross the midfield stripe on only three occasions, twice in the second quarter—to the 33 and the 39—and once in the third stanza when they got as far as the 39 again.

STRONG DEFENSE

Displaying a strong defensive front wall, Tam held Terra Linda to 24 net yards rushing while the fleet Indian backs, led by halfback Warren Domino, Tracy Oldham, Bill Gillingham and Don Johnston racked up 242 yards on the ground.

The first Tam touchdown came late in the first quarter on an 11-play drive which saw the Indians march 44 yards. Culminating the drive was quarterback Cedric Collett who plunged into the end zone from the three-yard line.

Terra Linda earlier in the opening quarter stopped Tamalpais on the Trojan 11-yard line after Collett failed to complete a fourth down pass. When the Indians next took over on offense on the Terra Linda 44 and started their drive, it looked like Terra Linda would stop them again as another fourth down pass fell incomplete. But a 15-yard penalty against the Trojans gave the Indians a first down and paved the way for the touchdown march.

JOHNSTON SCORES

Tam's next touchdown came late in the second quarter as the strong Indian ground gainers moved the ball 55 yards on seven plays, with the aid of a 15-yard penalty against the Trojans. Halfback Johnston, recovered from an early season injury, capped the march by crashing through right guard for 10 yards and a touchdown.

Johnston picked up the extra point on a power play. The 13-0 Tam bulge at halftime remained until the final play of the game when the Indians scored their third TD as the final gun sounded.

It was Gillingham's turn for six points as he scampered around left end for 20 yards and a touchdown. As he banged into the end zone, the final gun sounded. But rules call for a chance at the extra point, which Tam picked up on a crash through right tackle by Oldham.

DAVLIN PRAISED

He lauded praise to veteran assistant coach Mike Davlin who is in charge of the defense for the Indians. "Mike has done a tremendous job with our defense," Belden declared.

Also praised was the offensive play of Johnston who racked up 50 yards in six carries for an 8.3 average. Johnston, because of his early injury, has been used only on defense, but he had a real big night in his first chance at offense for some time.

Domino (75 yards), Gillingham (56) and Oldham (48) were the other big ground gainers for Tam.

Frick Planning U.S.-Japanese Baseball Exchange

TOKYO (AP) — U.S. baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick said today he will meet with Japanese officials to work out regulations under which American players can contract to play in Japan—and Japanese to play in the United States if circumstances permit.

Frick, who is visiting Japan with the Detroit Tigers on their Asian goodwill exhibition tour, said a meeting with his Japanese counterpart was being set up for later this week.

"Before I leave we hope to agree on a definite set of rules under which American players can come to Japan," he said.

Speaking at a luncheon at the Tokyo Foreign Correspondents' Club, Frick made the disclosure in response to a question on contract conflicts that have at times arisen in the past.

Builders Even League Record With 5-1 Win

The Billings-Hutchison Builders evened their record in the Alameda Winter League at 2-2 yesterday with a 5-1 decision over Fitzpatrick Chevrolet in a semi-pro bsaeball game.

Hurler Jerry Walters allowed two hits and an unearned run in the first inning and then pitched hitless ball the remainder of the game.

The Builders collected four hits, one each by Don Lauters, Ron Blum, Dick Spackman and Larry Smoot. The defensive play of the Builders was good as they made three double plays.

Frightening Asthma Attacks End In Minutes As New Formula Unblocks Lung Passages Fast

New Medical Formula Restores Free Breathing Without Vaccines, Shots Or Narcotics. Calms Anxiety. No Prescription Needed.

New York, N.Y. (Special)—A team of scientists has announced a new formula that stops frightening asthma attacks in minutes and unblocks lung passages fast.

Medical tests prove this formula promptly restores free breathing, so calms anxiety and relieves the worst symptoms of asthma—the straining for breath, the gasping, the wheezing, the terrible fear of suffocation. All without vaccines, painful shots or habit-forming drugs. This formula is so safe when used as directed, it can be sold without prescription in tiny tablets called BRONITIN®.

Doctors know that when asthma strikes, breathing tubes become swollen, lung passages become blocked, so air is "trapped" inside lungs and less and less oxygen can enter. Now BRONITIN, with two asthma relieving medicines that doctors prescribe for their patients, acts quickly to open bronchial tubes and loosen the mucus that blocks lung passages. Trapped air is released and new vital oxygen enters the lungs.

The result is: free breathing is restored, tension eased and so fears are calmed in minutes. Sufferers can now look forward to restful sleep.

Get BRONITIN—available at all drug stores without prescription.

COLLEGE GRID

Injuns, Cal Take Lumps

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

A good bet is that UCLA will be in the "thick" of the Big Six's Rose Bowl race next Sunday after taking on "fat" Stanford.

To begin with, the UCLA-Stanford game is the only conference battle of the week and the alert Bruins figure to be too tough for the beefy Indians.

An expected victory would give UCLA a 1-0 mark in the Big Six and move the Bruins Sinto a first place tie with Southern California, Washington, and Washington State. Those three teams sport the same mark but play outside games next weekend.

Southern Cal and Washington both opened their Big Six action last Saturday with routine wins over the Bay Area's feeble duo of California and Stanford. While the Trojans were bouncing California, 32-6, the Huskies were blanking Stanford, 14-0.

Hal Bedsole, a former quarterback who now plays end, scored on two passes to spark the Trojans to their win over Cal which now has lost four out of five. All told, Bedsole snagged six tosses from Bill Nelsen and Pete Beathard for 201 yards.

TOUCHDOWN MARCHES

Washington marched 61 and 83 yards for touchdowns in the first half then held off Stanford three times by killing off drives on the Huskies' one, four and 22-yard lines. Nat Whitmeyer went 10 yards on a pitchout for the first Washington score and Pete Ohler passed 28 yards to Jim Stiger who tallied the other.

UCLA lost a weirdie to the Pitt Panthers, 8-6. A six yard run by Paul Martha gave Pittsburgh a 6-0 lead in the third period. The Panthers added two points when Jim Traficant passed to Rick Leeson. The latter had been back to attempt a one-point place kick but a bad pass from center paid off after some frantic improvising.

PAT STOPPED

The Bruins marched back 81 yards for a touchdown with Kermit Alexander going over from the one after grabbing a fumble in his backfield. Then Larry Zeno vainly passed to Alexander for two more points. Alexander caught the ball but couldn't get past the goal line.

Washington State made history by defeating a Big 10 team for the first time. The victim was Indiana, which succumbed 21-15, after going into the last period with a 7-0 lead. The Cougars exploded for three touchdowns with the clincher coming on a 50-yard pass from Dave Mathieson to Hugh Campbell.

Terrific Terry Baker made hash of the University of the Pacific's pass defense by connecting for four scoring aerials to lead Oregon State to a 40-6 romp. Baker rolled up 186 yards all told. Three of his touchdown passes went to Vern Burke. The Beavers were in the van, 26-0, before UOP scored.

Tied 14-14 at the half, Oregon broke loose to ground the Air Force, 35-20. A touchdown pass by Bob Berry accounted for the Ducks' go-ahead tally in the third period and they came up with the clincher a few minutes later on Dave Hill's 49 yard run around end.

Arizona State handed groggy San Jose State its fifth loss in as many games, 44-8, behind the sharp passing of quarterback John Jacobs who hit for three touchdowns. Jacobs, who had learned of his father's death the day before, netted 186 yards gained.

Eddie Erdelatz To Speak Tomorrow

Eddie Erdelatz, one of the nation's most well known football personalities, will be the principal speaker at the "Dads and Sons Night" meeting of the St. Raphael's Dads Club tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

The meeting is scheduled in the school gymnasium. Erdelatz, now a resident of San Rafael, will speak of his coaching experiences, and will illustrate his talk with a movie of game highlights.

Refreshments will be served.

MURAL WITH TEETH IN IT

Boris Borzy explains unusual mural he created for the new offices of Shortridge-Young Dental Laboratory at 496 B Street, San Rafael. All the ingredients in the mural are castoff material from dental laboratory work. Tree trunk is of worn out grinding stones, leaves of dental plates. Dark round flowers shooting up from the ground are worn-out brush wheels. The dental laboratory, operated by Robert Shortridge and Wallace Young, just moved to its new B Street site from the Albert Building, where is operated for the past 12 years. Schweppes Bitter Lemon Arrives Despite London-Like Heavy Fog

Fog spoiled the plans of Commander Edward Whitehead to visit Bay Area cities by helicopter today, but the bearded president and product symbol of Schweppes (U.S.A.) Limited kept his San Rafael appointment anyway.

Commander Whitehead, who has become better known than his company's quinine water to the American television viewing public, arrived a bit late at McCarthy's Loch Lomond Marina, where his helicopter had been scheduled to land at 9:15 a.m.

The purpose of the tour was to introduce "Bitter Lemon," a new soft drink and mixer by Schweppes.

The commander was the perfect traveling host. As Whitehead alighted from a gray Jaguar saloon, the chauffeur produced from the luggage boot a set of three-legged folding chairs, some glasses and a large portable cooler of the new bottled drink.

Commander Whitehead poured, and the small group sat in the fogbound marina parking lot, chatting and sipping Bitter Lemon.

The fog, said the commander, was reminiscent of his native England "but much cleaner."

He said he enjoyed the Bay Area and Marin County, and recalled a previous visit during which he hiked up Mount Tamalpais and at Stinson Beach.

Among those who greeted Commander Whitehead was Arthur Sears, San Rafael distributor for Schweppes. Missing were some retailers who took one look at the fog and stayed home, assuming the whole thing would be cancelled.

SAY WHEN — Commander Edward Whitehead (right), widely known to the American television audience as the star of the Schweppes tonic commercials, pours a drink of his company's new lemon mixer for Arthur Sears, San Rafael distributor for Schweppes. Fog prevented arrival of a helicopter which was supposed to take the commander on a tour of Bay Area cities today. (Independent-Joural photo)

Slaying Suspect In Good Condition

John G. Trischan, charged with last Tuesday's slaying of Kentfield attorney Albert H. Gommo Jr., was in "good" condition today at San Francisco General Hospital.

Hospital officials said the 50-year-old San Francisco electrician "could possibly be released this week" to appear before the San Francisco Grand Jury which will be asked Monday to return a murder indictment.

Trischan accused Gommo of having an affair with his estranged wife, Louise, before shooting the attorney in his office and then turning the gun on himself according to San Francisco police. Gommo died Thursday of his wounds.

Suspect In Cannery Money Theft Arrested

Edmund James Whalen, 55, suspected of walking off with $2,600 belonging to the Sebastopol cannery where he worked, was arrested in Hawthorne, Nev., Saturday after sheriff's deputies spotted a car Whalen had been reported driving.

Whalen, an ex-convict from San Rafael who worked himself up to a high position in the Sebastopol Apple Growers Union cannery, has waived extradition and will be returned to Sonoma County today or tomorrow, according to Sonoma Sheriff's Inspector Humbert Panizzera.

Panizzera said the deputies had traced Whalen to Bishop, Inyo County, and learned he bought a black 1951 Cadillac there, using the assumed name of Barclay. Mineral County, Nev., sheriff's deputies spotted the car's KAG-626 license plate, stopped it and arrested Whalen.

Apple growers union officials were apparently unaware of Whalen's record. Sgt. Tom Cole of the Sonoma sheriff's office, formerly a guard at San Quentin Prison when Whalen was an inmate on a forgery conviction, said Whalen had a dignified appearance with grey hair and glasses and "looks like an executive."

Whalen had become office manager for the cannery since his parole from the prison in 1960.

Minor Cuts, Bruises As Car Rolls Over

Felix P. Lahaderne of 1111 Irwin Street, San Rafael, sped off the Black Point cutoff road and rolled his car over when he failed to hold to the connector road to Highway 101 at 10:25 o'clock last night.

He refused hospitalization for minor cuts and bruises. The California Highway Patrol cited him on a charge of unsafe speed.

expands the effectiveness

FOR SENIOR CITIZENS
OVER 65

Nationwide, more than 5 million citizens 65 or over already have Blue Cross protection.

Based on this experience and a comprehensive study of senior citizens' requirements, Blue Cross in Northern California is offering a new program of protection for the over-65 age group.

There are no upper age limits. No physical examinations are required.

The benefits are designed to help meet the special needs of senior citizens.

Blue Cross realizes that there will be some senior citizens who cannot afford to purchase this protection. In such cases, Blue Cross makes it possible for relatives or others to arrange the protection for them.

Blue Cross, because of its traditional concern with the costs of care to subscribers, and its direct working relationship with hospitals, has always offered outstanding value. In 1961, for instance, Blue Cross Plans as a whole returned in benefits an average of 93¢ of every dollar paid in. That's far more than the average return for other forms of health protection.

As a result, Blue Cross is the organization most preferred by Americans to help assure the payment of their hospital and medical needs. Today, 59 million in all are enrolled in Blue Cross Plans.

Application must be made by October 31, 1962

Fall Floral Festival Is Set For Weekend By Garden Society

"Indian Summer" is the theme chosen by Herman Hein Marin landscape architect, designer for the annual Fall Floral Festival sponsored by the Garden Society of Marin.

Capt. L. F. Teuscher, president of the Society, and his committees have completed plans for the event to be held on Saturday and Sunday at the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross.

As in years past, it will be a judged show of floral arrangements and cut blooms along with the sale of blooming chrysanthemum plants.

Flowers and arrangements will be exhibited indoors this year to take advantage of the new wing of the Marin Society of Artists Building.

Hein has planned a landscaped design that will accommodate complimentary arrangements by professionals as well as cut blooms and potted plants. The Bonsai Club of Marin and the Orchid Society will honor the show by exhibiting.

Mrs. Esther McDonald is in charge of judges, with Mrs. Thomas Cusick directing the hostesses.

Serving as general chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Paterson with Mrs. Robert Tuckey, arrangements chairman, assisted by Mrs. Clifford Flack.

A. J. Daggett and Roy Rhoades will be in charge of the food booth and plant sales will be supervised by Mrs. E. P. Larson.

Show schedules for exhibitors will be available at the Art and Garden Center office or from Mrs. Tuckey.

Non-members as well as members are invited to exhibit.

The show will open to the public at noon on Saturday and close at 6 p.m. Hours for Sunday are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Following is the schedule for flower arrangers. Those who will exhibit cut blooms and potted plants may call the Center for a schedule:

NOVICE

1. Beauty of Form. An arrangement using driftwood. Your choice of appropriate plant material.

2. Grass Valley. Combination of wheat or any wild grass and mums. Foliage optional.

3. Duck Dinner. An arrangement suitable for a sportsman's dinner. Exhibitor's choice of plant material.

4. Indian Summer. Exhibitor's choice of plant material. Interpretation of title may express anything suggestive of the seasons.

AMATEUR

1. Farewell to Summer. Combination of dried and fresh material.

2. Gourmet's Delight. An arrangement using fruit, flowers and/or vegetables.

3. Supersonic. A tall arrangement. Exhibitor's choice of color and foliage material. Mums required.

4. October Song. An arrangement in fall colors. Figurine may be used if desired.

5. Garden Clean-up. Use a dried branch from your garden. Complete the arrangement with appropriate flowers and foliage. Mums preferred.

6. Indian Summer. Use Indian corn, gourds, a pumpkin or other material suggestive of late summer. Combine with flowers or foliage or both, any combination of the above is acceptable.

ADVANCED AMATEUR

1. Marvelous Marin. An all green arrangement. Sky is the limit, use pods, green mums, lemons or whatever you have in the garden but it must be green.

2. Salute to the Orient. Arrangement in the Oriental manner. Exhibitors choice of container and plant material.

3. Field and Garden. Combination of fresh and dried material. Mums required.

4. Little Jewels. A diminutive arrangement (not less than 8 inches or more than 12 inches).

6. Abstract. Exhibitor's interpretation. Anything goes.

7. Texture. Exhibitor's choice of material. Must have some fresh flowers. Mums preferred.

8. Indian Summer. A blend of flowers, foliage, fruit and/or vegetables.

INVITATIONAL

Exhibitor's interpretation of any of the above categories or any other arrangement (except Little Jewels) suitable to the season or suggestive of Indian Summer.

HAWAIIAN VACATION

Bound for the Hawaiian Islands aboard the SS Lurline as it prepared to depart San Francisco Harbor are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nelson of Novato.

Psychiatric Social Worker Joins Social Service Staff

Margaret P. Frings of Mill Valley, psychiatric social worker, has been selected as a new staff member of Catholic Social Service in Marin, bringing to her new post an extensive professional background.

After obtaining her degree in psychology from the University of California, she spent two years in the School of Social Work at American University, Washington, D.C., for a master's degree in social work.

When Miss Frings returned to California she became a family caseworker at the Catholic Social Service office in San Francisco, working with foster parents and children, as well as intake and treatment of family problems.

THEN, FOR SIX years, as clinical social worker at the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco, she worked with patients in the cardiac and psychomatic clinics and with in-patients of the Internal Medicine Service of Moffitt Hospital. Here she also studied the social service needs of hospitalized medical patients and conducted weekly therapy groups with consultation from Dr. Eric Berne.

Miss Frings has just finished the third year of her program of advanced study, returning from the School of Social Administration of the University of Chicago, where her field assignment at the Illinois State Psychiatric Institute put special emphasis on the therapeutic implications of the "role theory" in family centered therapy.

A GRADUATE of the University of California, she also studied at San Francisco College for Women, Lone Mountain, where she edited their college newspaper, and the California School of Fine Arts. More recently she has been absorbed in "potting" the past couple of years, after studying ceramics at the College of Marin.

As a member of the Sierra Club, she is a mountain devotee and not only does the burro-packing of the "mountaineer," but also makes her home in a studio perched atop Mount Tamalpais.

SISTER MARTINA, acting director of the Marin office of Catholic Social Service, which is a United Crusade Agency, says, "Miss Frings will not only be part of the staff here, helping to implement the community pyschiatry program, techniques and trends being used in the field of social work."

Sister Martina's staff also includes Sister Marcia, Sister Helena and Mrs. Raymond Hebel, all of whom are psychiatric social workers who have completed their graduate work. David Sherbon, M.D., gives psychiatric consultation weekly to the staff, as well as psychiatric seminars twice monthly. Dr. Sherbon is in private practice, and is psychiatric director for the Marin Medical Department.

FAMILY WELFARE is the major service offered locally. Most of the problems presented are centered in the relationships of married couples with each other, including, however, any parent-child relationships that show discord. Unmarried parents are each given counseling when both are available to be seen, with sympathetic, understanding help in planning for the future of the child.

School Shelters Debate Is Set By Mill Valley P-TAs

A debate on "Shall bomb shelters or air-raid shelters be required in new schools?" will take place between William W. Ward, regional director of the State Disaster Office, and Ben Seaver, chairman of the Friends Committee on Legislation for Northern California at Edna Maguire School in Mill Valley on Thursday at 8 p.m.

The public debate, which will be followed by questions to the speakers from the audience, is sponsored by Parent-Teacher Assn. units from Old Mill School and Tamalpais High School.

The purpose of the meeting is to present information and arguments about this question which is before the state legislature. All P-TA units have been asked to determine the stand to be taken by the California Congress of Parents and Teachers in Sacramento.

Gift Wrap Program To Open Section's New Lunch Series

"Gift Wrapping Magic" by "Toby" will highlight the first of a new series of luncheons to be inaugurated by the San Rafael Improvement Club tomorrow. Luncheon is set for 12:30 p.m.

The day's events will present a number of firsts for the club. The newly organized "American Home Section," under the chairmanship of Mrs. Cletus Fitzharris and Mrs. Louis Walsh, will pioneer a monthly luncheon series which will feature simplicity in food and serving, with emphasis on companionship and getting acquainted.

THIS FIRST luncheon is limited to members only, said reservation chairman Mrs. William Howe of San Rafael. Chairman of the luncheon is Mrs. George Ballantyne, assisted by Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. Robert Logan and Mrs. Fitzharris.

Speaker of the day, Toby, has presented his gift wrapping artistry and his paper sculpture on several television programs. One of his new ribbon designs, which he will show on Tuesday, is a Christmas pine cone. He may also show a sample of his folded paper sculpture.

BECAUSE THE American Home Section is just being formed, there will also be a number of token displays relating to possible fields of interest for potential section members. There will be opportunity for members to visit with some of those who represent special fields of interest. Mrs. Ragnar Thaning, for instance, will discuss furniture re-finishing with them; Mrs. John Pitcher, knitting; Mrs. Louis Yuvan, flower arrangement; Mrs. Richard Hardin, painting, etc.

Two other projects are on the immediate agenda for the American Home Section. One is for a group to attend the Christmas Show in the Oakland Auditorium between 5 and 8. The other is to present the club's first cookbook.

Belgian Consul's Talk Postponed

The talk scheduled tonight by Jacques Roothaert, Belgian consul general, for the International Relations Section of American Assn. of University, Marin Branch, has been postponed one week, the section announced today.

Mr. Roothaert, who will speak on "New Developments in the Common Market," will appear Oct. 29 at 8 p.m. for the meeting at the home of Mrs. William R. Eastman of San Rafael.

Elastic Thread Helps Tots Keep Buttons On Clothes

By EUNICE FARMER

"Use elastic thread to sew buttons on coats and jackets for your school children. The extra 'give' from the elastic compensates for the extra 'strain' on the buttons and will keep them from popping off so fast. This will save mothers time and patience."

"I would like to make over a velvet dress and would like to know if there is any way to take out the stitching marks that show from the original stitching?"—Mrs. L.A.L.

Dear Mrs. L.A.L.:

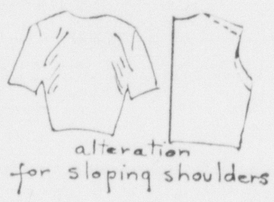
The marks from machine stitching are almost impossible to remove from velvet. The longer they have been in, the harder the task. My only suggestion would be to hold the velvet close to the steam from a tea kettle and gently brush as it steams. If any of you readers have a better idea, please come to our rescue.

"I sew for my grandchild and a size 2 fits her well except that it is about 4 inches too long. If I buy a size 1, it is too small. How does one buy children's patterns?" — Mrs. D.M.S.

Dear Mrs. D.M.S.:

Buy the pattern according to the chest measurement. The age of the child often has little to do with the size pattern you will need. The length of the garment would be measured in the same way you would measure the length of the pattern for an adult, both from shoulder to waistline, and from the waistline to the finished length of the skirt. Since children's heights vary considerably at any age, it is usually necessary to adjust the length of the pattern.

"One of the mysteries of adjusting a ready-made garment is the diagonal wrinkles that form on the bodice, just in front of the armholes. What can I do about this, it happens on almost all the clothes I buy?"—Mrs. L.R.



Dear Mrs. L.R.:

The diagonal wrinkles you speak of are usually caused by very sloping shoulders. If this is the case with you, rip the sleeve out of your garment. Make a new shoulder seam by taking at least ½-inch additional seam allowance at the armhole and taper to the original seam at the neckline.

To make the sleeve fit into the armhole, you will have to trim the underarm seam about ½-inch lower, tapering to nothing about halfway to the shoulder. I would check the way your garment hangs at this time, if the wrinkles have disappeared, you may reset the sleeves.

Your Sewing Glossary: Revers: Front part of the bodice, coat or jacket, that rolls back to form lapels. This actually is part of the front facing of your garment.

Your sewing "short cuts" may be old to you, but new to someone else. Send them to Sew Simple and make many new friends. I welcome letters from you and will answer them as soon as possible in this column.

Sondra Gail Dennis Will Be Bride Of Khosro Djahanbani

The engagement of Sondra Gail Dennis to Khosro Diahanbani was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Floyd Dennis of San Anselmo at a family party Saturday at the home of Mrs. John Hoerl of Sacramento, sister of the future bridegroom.

Sondra is the sister of Sharon Diane and James Michael Dennis of San Anselmo, and the granddaughter of Dee Johnson and the late Mrs. Johnson and of James Dennis of Poteau, Okla. and the late Mrs. Dennis.

She was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is employed in San Francisco by Remington Rand.

The future bridegroom is the son of Gen. and Mrs. Amanolah Djahanbani of Tehran, Iran. He is the brother of Mrs. Hoerl, Maj. Nader Djahanbani of Tehran, Capt. Parvies Djahanbani of Tehran, Dr. Massoud Djahanbani, who is consul general of Iran in New York City, and Lt. Gen. Hossein Djahanbani, military attache to the Iranian embassy in London.

His grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Amanolah Djahanbani and the late Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Kasminsky.

Khosro was graduated from Lodi High School and is now a student at Sacramento State College, where is is a member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity. He is employed by All-State Insurance Co. in Sacramento.

The couple plans a wedding on Dec. 15 and will reside in Sacramento.

Mill Valley Couple To Head Edna Maguire P-TA Program

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Mill Valley's Edna Maguire School Parent-Teacher Assn. will have an extraordinarily dynamic leadership this year with Dr. Calvin Terwilliger and his wife as president and second vice president, respectively.

Questioned as to how he had been persuaded to accept such an office, Dr. Terwilliger, an orthopedic surgeon, said, "Men are becoming more and more active in P-TA, and my election is a reflection of this trend.

"I am impressed with the local level functions of the P-TA and the opportunities it has to enrich the lives of students and add something the scholastic routine does not provide."

Dr. Terwilliger went on to speak of P-TA contributions in the fields of music and library and the important social dancing classes established at Edna Maguire a year or so ago in which youngsters are taught dancing—"so that they don't have to go through the awkward misery I went through at the Junior Prom."

IN THE 'THINKING ABOUT' stage with the Terwilligers, who are not always on the same side of the question, are some very important projects they would like to see the P-TA work on this year.

They are divided in their opinions on abolishment of the eighth grade graduation with Dr. Terwilliger inclined to favor retaining it and his wife sure it should be eliminated for a number of reasons including the inconvenience of having to use Tamalpais high school faciliites.

She would rather see an operetta given in its place in another project both think should be investigated.

This is an open-air amphitheater to occupy the area against the hills between Alto and Edna Maguire schools to be used, they say, by both of the schools and the community. The proposal will come before the Mill Valley school board of trustees at its Nov. 5 meeting.

Other projects they hope to work on are getting physical education taken off the honor roll qualifications because of its discrimination against non-sports minded and physically limited children, and building of a covering — probably of clear plastic — between the school's two buildings so that children can eat outside during rainy weather.

THEY WOULD also like to do something about one block without sidewalk that interferes with children following a safety rule about walking on the right hand side of the street on the way to school.

According to his wife, children, outdoor activities and reading — especially Civil War and California history — are his greatest interests outside his profession. Whenever possible "he is outdoors or has his nose in a book," she said.

The whole family is intensely interested in nature and conservation. Dr. Terwilliger is a member of the Sierra Club, the Marin Conservation League, the Marin Nature Group, Marin Audubon Society, Rod and Gun Club, and he is among those who teach first aid to Boy Scout Troop 28 in Mill Valley. He is also a member of the Commonwealth Club in San Francisco.

A NATIVE OF Porterville, he received his M.D. degree from Stanford Medical School and had three years' training in orthopedic surgery at New York Orthopedic Hospital. During World War II he was at the Walter Reed General Hospital in Washington, D. C. two years and at England General Hospital in New Jersey two years.

The Terwilligers met when he was a student in medical school and she was in training to become a registered nurse.

They had hiked all over Marin and decided some day they would live in Mill Valley. However, after their marriage they lived five years in Sausalito, and three years in Strawberry before they moved to Mill Valley. They have two children, Lynn Ellen, 15; and John, 13.

Other officers serving the Edna Maguire P-TA this year are Mesdames Harold Jolley, first vice president; Albert Kerss, secretary; and E. L. Muszynski, treasurer.

A Few Words About Speeches May Help The 'Unaccustomed'

NEW YORK (UPI)—Unaccustomed as we are, somewhere along the line we all are called on to say a few words.

Keep them few is the advice of a woman who's devoted a career to helping men and women feel at ease before an audience.

"Even the featured speaker shouldn't run more than 40 minutes in my opinion," said Dorothy Carnegie, widow of Dale Carnegie.

"Remember, if you have stage fright, you're not alone. But you can make it work for you. With practice, the terror turns to excitement.

"Preparation is one of the best ways of whipping stage fright," she said. "And draw on your own experience when you plan a talk."

Other suggestions:

—A basic color scheme is preferable. No red shoes with black dress. But red in suit or dress is a good platform color. Black often "blurs" the speaker out.

—On hats. They're not mandatory on the platform. If you wear a hat, keep it small. Keep it free of any bobbing flowers that'll go into motion as you talk.

—Keep jewelry simple too. No jangling armful of charm bracelets, or dangling earrings.

"And I wish," said Mrs. Carnegie, "that sponsoring groups once and for all would quit sending the inevitable corsage. If they must send flowers, present them after the speech.

A bouquet for Ames
"There is no other dealer!"

After the personal attention and consideration I received from Andy Serio and the management at Ames Ford in my first car purchase, I went right back to them for my new '63 Fairlane. Another wise move on my part.

LANVIN CASTILLO chose the exclusive Arctic dawn mink of Finland to create a stole of sweeping elegance and opulance with the flair for "making entrances" for which this house of fashion is famous. With each turn of the shaping another new effect happens and a totally new stole fashion appears. That's why it has been dubbed "kaleidescope" as well.

PIERRE BALMAIN chose to create this full length pastel mink coat of great simplicity in the grand manner as his contribution to the ultimate fur collection. The distinctive shoulder treatment, the newly draped back line, the high slit skirt that moves with the body are all timeless and classic.

THE FAMED LAURENT sailor suit which swept Paris in the debut showing of the Yves St. Laurent collection has been transplanted by the designer in all its gaiety and wit into pastel mink as a fashionably outrageous gesture. The dickey front, called a "modesty" can be worn in or out depending on dramatics desired. It's topped with Mr. John's great black mink beret.

Rainbow Sewing Club To Give Its Fall Luncheon And Bazaar

The fall luncheon and bazaar of the Rainbow Sewing Club of San Rafael will be given Friday at the Odd Fellows Temple in San Rafael, with luncheon beginning at 11 a.m. and continuing until 1 p.m.

Mrs. James W. Rowe, club president, is chairman for the hot dish luncheon, assisted by club members, who are also members of Golden Star Rebekah Lodge 112. The committee includes Mesdames Robert Arbini, Arthur Blake, Armand Baker, Gordon Dixon, Jessie R. Cornwell, Lillian Croft, Herbert Cranton, Janie Gustafson, Winifred Guise, Minnie Howard, Herbert Harmon, R. F. Hook, Zola Horton, G. W. Hughes, Frank Nickerson, Kenneth Irwin, Lawrence Meyers, John MacPhail, Ned Miller, Henry Nelson, William Russell, John Sterling Sr., James Williams, Louis Woelfl, Lenora Malone and Sidney Miller.

Proceeds from the luncheon and bazaar will be used to provide Christmas treats for Odd Fellows Children's Home in Gilroy and the Odd Fellows Home in Saratoga. The club also contributes to Guide Dogs for the Blind and to Odd Fellows Eye Bank.

Jeanette Brown Is Bride In San Anselmo Church Rite

Jeanette B. Brown became the bride of Orville R. Koenning on Saturday evening at the First Baptist Church of San Anselmo, the Rev. Jerald Traeger officiating.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Frances Brown of San Rafael, was given in marriage by Victor Thole of San Rafael. She donned a white gown of lace over taffeta, ballerina length. Mrs. Betty White of San Rafael was matron of honor.

Best man for the bridegroom was John Piaszk of Forest Knolls. Ushers were John Low and Gilbert Kibler. After the ceremony a reception was given at the Brown home. The couple took a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.

Jeanette is a Sir Francis Drake High School graduate and is employed by Northwestern Savings and Loan Assn. Walter Brown of San Francisco is her brother.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward John Koenning of Shiner, Tex., and the brother of Arlene, Alice, Eddie, June, Sandra, Marilyn, Kenneth, Carlton, Edward, Harold and Gerald Koenning.

He was graduated from Shiner High School and is employed by Central States Concrete Pipe Co. in Novato.

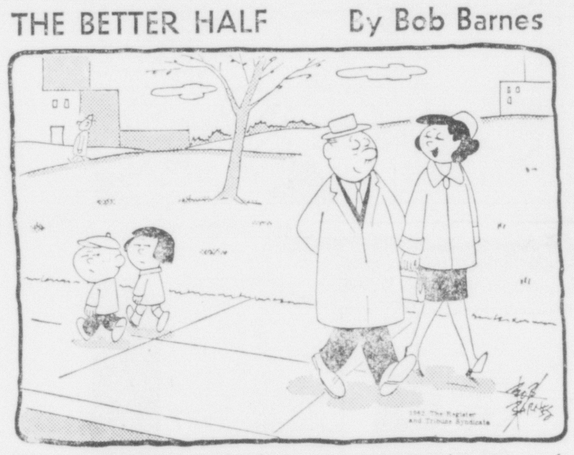
THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes



"You pat children on the head, you never keep promises, you evade issues, you have a strong pair of lungs . . . How come you didn't go into politics?"

You Can Encourage Child's Enjoyment Of Good Reading

The school year is well underway, new books are flowing into the bookstores and libraries, and everyone is thinking ahead to Christmas.

It is a good time for parents to take stock of what they are doing to encourage their children's reading and enjoyment of books, say librarians. See how you score on this checklist of things every family can do.

Does everyone in your family old enough to sign his name have a library card?

Do you help your young children make regular use of the library and continue to encourage your older children to do so?

Do you have a regular time for reading aloud?

Do you have up-to-date reference books in your home library to answer spontaneous questions as well as to help with homework?

Top Parisian Designers Meet The Challenge Of Fur Fashion

A fashion Odyssey which began in the mink ranches of Scandanavia, proceeded to the posh solons of Paris and Rome, and drew to a close on New York's Seventh Avenue, makes the most exciting fur fashion news of the season.

The goal was the ultimate fur collection—a couture collection of the most precious minks in the rarest, newest shades, styled by the world's foremost designers and interpreted by leading manufacturers.

TEN OF THE Continent's most famous names agreed to pool their talents and contribute one canvas each to the collection—a creation that would have the unmistakable "signature" of its author. Balenciaga, Givenchy, St. Laurent, Balmain, Chanel, Dior, Lanvin-Castillo, Cardin, Ricci and Simonetta would be the signatures.

The natural product—the furs themselves—would be prime beauties from Scandanavia's ranches. A committee of fur experts from Norway, Finland, Denmark and Sweden selected the pelts—many of them in shades never before seen on this side of the Atlantic.

FOR HIS COAT, called "Country Morning," Balenciaga chose pearl mink from Sweden. The new wide shoulders, never padded but simply shaped in tomorrow's fuller fashion, herald a trend. The body of the coat—with the familiar Balenciaga oval feeling—tapers at the hemline.

Yves St. Laurent translated the middy blouse of his famed "sailor suit" into pastel mink—right down to its dickey front. The creation which caused such a stir when introduced in Paris takes on lavish elegance in mink . . . but loses none of its dashing flair. The dickey or "modesty" front can be worn in or out.

Bridging the styles, from casual to dressier afternoon wear, is a Chanel jacket in sapphire mink. Featuring the season's slightly wider lapels, it's notable for Chanel's own little finishing touches—for instance, her tiny signature brass buttons.

IF IT'S "LUNCHEON and On" on milady's schedule, she'll delight in Nina Ricci's sophisticated coat which was executed in an exclusive new sage mutation, "Demi-buff" from Denmark. Important new shaping is shown in the easy princess feeling, the elegant trumpet sleeve and the intricately detailed shaping of the dramatic back.

Balmain and Givenchy also gave us coats to be appreciated in daylight. Full-length and all pastel mink Balmain's creation bespeaks simplicity, from its newly draped back line to its high slit skirt that moves with the body.

Givenchy worked in saga natural black mink from Norway. His new 7/8 length coat features the collarless look, but is fitted with magnificently precise detail at the neck. Shoulder treatment shows the new, wide shape to come . . . sleeves are luxuriously long . . . and again, the oval body ends in a tapered hem.

PIERRE CARDIN CALLS his cape "Cocktail Party". It has three typical touches — tight little pleats, a hint of the pouf and free moving comfort. Perfection in Arctic blue mink from Norway, it will be as at home at an intimate cocktail party as on a ballroom floor.

Similarly styled for an "evening on the town" is Simonetta's extravagant "Poncho". Lavish in an mutation mink from Finland—topal mink—it's executed with the famous casual flair of the Italian designer, but might go over the grandest ball gown in any collection.

THE LABEL ON Lanvin-Castill's canvas was "Afternoon at the Races," but a better name for this sweeping stole might be "kaleidescope," because with each turn of the exquisite shaping, another new effect is achieved and a totally new stole fashion appears. In Arctic dawn mink from Finland, it's perfect for "making entrances."

The final fashion of the collection is flawless white mink, styled by the House of Christian Dior in the smart shape of the dashing Hungarian guardsman jacket. With a look of almost royal elegance, it's made to be dramatically "tossed" over the shoulders.

South's jump to three spades was forcing to game, of course. North went to four hearts to show spade support and mild interest in a slam.

North could not have a tremendous heart suit for he had opened with one notrump.

PAST GAME

South went past game by showing the clubs, and North had a chance to show the ace of diamonds. This was enough for South. He jumped to six spades.

West opened the jack of diamonds and declarer took the ace and the top hearts to get rid of a diamond. Then he led a low club from dummy.

East began a fine defense by discarding a heart instead of ruffing the club. South won with the king of clubs, led a trump to dummy's king and returned another low club.

ANOTHER HEART

East threw another heart, and South won with the ace of clubs. If East had ruffed either club, South would draw just one round of trumps and use dummy's other two trumps for ruffing club losers. This would enable him to make the slam.

After East refused to ruff a club with one of his worthless trumps South was doomed. When declarer gave up the third round of clubs to West, back came a trump.

PLEASE SMILE

West was just about to congratulate East on his magnificent restraint when East made a complaint. "All this fancy bidding is very confusing," he growled. "I thought the contract was six notrump. I wish I had known in time to ruff one of those clubs!"

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Minor Episodes Of Epilepsy May Be Overlooked For Months, Years

VAN DELLEN

Minor episodes of epilepsy (petit mal) may be so brief they are overlooked for months or years. This is ironical in modern times because drugs are available to control the condition. Most victims of petit mal are children, usually under age 10.

The attack comes on without warning and consists of a sudden blackout. The child becomes motionless, stares into space and does not respond to commands. Just as suddenly, consciousness returns and the youngster resumes whatever he is doing.

SHOULD THE BOUT come on while eating, the boy or girl may get a blank expression and chew more slowly but doesn't drop the knife or fork. Two to 20 seconds later, he resumes eating but has no idea what was said or what he did during the brief period of unconsciousness.

Some children have one blackout a week whereas others have them every 30 minutes. Those with frequent lapses do poorly in school because the continuity of instruction is interrupted so often. The child does not fall as a rule and may continue to walk or even ride a bicycle during an attack.

THE ENTIRE AFFAIR has been described as a blank place or an absence in the stream of consciousness. Various drugs (Tridione, Paradione, and Milontin) are effective in controling petit mal, though they are less effective in other types of epilepsy.

Do these children outgrow minor epilepsy? According to Dr. Louis D. Boshes of Chicago, some continue to have sieges of petit mal even in adult life but it is not unusual for them to become less and less frequent as the child gets older. In many, they disappear before age 20.

NOW AND THEN petit mal is replaced by the major type of epilepsy (grand mal) or by psychomotor seizures. Some develop convulsions; others, temporary hallucinations or illusions involving peculiar smells and tastes. Objects appear to be far away or unreal, as in the story, "Alice in Wonderland."

The occurrence of these episodes in childhood, with cessation in adult life, has been described as a separate syndrome (pyknolepsy). There is no way to determine ahead of time, however, those who will stop having attacks and those who will develop grand mal or psychomotor seizures later in life.

(Dr. Van Dellen will send leaflet on the various types of epilepsy if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

REPLY

This is 34 too many. Lemons have no curative powers. They contain vitamin C but so do oranges, apples and other fruits and vegetables. In addition, sucking lemons may be hard on the teeth.

VITAMINS IN BEER

NOTICE OF ADVANCED MATURITY
COUNTY OF MARIN
HILL HAVEN ROAD IMPROVEMENT PROJECT
SERIES 81-8
RESOLUTION OF INTENTION
No. 4425 ADOPTED MAY 1, 1956

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN, holders and owners of Bonds No. 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27 and 28, issued to represent unpaid assessments in the above project:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Treasurer of the County of Marin has advanced the maturity of the foregoing bonds to January 2, 1963.

You are further notified that you may, prior to the date of advanced maturity, surrender said bonds and receive the principal and interest thereon to the date of payment together with a premium thereon equal to five percent (5%) of the principal. If the bonds have not been sooner surrendered on the date herein fixed for advanced maturity, there will be set aside to your credit the amount of principal and accrued interest then due on the bonds together with a premium of five percent (5%) of the principal, and the bonds shall then be deemed to have matured and interest shall cease to accrue on the bonds. The amount so set aside will be paid to the holder or owner of the bonds upon demand and upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds,

PROJECT NO. 2452
MARIN COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, until November 13, 1962, for:

Resurfacing and constructing channelization of Sir Francis Drake Blvd., from Drake Market to the Hub.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Request for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, 1711 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, California.

Plans, Specifications (but not including Standard Specifications or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) (cash or check made payable to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin) to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten (10) percent of the bid. Guaranties shall be in the form of a certified or Cashier's check or a Bidder's bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guarantees not so retained by the County shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Proposal shall be filed with Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Court House, San Rafael, California.

Said Proposals will be opened and read by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors at 1:30 P.M. on the day specified above for receiving bids, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard. The Clerk will read only the total amount bid and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub totals and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Director of Public Works to which they will be removed for this purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

GEO. H. GNOSS, Clerk

Antiques-Imports Store Moving

Grant Smith Antiques-Imports of Bolinas will move its location from the Country Store to the old Adams house on Main Street in Bolinas, to be open for business Nov. 15.

Smith, the owner, said today that he has started a close-out sale at the Country Store to run two weeks. He opened the store, which includes varieties, drugs and school supplies, five years ago, having formerly owned the Sea Chest in Tiburon.

Smith, who resides in Bolinas, said that the 94 year old Adams house has been completely restored. His antiques are now at the new location; the sale is of other items.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

Rice Named General Manager Of Producers Of Haydite

The McNear Co., San Rafael, producers of Haydite aggregates and blocks, has announced the appointment of Clayton K. Rice as its general manager.

Rice has been with the firm for 17 years. He started as a bookkeeper, later became office manager and was named assistant manager in 1952.

A resident of San Rafael since 1937, he is married to the former Evelyn Menary. They have two children, Susan and Kim. He is active in a variety of civic and fraternal organizations and trade associations, and was recently made a director of the Extended Shale, Clay and Slate Institute of Washington, D. C.

"PORT LOUISE," a new store at 10 Louise Street off Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, deals in gifts, mosaics and creative arts.

MARIN REAL ESTATE BROKERS may get a leverage to boost home sales through the entry of a large private loan insurer into the California market — Mortgage Guaranty Insurance Corp. of Milwaukee. And since a Marin man has been named Northern California representative, there is bound to be considerable local interest in it.

G. F. Ard, a resident of Fairfax who has had a realty firm in San Francisco and is the new regional appointee, is out to promote MGIC insured 90-per cent home loans from Bakersfield to the Oregon line. Its quick check of loan applications makes approval or rejection possible within three days time—sometimes within 24 hours.

"These loans, available up to $26,500," says Ard, can be placed through savings and loan associations of your own choice, provided these institutions will go along with it."

THRIFTY DRUG STORES "200th Store Contest" closes at midnight tomorrow. Costs nothing to enter and blanks may be obtained at Thrifty stores in the Montecito Shopping Center, San Rafael and Corte Madera Shopping Center. Winners of 336 prizes will be selected in a Nov. 1 drawing.

SANITATION PROBLEMS can originate with improper layout and design, according to Keith White of Mill Valley, commercial designer for Western Contract Furnishers.

White, in addressing a group of sanitation experts in San Francisco last week, said any institution serving food has done only part of its job if good designing stops with the public areas. It's how things look behind the scenes that counts.

DON SPARROW of the Salon Royal in Novato was winner of the Marin "Hairdresser of the Year Award" at the recent contest of the Marin Cosmetologists Assn. at Bermuda Palms.

OUR BEST WISHES for an early recovery to Mrs. Esther Dearth of Northwestern Savings and Loan Assn. who is going through a "fuming" convalescence at home after a tricky bone operation on her foot at San Rafael General Hospital.

'Taming Of Shrew' At School Delayed

Joseph Wadlington, Redwood High School's dramatics instructor, has delayed the performance of "Taming of the Shrew" until the evenings of Nov. 1, 2, 8 and 9.

The play, originally scheduled for Oct. 25 and 26, and Nov. 2 and 3, is the first production to be staged in the new little theater. The play will be done in early California style. It will feature music and dancing.

Partnerless Parents To Discuss Dating

The problems of dating for a single parent will be discussed by Celia Walker of Family Service at 8 p.m. Thursday in the multi-purpose room at the Adaline Kent School.

The meeting is sponsored by the Marin chapter of Parents Without Partners, a group for divorced and widowed parents with children. A Halloween party for adults will be held Oct. 27 in the home of a member to be determined.

Richardson, Rafferty Questions Due

Max Rafferty and Ralph Richardson, candidates for state superintendent of public instruction, will be represented by two men in a question and answer session beginning at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Mill Valley Community Church.

The forum, sponsored by the Mill Valley branch of the American Assn. of University Women and open to the public, will include Richard Foster, superintendent of Jefferson Elementary School district in Daly City and former Marin County superintendent, speaking for Richardson.

Everett T. Calvert, an unsuccessful primary election candidate for state superintendent, will speak for Rafferty. Calvert is a former administrator in Pasadena and Kern County schools.

Moderator will be Mrs. Harry T. Magill.

BURTON R. KIRCHNER

Kirchner, Nieri Are Named Vice Presidents Of Bank

Burton R. Kirchner of San Rafael and Adolph L. Nieri of Novato have been named vice presidents of the new Bank of Marin by the bank's board of directors, announced William P. Murray Jr., president.

Both men began their banking careers in 1940 with the First National Bank in San Rafael and stayed in the main office after the recent merger with the Crocker-Anglo National Bank.

A charter for the Bank of Marin, which has taken temporary quarters a 836 Fourth Street, San Rafael, was granted by the state banking commission in July.

Kirchner, a past president of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, is chairman of the United Crusade campaign in Marin County. He and his wife, Verna, live at 3 Vista Wood Way, San Rafael. Their two sons attend University of Nevada.

Nieri, active in the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, is chairman of the Marin County Heart Fund Drive. He and his wife, Evogene, and two daughters live at 42 Shields Lane, Novato.

5 Marinites Enroll At Linfield College

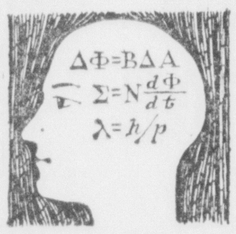
They are Sally Dresia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Dresia of 107 Santa Margarita Drive, San Rafael, and Susan Mae Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh G. Young of 2300 Las Gallinas Avenue, San Rafael, both freshmen; Gerald Moyer, a sophomore, and his brother, David Moyer, a senior, sons of Rev. and Mrs. Gerald S. Moyer of 9 Granada Drive, Corte Madera, and Beverly Bryson, daughter of C. H. Bryson of 170 Helens Lane, Mill Valley.

WILL AMERICA HAVE ENOUGH



BRAIN POWER?

Brain power is more important to us than ever, because it is the basis of our strength in . . . business and trade, science and invention, culture and living standards.

But the demand for brain power is growing—can we develop enough to hold our world lead?

Not unless we back higher education, which gives us our leaders. But colleges are in a squeeze. Many face serious shortages—they need laboratories, facilities and, above all, qualified teachers.

HELP THE COLLEGE OF YOUR CHOICE NOW!

More Than Million Autos Enter State

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — More than one million automobiles entered California in August alone, the State Agriculture Department reports.

Of the 1,034,384 cars coming into the state in that period, some 638,277 bore California license plates, while the rest came from other states or foreign countries.

Inmates Fight Fires

Proposal For County Library Hours Is Going To Supervisors

A proposal for morning and weekend opening of the Marin County Library when it is housed in the Civic Center will be presented to the county board of supervisors at their meeting starting at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

County Librarian Virginia Keating and Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows are understood to have decided on extension to evening hours twice weekly, details being given in a report which will go to the board over Barrows's signature.

Administrator Alan Bruce is reversing policy of his predecessor in letting his assistant sign reports. Another initial Barrows report going to the board tomorrow will be about preparation of plans for the new Hicks Valley substation for the county fire department.

Bruce will report on results of his conference on medical department policy and on revised "house rules" for the Civic Center administration building.

Architect Aaron Green during the afternoon is expected to give the board a revised schedule on probable next moves on acceptance of the administration building from the contractor, as indication of how soon the county departments may move in.
